ORDER-IN-APPEAL

Brief facts of the case

M/s. Charda Milk Producers Co-operative Society Ltd. Charda, Dhanera, Banaskantha, Gujarat, 385310 (hereinafter referred to as 'appellant') had filed appeal against Order bearing reference No. ZA2402200270478 dated 10.02.2020 for cancellation of Registration (hereinafter referred to as 'impugned order'), issued by Superintendent, Gaurav Kumar, Range-III, Deesa, Division- Palanpur, Gandhinagar, Commissionerate- (hereinafter referred to as 'adjudicating authority').

2. The brief facts of the case is that in view of the notification No. 34/2021-Central Tax dated 29th August 2021 issued by the Government, the appellant during the course of PH held on 03.09.2021 had requested to withdrew the appeal with the impression that they would be able to file application for revocation cancelled registration.

2.1 Government of India vide Notification No. 34/20121-Central Tax dated 29th August 2021 notified that where a registration has been cancelled under clause (b) or (c) of sub-section (2) of section 29 of the said Act and the time limit for making an application of revocation of cancellation of registration under sub-section (1) of section 30 of the said Act falls during the period from the 1st day of March, 2020 to 31st day of August, 2021, the time limit for making such application shall be extended upto the 30th day of September, 2021.

2.2 Accordingly, the appellant was permitted to withdraw the appeal and OIA No. AHM-CGST-003-APP-JC-21/2021-22 dated 10.09.2021 was issued. After withdrawal of the appeal the appellant tried to file revocation of the cancellation of registration on GST portal. The system did not allow them to file the revocation of the cancellation of the registration. The GST Help Desk on 29.09.2021 has advised the appellant that as per records, cancellation order date is "10.02.2020". Revocation can be applied within 579 days from the Cancellation Order date and it has been more than 579 days, so appellant need to file Appeal to the Appellate Authority and after that they can contact the Jurisdictional officer of the same ward from which it was rejected to restore it.

2.3 In view of the above technical issue the appellant has filed the present appeal on the 12.10.2021 with the submission that they tried to file revocation of cancellation of registration; because at the time hearing of appeal Government of India has published the press release dated 29.08.2021 that the assessee falling in particular criteria for filing the revocation of cancellation of registration is 30th September, 2021; when they were going to apply the revocation then the error message shows that the appellant cannot file the revocation because the no of days exceeds 579 days from the date of cancellation of registration; the appellant brought the issue with department and GST department suggested to file grievances on online portal accordingly they have created the ticket before the last date i.e. 30th September, 2021 but ticket has been closed and gives them the resolution that they cannot file the revocation as the as the no of days exceeds 579 from the date of the cancellation of registration; as date of cancellation of registration is 10th February, 2020 and due date to file revocation is 10th March, 2020 and as per the GST press release it is mentioned that the due date of filing revocation application falls between 01.03.2020 to 31.08.2021 which is not allowed to be filed earlier can again be filed upto 30.09.2021 by all assessee; but due to concern of 579 days of online portal they are unable to file the same within stipulated time.

Personal Hearing

3. The PH for the appeal was held on 30.11.2021 through virtual mode. CA Shree Viswjeet Gohil attended the hearing. He deposed that he has nothing more to add to their written submission filed till date

Discussions and Finding

4. Looking to above situation it is revealed that the appellant's sole purpose is to get revoke the cancelled Registration since, the first appeal was under consideration and in the mean time looking to Noti. No. 34/2021-Central Tax dated 29th August-2021, the appellant has requested for withdrawal of appeal which was approved by this appellate authority. However, somehow appellant could not able to make application for revocation and as advised by DGST System the appellant has preferred the present appeal. In view of forgoing discussion I am of the view to take up the appeal for decision on merit.

4.1 I have gone through the facts of the case, written submissions made by the 'appellant'. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time- limit and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation/restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer.

5 First of all, I would like to take up the issue of filing the appeal and before deciding the issue of filing the appeal on merits, it is imperative that the statutory provisions be gone through, which are reproduced, below

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(2) .....

(3) .....

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

6.1 I observed that in the instant case the appeal has been filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.

6.2 Further in the above context, I find that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has passed order dated 23.09.2021 in the matter of Miscellaneous Application No. 665 of 2021, in SMW ( C ) No. 3 of 2020. The relevant para No. 8 (II) of said order is reproduced as under:

8. Therefore, we dispose of the M.A. No. 665 of 2021 with the following directions:-

II In cases where the limitation would have expired during the period between 15.03.2020 till 02.10.2021, notwithstanding the actual balance period of limitation remaining, all persons shall have a limitation period of 90 days from 03.10.2021. In the event the actual balance period of limitation remaining, with effect from 03.10.2021, is greater than 90 days, that longer period shall apply.

In the present appeal, the "impugned order" is of 10/02/2020 so; the normal appeal period of three months was available upto 09.05.2020. Further, looking to the 'COD' application of appellant as well as Covid-19 pandemic situation the present appeal is condonable for one month as per Section 107(4) of the CGST Act, 2017. Accordingly, the appeal was required to be filed before 09.05.2020. Now, as per the Para 8( II) of the aforesaid order of Hon'ble Supreme Court the appellant become eligible to file appeal within three months from 03.10.2021. It is pertinent to mention here that the appellant has filed the present appeal on 12.10.2021 that is to say that appeal filed within three months from 03.10.2021.

6.3 I also find that the CBIC, New Delhi has issued Circular No. 157/13/121-GST dated 20th July, 2021 and clarified as under:-

4(c):- Appeals by taxpayers/ tax authorities against any quasi-judicial order:-
Wherever any appeal is required to filed before Joint/ Additional Commissioner (Appeals), Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, Tribunal and various courts against any quasi-judicial order or where a proceeding revision or rectification of any order is required to be undertaken, the time line for the same would stand extended as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court's order.

5. In other words, the extension of timelines granted by Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its Order dated 27.04.2021 is applicable in respect of any appeal which is required to be filed before Joint/ Additional Commissioner (Appeals), Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, Tribunal and various courts against any quasi-judicial order or where proceeding for revision or rectification of any order is required to be undertaken, and is not applicable to any other proceedings under GST Laws.

6.4 In view of above and also looking into the Covid-19 pandemic situation in the instant matter, I am inclined to condone the delay of filing of appeal. Therefore, I find that the present appeal is filed within stipulated time limit.

Accordingly, I am proceeded to decide the case.

7. I have gone through the facts of the case and the written submissions made by the appellant. I find that the adjudicating authority/proper officer has cancelled the registration with effect from 10.02.2020 as the appellant failed to file GST Returns for a continuous period of more than six months.

Further, I find that the provisions of revocation of cancellation of registration when the same is cancelled by the proper officer on suo moto basis are contained in Section 30 of the CGST Act, 2017 and Rule 23 of the CGST Rules, 2017. Therefore, I find it pertinent to refer Section 30 and Rule 23 as under: -

Section 30: Revocation of cancellation of registration.

(1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order.

(*) [Provided that such period may, on sufficient cause being shown, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended,']

(a) by the Additional Commissioner or the Joint Commissioner, as the case may be, for a period not exceeding thirty days;

(b) by the Commissioner, for a further period not exceeding thirty days, beyond the period specified in clause (a).]

(*) Substituted for the proviso — ["Provided that the registered person who was served notice under sub-section (2) of section 29 in the manner as provided in clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 169 and who could not reply to the said notice, thereby resulting in cancellation of his registration certificate and is hence unable to file application for revocation of cancellation of registration under sub-section (1) of section 30 of the Act, against such order passed up to 31.03.2019, shall be allowed to file application for revocation of cancellation of the registration not later than 22.07.2019//"]

(which was Inserted vide Order No. 05/2019-GST dated 23.04.2020)] by The Finance Act, 2020 (No. 12 of 2020) - Brought into force w.e.f. 01st January, 2021.

(2) The proper officer may, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, by order, either revoke cancellation of the registration or reject the application:

Provided that the application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall not be rejected unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The revocation of cancellation of registration under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be a revocation of cancellation of registration under this Act.

RULE 23. Revocation of cancellation of registration :-

(1) A registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may submit an application for revocation of cancellation of registration, in FORM GST REG-21, to such proper officer, within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order of cancellation of registration at the common portal, either directly or through a Facilitation Centre notified by the Commissioner:

Provided that no application for revocation shall be filed, if the registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns.

Provided further that all returns due for the period from the date of the order of cancellation of registration till the date of the order of revocation of cancellation of registration shall be furnished by the said person within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration:

Provided also that where the registration has been cancelled with retrospective effect, the registered person shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.

(2) (a) Where the proper officer is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that there are sufficient grounds for revocation of cancellation of registration, he shall revoke the cancellation of registration by an order in FORM GST REG-22 within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the application and communicate the same to the applicant.

(b) The proper officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, under circumstances other than those specified in clause (a), by an order in FORM GST REG-05, reject the application for revocation of cancellation of registration and communicate the same to the applicant.

(3) The proper officer shall, before passing the order referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (2), issue a notice in FORM GST REG-23 requiring the applicant to show cause as to why the application submitted for revocation under sub-rule (1) should not be rejected and the applicant shall furnish the reply within a period of seven working days from the date of the service of the notice in FORM-GST-REG-24.

(4) Upon receipt of the information or clarification in FORM GST REG-24, the proper officer shall proceed to dispose of the application in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of such information or clarification from the applicant.

8. Further, I find that the Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs, New Delhi has clarified the issue vide circular No. 99/18/2019-GST dated 28.04.2019. Para 3 of said circular read as under:

3. First proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules provides that if the registration has been cancelled on account of failure of the registered person to furnish returns, no application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall be filed, unless such returns are furnished and any amount in terms of such returns is paid. Thus, where the registration has been cancelled with effect from the date of order of cancellation of registration, all returns due till the date of such cancellation are required to be furnished before the application for revocation can be filed. Further, in such cases, in terms of the second proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules, all returns required to be furnished in respect of the period from the date of order of cancellation till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration have to be furnished within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of revocation.

9. On going through the records/submissions, I find that the appellant have filed GST Returns till February-2020 i.e. till the date of cancellation of registration and also informed that no GST liability is pending. Hence, I find that the appellant has complied with the above said provisions in the instant case. Therefore, I am of the opinion that the registration of appellant may be considered for revocation by the proper officer subject to due compliance of the conditions by the appellant under Rule 23(1) of CGST Rules, 2017. Accordingly, I allow the appeal of the appellant and order to the proper officer to consider the revocation application of the appellant after due verification of payment particulars of tax, penalty, late fee, interest and status of returns

11. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
