ORDER-IN-APPEAL

Brief facts of the case:-

Jitendra Hiralal Limbani (Trade Name: M/s Toran Infrastructures), D-501, Shree Rang Nagar, GIFT City Road, Near Randesan, Gandhinagar, Gujarat-382 007 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Appellant') has filed the present appeal against Order No. ZA240722042963J dated 08.07.2022 (hereinafter referred to as 'the impugned order'), for Cancellation of Registration issued by the Superintendent, Range-III, Division-Gandhinagar, Gandhinagar Commissionerate (hereinafter referred to as 'the adjudicating authority').

2. Briefly stated the fact of the case is that the appellant was registered under GSTIN 24AJIPL8695H1ZO. The appellant was issued Show Cause Notice dated 07.06.2022 for cancellation of their registration, on the grounds: "Any taxpayer other than composition taxpayer has not filed returns for a continuous period of six months." Subsequently, the adjudicating authority vide the impugned order dated 08.07.2022 ordered for cancellation of registration with effect from 01-11-2021 on the following reasons: "Not filing of returns since November 2021. Non-compliance will attract provisions for cancellation of regn under Section 29(2)(c) laid down in CGST Act, 2017 and CGST Rules, 2017."

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order the appellant filed the present appeal online on 12.01.2023 for revocation of cancellation of their GST Registration Number, wherein they contended that

- (i) The appellant is registered as normal taxpayer under section 22 of CGST Act, 2017 having GSTIN 24AJIPL8695H1ZO and are engaged in the activities of labor contract services;
- (ii) Allow them to file all pending returns under GST with Tax, interest and penalty;
- (iii) To set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal in full;
- (iv) Requested for revocation of cancellation of Registration;

PERSONAL HEARING:

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 16.03.2023. Shri Sanjay Panara, Chartered Accountant, appeared in person on behalf of the 'Appellant' as authorized representative.

Discussion & findings:

5. I have gone through the facts of the case, the impugned order and the grounds of appeal as well as written submissions of the appellant. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time limit; and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation / restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer. I find that the impugned order was issued on 08.07.2022 by the adjudicating authority and the said order was also communicated to them on the same day i.e on 08.07.2022. It is further observed that the appellant has filed the present appeal on 12.01.2023 along with self certified copy of the impugned order.

6. I further find it relevant to go through the relevant statutory provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017, which is reproduced as under:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(2) .....

(3) .....

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.“

6.1 Accordingly, I observed that the Appellant was required to file appeal within three (3) months from the receipt of the impugned order dated 08.07.2022. However, in the instant case the appellant has filed the present appeal on 12.01.2023 i.e. after a lapse of a period more than three months from the due date. Further, I also find that in terms of provisions of Section 107(4) ibid, the appellate authority has powers to condone the delay of one month in filing of appeal over and above the prescribed period of three months as mentioned above, if sufficient cause is shown. Accordingly, I find that there is an inordinate delay of more than three (3) months in filing the appeal over and above the normal period of three months. Thus, I find that the present appeal has been filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under the Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 cannot be entertained.

7. It is also observed that the appellant has applied for condonation of delay for 68 days in filing the appeal due to their ill health and unable to perform day to day activities but failed to submit any cogent reasons & documentary proof for such inordinate delay of more than two months in filing the present appeal. I find that this appellate authority is a creature of the statute and has to act as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act. This appellate authority, therefore, cannot condone the delay beyond the period permissible under the CGST Act. When legislature has intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning further delay of only one month, this appellate authority cannot go beyond the power vested by the legislature. My views are supported by the following case laws:

(i) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Singh Enterprises reported at 2008 (221) E.L.T.163 (S.C.) has held as under:

"8. ...The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only upto 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days period."

(ii) In the case of Makjai Laboratories Pvt Ltd reported at 2011 (274) E.L.T. 48 (Bom.), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that the Commissioner (Appeals) cannot condone delay beyond further period of 30 days from initial period of 60 days and that provisions of Limitation Act, 1963 is not applicable in such cases as Commissioner (Appeals) is not a Court.

(iii) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of Delta Impex reported at 2004 (173) E.L.T. 449 (Del) held that the Appellate authority has no jurisdiction to extend limitation even in a "suitable" case for a further period of more than thirty days.

8. I find that the provisions of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Act, 2017 are pari materia with the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 and Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and hence, the above judgments would be squarely applicable to the present appeal also.

9. By respectfully following the above judgments, I hold that this appellate authority cannot condone delay beyond further period of one month as prescribed under Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 as well as appeal is filed beyond the extension of time limit provided by the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide order dated 10.01.2022. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is required to be dismissed on the grounds of limitation as not filed within the prescribed time limit in terms of the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. I do not find any reason to interfere with the decision taken by the adjudicating authority vide the impugned order. I, accordingly, reject the present appeal filed by the appellant on time limitation factor.

10. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeals filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
