2. Briefly stated the fact of the case is that the appellant was registered under GSTIN 24AENPV5304B1ZO. The appellant was issued Show Cause Notice for cancellation of registration due to failure to furnish returns for a continuous period of six months. Subsequently, the Superintendent, Central GST, Range -II, Division - Gandhinagar, Gandhinagar Commissionerate, has passed the impugned order citing the following reasons:- "*1. Party not responded to SCN dt 14.01.23 nor appear for hearing as per schedule. The effective date of cancellation of your registration is 01.07.2022.

3. Being aggrieved, the appellant filed the present appeal on 18.05.2023, against the impugned order, inter-alia, contending that:-

- (i) They have filed all pending returns upto June 2022;
- (ii) they are unable to file returns from July 2022 and onwards due to unavoidable circumstances, as they were facing financial difficulties and therefore unable to meet tax obligations. Now, they rectified the same and cleared all outstanding dues;
- (iii) request for revocation of cancelled GST registration;

Personal Hearing

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 26.05.2023. Mr. Rushabh Prajapati, Advocate, appeared in person on behalf of the 'Appellant' as authorized representative. He stated that they do not want to add anything more to their written submission till date.

Discussion & Findings:

5. I have gone through the facts of the case, available records and the written submissions made by the appellant. Before deciding the matter it is to be verified whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time- limit or not.

The relevant statutory provisions are reproduced as under:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(2) .....

(3) .....

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

6. I observed that in the instant case the appeal has been filed by the appellant on 18.05.2023 being aggrieved against the impugned order dated 28.02.2023. Therefore, the appellant is required to file the present appeal on or before 28.05.2023, hence, appeal is filed within the normal period of three months under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. Accordingly, I am proceeded to decide the case.

7. I have carefully gone through the case, available records and written submission of the appellant. In the present matter, I find that the appellant had obtained registration under the CGST Act, 2017 but not filed returns for a continuous period of six months and not replied to the Show Cause Notice dated 15.01.2023. Therefore, the appellant's registration was cancelled under provision of Section 29(2) of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as 'CGST Act'), on suo moto basis by the jurisdictional proper officer, vide the 'impugned order'.

8. Looking into facts of the case, I find it germane to refer the provisions of revocation of cancellation of registration. The relevant Section 30 of the CGST Act, 2017 and Rule 23 of the CGST Rules, 2017 are reproduced as under;

Section 30: Revocation of cancellation of registration.

(1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order.

Provided that such period may, on sufficient cause being shown, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended,

- (a) by the Additional Commissioner or the Joint Commissioner, as the case may be, for a period not exceeding thirty days;
- (b) by the Commissioner, for a further period not exceeding thirty days, beyond the period specified in clause (a)

(2) The proper officer may, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, by order, either revoke cancellation of the registration or reject the application.

Provided that the application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall not be rejected unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The revocation of cancellation of registration under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be a revocation of cancellation of registration under this Act.

RULE 23. Revocation of cancellation of registration:-

(1) A registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may, subject to the provisions of rule 10B submit an application for revocation of cancellation of registration, in FORM GST REG-21, to such proper officer, within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order of cancellation of registration or within such time period as extended by the Additional Commissioner or Joint Commissioner or the Commissioner, as the case may be, in exercise of powers provided under the proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 30, at the common portal, either directly or through a Facilitation Centre notified by the Commissioner:

Provided that no application for revocation shall be filed, if the registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns.

Provided further that all returns due for the period from the date of the order of cancellation of registration till the date of the order of revocation of cancellation of registration shall be furnished by the said person within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration:

Provided also that where the registration has been cancelled with retrospective effect, the registered person shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.

(2) (a) Where the proper officer is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that there are sufficient grounds for revocation of cancellation of registration, he shall revoke the cancellation of registration by an order in FORM GST REG-22 within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the application and communicate the same to the applicant.

(b) The proper officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, under circumstances other than those specified in clause (a), by an order in FORM GST REG-05, reject the application for revocation of cancellation of registration and communicate the same to the applicant.

(3) The proper officer shall, before passing the order referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (2), issue a notice in FORM GST REG-23 requiring the applicant to show cause as to why the application submitted for revocation under sub-rule (1) should not be rejected and the applicant shall furnish the reply within a period of seven working days from the date of the service of the notice in FORM GST REG-24.

(4) Upon receipt of the information or clarification in FORM GST REG-24, the proper officer shall proceed to dispose of the application in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of such information or clarification from the applicant.

9. On perusal of above Section 30(1), I find that subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order. Further, as per first proviso to Rule 23(1) of the CGST Rules, no such application can be filed in cases where registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns. Furthermore, as per second proviso to the said rule, it is provided also that where the registration has been cancelled, the registered person shall furnish all returns due for the period from the date of the order of cancellation of registration till the date of the order of revocation of cancellation of registration.

within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.

10. I find that registration of the appellant has been cancelled with effect from 01.07.2022. On going through the status of filing of GST Returns on common portal, I find that they have filed their returns in the form of GSTR-1 and GSTR-3B upto the cancellation of their GST registration (i.e upto June 2022). It is obvious that the system does not allow for filing returns for the period falling after the effective date of cancellation of registration. Therefore, second proviso to Rule 23(1) mandates filing of returns for such periods within 30 days from date of revocation of cancellation of registration. However, I find that the appellant has submitted challans amounting to Rs. 13,46,174/- (Duty Rs. 12,75,610/- + Interest Rs. 70,564/-) for the period from July-2022 to Feb-2023 and ready to pay all the outstanding dues with interest, penalty and late fees.

11. In view of above, since the appellant has filed this appeal for revocation or restoration of their cancelled registration for continuing their business activity, in the interest of justice, fairness and Government revenue, I allow this appeal to consider revocation of cancellation of their registration. I further order that the appropriate authority may consider their request for restoration of GST registration, made in consequent to this Order, in accordance with provisions of CGST Act and Rules framed under and instructions in force after verification of dues paid by the appellant. Accordingly, I set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal filed by the appellant.

12. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

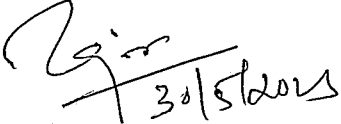

12. The appeals filed by the appellants stand disposed of in above terms.
