ORDER IN APPEAL

This appeal has been filed by M/s. Gokul Refoils & Solvent Ltd. (Now M/s. Gokul Agri International Ltd.), Sidhpur (for brevity-"the appellant") against order-in-original No. 349/Ref/AC/2015 dated 28.12.2015 (hereinafter referred to "the impugned order") passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Central Excise, Mehsana (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority")

2. Briefly stated, the appellant has filed a refund claim of Rs.4,36,933/- under notification No. 41/2012-ST dated 29.6.2012, seeking refund of service tax paid on the taxable services, which were received and used for export of goods manufactured by them. The said notification grants rebate of service tax paid on specified services, received and used by exporter of goods, by way of refunding the service tax so paid, subject to certain conditions. The taxable services involved are: [a] Terminal Handling Charges service (THC); [b] Custom House agent service; [c] Storage and Warehouse services; [d] Technical Inspection and Certificate Service; and [e] Testing and Analysis services. The adjudicating authority, vide the impugned order has rejected the refund primarily on the ground that the appellant being a manufacturer-exporter, the 'place of removal' was the "port of export" for them; and that since these services were rendered upto the 'place of removal', refund ought not to have been allowed in view of Sr. No. 1(a) of notification No. 41/2012-ST dated 29.6.2012, which states that the taxable services should have been used beyond the 'place of removal', in order to qualify for rebate of service tax paid.

3. Being aggrieved, the appellant has filed the instant appeal, inter alia, stating that the services utilized by them were related to export of goods only; that out of the total claim of Rs.4,36,933/-, an amount of Rs.1,23,110/- has been withdrawn as they have already claimed the said amount before the concerned customs authority; that, the appeal is filed for the refund claim of Rs.3,13,823/-

4. Personal hearing in the matter was held on 26.08.2016. Shri R. Subramanya, Advocate and Shri Sharad Agrawal, Manager (Taxation) with the appellant, appeared on behalf of the appellant and reiterated submission advanced in the Grounds of appeal. They also cited Tenth Schedule of Finance Act, 2016 in favour of their contention.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case on record and the submissions made by the appellant. The instant appeal is required to be considered in view of notification No.41/2012-ST dated 29.06.2012, as amended by notification No.01/2016-ST dated 03.02.2016 and definition of 'place of removal'. Therefore, it is necessary to reproduce the relevant excerpts of the said notification and definition of place of removal.

6. The relevant excerpts of the notification No. 41/2012-ST are as follows:

Provided that -

(a) the rebate shall be granted by way of refund of service tax paid on the specified services.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this notification,-

(A) specified services" means -

(i) in the case of excisable goods, taxable services that have been used beyond the place of removal, for the export of said goods;

- (ii) in the case of goods other than (i) above, taxable services used for the export of said goods;
but shall not include any service mentioned in sub-clauses (A), (B), (BA) and (C) of clause (1) of rule (2) of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004;
- (B) "place of removal" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 4 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 (1 of 1944); "

7. As regards 'place of removal', the definition in Rule 2 of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004, states as follows:

2. In the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004 (herein after referred to as the said rules), in rule 2, after clause (q), the following clause shall be inserted, namely -

'(qa) "place of removal" means-

- (i) a factory or any other place or premises of production or manufacture of the excisable goods;
- (ii) a warehouse or any other place or premises wherein the excisable goods have been permitted to be deposited without payment of duty;
- (iii) a depot, premises of a consignment agent or any other place or premises from where the excisable goods are to be sold after their clearance from the factory, from where such goods are removed;'

The CBEC, vide its Circular No. 999/6/2015-Cx dated 28.2.2015 has issued clarification, subsequent to Circular No. 988/2/2014-Cx dated 20.10.2014, that:

6. In the case of clearance of goods for export by manufacturer exporter, shipping bill is filed by the manufacturer exporter and goods are handed over to the shipping line. After Let Export Order is issued, it is the responsibility of the shipping line to ship the goods to the foreign buyer with the exporter having no control over the goods. In such a situation, transfer of property can be said to have taken place at the port where the shipping bill is filed by the manufacturer exporter and place of removal would be this Port/ICD/CFS. Needless to say, eligibility to CENVAT Credit shall be determined accordingly.

8. A combined reading of the notification No. 41/2012-ST dated 29.6.2012, along with the clarifications issued by the Board on the term 'place of removal' and the insertion of its definition into the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004, clearly leads to a conclusion that the rebate under notification ibid, is to be granted by way of refund of service tax paid on the 'specified services', which are received by an exporter of goods and used for export of goods. The 'specified services' in the case of excisable goods are those taxable services that have been used beyond the 'place of removal', for the export of the said goods and which are not mentioned in sub-clauses (A), (B), (BA) and (C) of clause (1) of rule (2) of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004. Of course, these refunds are subject to other conditions mentioned in this notification. In light of above, the Assistant Commissioner has held that the impugned services, the refunds of which have been claimed, were not rendered beyond the place of removal and therefore the refund was not eligible to the appellants.

9. Vide Section 160 of the Finance Act, 2016, read with the tenth schedule, clauses (A) and (B) of Explanation contained in notification No. 41/2012-ST dated 29.6.2012, were retrospectively amended for the period 01.07.2012 to 02.02.2016. Section 160 ibid is reproduced below:

160. (1) The notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) number G.S.R. 519(E), dated the 29th June, 2012 issued under section 93A of the Finance Act, 1994 granting rebate of service tax paid on the taxable services which are received by an exporter of goods and used for export of goods, shall stand amended and shall be deemed to have been amended retrospectively, in the manner specified in column (2) of the tenth schedule, on and from and up to the corresponding dates specified in column (3) of the Schedule, and accordingly, any action taken or anything done or purported to have taken or done under the said notification as so amended, shall be deemed to be, and always to have been, for all purposes, as valid and effectively taken or done as if the said notification as amended by this sub-section had been in force at all material times. 2) Rebate of all such service tax shall be granted which has been denied, but which would not have been so denied had the amendment made by sub-section (1) been in force at all material times.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Finance Act, 1994, an application for the claim of rebate of service tax under sub-section (2) shall be made within the period of one month from the date of commencement of the Finance Act, 2016.

THE TENTH SCHEDULE
(See Section 160)

Notification No	Amendment	Period of effect of amendment
G.S.R.519 (E), dated 29 th June 2012 [No.41/2012-Service Tax, dated 29 th June, 2012]	In the said notification, in the explanation a) in clause (A), for sub-clause (i), the following sub-clause shall be substituted and shall be deemed to have been substituted, namely:— (i) in the case of excisable goods, taxable services that have been used beyond factory or any other place or premises of production or manufacture of the said goods, for their export;”; (b) clause (B) shall be omitted.	1 st day of July 2012 to 2 nd day February, 2016. (both days inclusive)

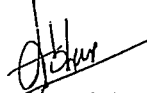

10. The effect of the aforementioned retrospective amendment brought into vide Finance Act, 2016 in notification No. 41/2012-ST dated 29.6.2012, is that ‘specified services’ would now mean taxable services that have been used beyond the factory gate or any other premises or place of production for the period of retrospective amendment, i.e. from 01.07.2012 to 02.02.2016. The disputes based on the contention that every service upto the port [which in the case of manufacturer-exporter was the ‘place of removal’] would not be a ‘specified services’ and therefore would not be eligible for refund under notification. No. 41/2015-ST dated 29.6.2012, stands resolved. Now, the effect of the aforementioned retrospective amendment is that any taxable service used beyond the factory gate or place or premises of production of manufacturing, etc. would thus be ‘specified services’ as per notification supra, and would thus be eligible for refund, provided other conditions of the notification are met. In view of above discussed legal position, the impugned order holding that the services under consideration were rendered upto the place of removal, port being the place of removal – becomes extraneous.

11. Further, I observe that the appellant has requested to sanction refund amount of Rs.3,13,823/- as they have already claimed refund amounting to Rs.1,23,110/- before the customs authority. The Adjudicating authority has also hold the said amount of Rs.1,23,110/- as ineligible. In the circumstances, out of total amount of Rs.4,36,933/-, the admissible refund amount is Rs.3,13,823/-

12. In view of retrospective amendment in the notification ibid, the impugned order becomes non-est. Hence, the impugned order is set aside and the case is remanded to the adjudicating authority to decide the matter afresh, in view of the foregoing discussion.
