ORDER-IN-APPEAL

M/s. Amba Construction [Shri Chandubhai Shambhubhai Patel] Phase-III, B-113, Simandhar City, Trimandir Sankul, Adalaj, Gandhinagar, Gujarat-382421 (hereinafter referred to as 'appellant') has filed present appeal against Order bearing reference No. ZA241221135518V dated 27.12.2021 for order of Rejection of Application for Revocation of Cancellation. (hereinafter referred to as 'impugned order'), issued by Superintendent, CGST, Range-III, Division Gandhinagar, Gandhinagar Commissionerate- (hereinafter referred to as 'adjudicating authority').

2. Brief facts of the case are that appellant was issued Show Cause Notice reference number ZA2412210421169 dated 11.12.2021 by Superintendent CGST, Range III, Gandhinagar Division with the reason – Any Taxpayer other than composition taxpayer has not filed returns for a continuous period of six months with the reason – Any Taxpayer other than composition taxpayer has not filed returns for a continuous period of six months. The appellant was also directed to appear before adjudicating authority on 17.12.2021. After considering the reply of the Appellant the adjudicating authority cancelled the registration vide order reference No. ZA241221135518V dated 27.12.2021 with effect from 01.04.2021 with the reason “though scn issued for non filing of returns on dated 10/12/2021, the tax payer has not filed returns from April, 2021 onwards, accordingly, registration is hereby cancelled.”

3.1 Being aggrieved with the 'impugned order' dated 27.12.2021, the 'appellant' has filed the present appeal on 27.05.2022, i.e. after the delay of normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of CGST Act, 2017. The appellant has submitted that the GST Cancellation order is illegal, without jurisdiction and against the principal of natural justice and good conscience, hence deserves to be set aside; global pandemic situation across the country during the period March 2020 to November -2020, and April -2021 to May -2021; Appellant and his family members were also suffering from Covid; the financial problem during the period appellant could not able to file GST return with prescribed time limit; further the appellant has submitted that they have filed GST return with Interest and late fees till 31.03.2021 on GST Portal, for the period 01.04.2021 to 31.03.2022 appellant paid GST Tax liability with interest and late fees, as on 26.05.2022; appellant made First mistake for non-filing of GST return and requested to give one chance to update business profile.

Appellant vide their letter dated 08.07.2022 had requested to that it is very difficult to run business without valid GST registration and requested to give early hearing for appeal.

Personal Hearing :-

4. The Personal Hearing in virtual mode through video conferencing the matter was held on 18.08.2022. Authorised person of the appellant Advocate, Shri Manoj G. Patel attended the meeting and submitted that he has nothing more to add to the submissions till date.

Discussion and Findings :-

5. I have gone through the facts of the case, written submissions made by the 'appellant'. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time-limit and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation/restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer.

6. First of all, I would like to take up the issue of filing the appeal and before deciding the issue of filing the appeal on merits, it is imperative that the statutory provisions be gone through, which are reproduced, below:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

7.1 I observed that in the instant case the appeal has been filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.

Further, in the above context, I find that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has passed order on 10.01.2022 in matter of Miscellaneous Application No. 21 of 2022, in MA 665/2021 IN SMW(C) No. 3 of 2020. The relevant para No. 5 (III) of said order is reproduced as under :

5. Taking into consideration the arguments advanced by learned counsel and the impact of the surge of the virus on public health and adversities faced by litigants in the prevailing conditions, we deem it appropriate to dispose of the M.A. No. 21 of 2022 with the following direction:-

III. In cases where the limitation would have expired during the period between 15.03.2020 till 28.02.2022, notwithstanding the actual balance period of limitation remaining, all persons shall have a limitation period of 90 days from 01.03.2022. In the event the actual balance period of limitation remaining, with effect from 01.03.2022, is greater than 90 days, that longer period shall apply.

In the present appeal, the "impugned order" is of 27.12.2021 so the normal appeal period of three months was available up to 26.03.2022. I observed that in the instant case the appeal has been filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.. Accordingly, the appeal was required to be filed before 26.04.2022. Now, as per the Para 5(III) of the aforesaid order of Hon'ble Supreme Court the appellant became eligible to file appeal within three months from 01.03.2022. It is pertinent to mention here that the appellant has filed the present appeal on 27.05.2022 that is to say that appeal filed within 3 months from 01.03.2022.

7.3 I also find that the CBIC, New Delhi has issued Circular No. 157/13/121-GST dated 20th July, 2021 and clarified as under:-

4(c):- Appeals by taxpayers/ tax authorities against any quasi-judicial order:-Wherever any appeal is required to filed before Joint/ Additional Commissioner (Appeals), Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, Tribunal and various courts against any quasi-judicial order or where a proceeding for revision or rectification of any order is required to be undertaken, the time line for the same would stand extended as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court's order.

5. In other words, the extension of timelines granted by Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its Order dated 27.04.2021 is applicable in respect of any appeal which is required to be filed before Joint/ Additional Commissioner (Appeals), Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, Tribunal and various courts against any quasi-judicial order or where proceeding for revision or rectification of any order is required to be undertaken, and is not applicable to any other proceedings under GST Laws.

7.4 In view of above and also looking into the Covid-19 pandemic situation in the instant matter, I am inclined to condone the delay of filing of appeal. Therefore, I find that the present appeal is filed within stipulated time limit.

Accordingly, I am proceeded to decide the case.

8. I have gone through the facts of the case and the written submissions made by the appellant. I find that the adjudicating authority/proper officer has cancelled the registration with effect from 01.04.2021 as appellant failed to file GST returns for a continuous period of six months.

Further, I find that the provisions of revocation of cancellation of registration when the same is cancelled by the proper officer on suo moto basis are contained in Section 30 of the CGST Act, 2017 and Rule 23 of the CGST Rules, 2017. Therefore, I find it pertinent to refer Section 30 and Rule 23 as under: -

SECTION 30. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order :
[Provided that such period may, on sufficient cause being shown, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended, -

(a) by the Additional Commissioner or the Joint Commissioner, as the case may be, for a period not exceeding thirty days;

(b) by the Commissioner, for a further period not exceeding thirty days, beyond the period specified in clause (a).]

(2) The proper officer may, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, by order, either revoke cancellation of the registration or reject the application :

Provided that the application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall not be rejected unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The revocation of cancellation of registration under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be a revocation of cancellation of registration under this Act.

RULE 23. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1) A registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may submit an application for revocation of cancellation of registration, in FORM GST REG-21, to such proper officer, within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order of cancellation of registration at the common portal, either directly or through a Facilitation Centre notified by the Commissioner :

Provided that no application for revocation shall be filed, if the registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns :

[Provided further that all returns due for the period from the date of the order of cancellation of registration till the date of the order of revocation of cancellation of registration shall be furnished by the said person within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration :

Provided also that where the registration has been cancelled with retrospective effect, the registered person shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.]

(2) (a) Where the proper officer is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that there are sufficient grounds for revocation of cancellation of registration, he shall revoke the cancellation of registration by an order in FORM GST REG-22 within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the application and communicate the same to the applicant.

(b) The proper officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, under circumstances other than those specified in clause (a), by an order in FORM GST REG-05, reject the application for revocation of cancellation of registration and communicate the same to the applicant.

(3) The proper officer shall, before passing the order referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (2), issue a notice in FORM GST REG-23 requiring the applicant to show cause as to why the application submitted for revocation under sub-rule (1) should not be rejected and the applicant shall furnish the reply within a period of seven working days from the date of the service of the notice in FORM GST REG-24.

(4) Upon receipt of the information or clarification in FORM GST REG-24, the proper officer shall proceed to dispose of the application in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of such information or clarification from the applicant.

9. Further, I find that the Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs, New Delhi has clarified the issue vide circular No. 99/18/2019-GST dated 23.04.2019. Para 3 of said circular read as under:

3. First proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules provides that if the registration has been cancelled on account of failure of the registered person to furnish returns, no application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall be filed, unless such returns are furnished and any amount in terms of such returns is paid. Thus, where the registration has been cancelled with effect from the date of order of cancellation of registration, all returns due till the date of such cancellation are required to be furnished before the application for revocation can be filed. Further, in such cases, in terms of the second proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules, all returns required to be furnished in respect of the period from the date of order of cancellation till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration have to be furnished within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of revocation.

10. On going through the records/submissions, I find that the range superintendent cancelled the registration due to the reason that the appellant did file GST returns for the continuous period of 06 months. I find that in appeal memorandum the appellant has deposed that due to Covid-19 pandemic, business was not in good position and suffering with financial problem. The appellant did not file GST return from April-2021 on ward within time limit and registration was cancelled. The appellant further deposed that they could not file application for Revocation of Cancellation application due to time expired. I find that the appellant has declared in the appeal memorandum that they have filed GST Returns till March-2021 i.e. till the date of cancellation of registration and also informed that due to Covid Appellant and his family member were also suffering from Covid. Hence they could not file the GST returns in prescribed time. I find that the appellant has deposed that due to cancellation of registration the appellant cannot run their business. I find that the appellant is ready to file the remaining GST returns and pay the all the dues. Hence, I find that the appellant has complied with the above said provisions in the instant case. Therefore, I am of the opinion that the registration of appellant may be considered for revocation by the proper officer subject to due compliance of the conditions by the appellant under Rule 23(1) of CGST Rules, 2017. Accordingly, I allow the appeal of the appellant and order to the proper officer to consider the revocation application of the appellant after due verification of payment particulars of tax, penalty, late fee, interest and status of returns.

11. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
11. The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
