ORDER-IN-APPEAL

Shri Navratan Lal Sharma, Prop. Of Singal Road Carriers, Plot No.1, Motikhan, Opp. DESU, Delhi-55 has filed this appeal [hereinafter referred to as the appellant] against Order-in-Original No.11/ADC(KA)/2009 dated 13.02.2009 [impugned order] passed by the Additional Commissioner of Central Excise, Ahmedabad-III [adjudicating authority].

2. Briefly stated, the fact of the case is that M/s Alchem International, Malson, Ta-Vijapur [for short -M/s Alchem] is engaged in manufacturing of excisable goods viz. Cuprous Chloride, Cupric Chloride and were availing facility of Cenvat Credit under Cenvat Credit Rules. The investigation carried out by the Directorate General of Central Excise Intelligence [DGCEI] revealed that the manufacturer/dealers based at Jammu/Delhi who were selling copper scrap/ingots did not physically dispatch the goods to the registered dealer M/s Pranav Metal Mart, Nadiad and did not physically receive the goods; that M/s Pranav Metal Mart have passed Cenvat Credit on inputs namely consignment of copper only on the strength of invoices of Jammu based units as well as registered dealers of Delhi and bogus lorry receipt without actual receipt and supply of the said goods to M/s Alchem. The investigation concluded that M/s Alchem had fraudulently availed Cenvat credit of Rs. 16,89,635/- on the said inputs during the period July 2006 to October 2006 only on the basis of invoices of M/s Pranav Metal Mart without receipt of inputs/ without utilizing it in manufacturing of their final products; that the final products manufactured by them were actually cleared without payment of duty. During investigation, it was also revealed that the appellant had played very crucial role in the commission of offence by way of transporting the goods /issuing bogus LR's to show the transportation of consignment of goods from Delhi to Nadiad. The DGCEI issued a show cause notice No.DGCEI/AZU/36-75/2007-08 dated 29.11.2007 dated 29.11.2007 accordingly for recovery/demand of Cenvat Credit wrongly availed with interest and imposition of penalty under Central Excise Act/Cenvat Credit Rules to M/s Alchem and other parties. The show cause notice also proposes for imposition penalty under Section 26 of Central Excise Rules, 2002 to the appellant for his active involvement in the case. Later on, the said show cause notice was decided by the adjudicating authority for recovery of Cenvat Credit fraudulently availed by M/s Alchem with interest and imposition of penalty thereof. While deciding the case, the adjudicating authority has imposed penalty of Rs.5,00,000/- on appellant for his crucial role in transportation of goods which actually did not received by M/s Pranav Metal and thereby availment of the said Cenvat Credit fraudulently by M/s Alchem without receipt of goods from M/s Pranav Metal.

3. Being aggrieved on imposition of penalty, the appellant has filed the instant appeal on the grounds that:

- The impugned goods transported by Truck under lorry receipts were fully received by M/s Pranav Metal Mart, Nadiad and entered in their RG 23D

register; that the register maintained at Ahmedabad office was only for goods delivered at Ahmedabad office and the not contain the reference of goods delivered directly or door delivery; that being a transporter, they were concerned with the freight which was paid through regular banking channels and without evidence, the adjudicating authority has stated that the amounts were returned in cash

- Since they were not indulged into any malpractice and not contravened provisions of Central Excise Rules, the penalty imposed on them is not correct and sustainable.

4. Personal hearing in the matter was held on 14.09.2017. Shri Paresh Sheth, Advocate appeared for the same and reiterated the grounds of appeal and submitted copy Order-in-Appeal No.RAJ-EXCUS-000-APP-170 to 173. dated 16.02.2017.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case and submissions made by the appellant in the appeal as well during the course of personal hearing. The issue to be decided in the instant appeal is pertaining imposition of penalty on appellant for his role in transporting of impugned goods to M/s Pranav Metal which did not physically received by M/s Prnav Metal and availment of Cenvat credit fraudulently by M/s Achme without actual supply of impugned goods by M/s Pranav Metal.

6. I observe that the appeal was transferred into call book in the year 2009 as the Hon'ble Tribunal's order in a similar matter in case of M/s Monarch Metals Pvt Ltd and M/s Dhan laxmi Tubes & Metal Industries has been challenged by the department before Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat. The Hon'ble High Court has rejected the department appeals vide order dated 21.01.2011. In view of said High Court's decision, the case is now taken for decision.

7. I observe that the adjudicating authority has denied the Cenvat credit to M/s Alchem on the basis of certain records/statements of certain transporters, who were not involved in transporting the impugned goods to M/s Pranav Metal Marts, Nadiad and from M/s Pranav Metal to M/s Alchem; that the transportation documents of transporters found without having stamps of commercial check posts and information provided by Commercial Check Post authorities, doubting that the manufacturer/dealers based at Jammu/Delhi who were selling copper scrap/ingots did not physically received by the register dealer M/s Pranav Metal Mart, Nadiad; that M/s Pranav Metal Mart have passed Cenvat Credit on inputs namely consignment of copper only on the strength of invoices of Jammu based units as well as registered dealers of Delhi and bogus lorry receipt without actual receipt and supply of the said goods. I also observe that the adjudicating authority has imposed penalty of Rs.5,00,000/-on appellant for his active and crucial involvement in transporting goods other than copper from Delhi to Nadiad and issuing bogus LR's.

Q

8. The appellant contended that the impugned goods transported by Truck under lorry receipts were fully received by M/s Pranav Metal Mart, Nadiad and entered in their RG 23D register; that the register maintained at their Ahmedabad office was only for goods delivered at Ahmedabad office and they not contain the reference of goods delivered directly or door delivery; that being a transporter, they were concerned with the freight which was paid through regular banking channels and without evidence, the adjudicating authority has stated that the amounts were returned in cash.

9. I observe that the allegation of the department mainly that impugned goods viz copper scrap/ingots did not even physically enter even in the State of Gujarat, what to say the premises of M/s Pranav Metal, Nadiad and there from to the premises of M/s Alchem and the appellant has played a very crucial role in the commission of offence. In the instant case, I observe that the adjudicating authority has denied the Cenvat Credit and raised the demand from M/s Achme and imposed penalty on them and to the appellant on the basis of statements of certain transporters, who were not involved in transporting the impugned goods to M/s Pranav Metal and statement of authorized person of the M/s Alchem who categorically stated that the impugned goods were received by them from M/s Pranav Metal on the strength of invoices. On other hand it was not countered the evidences produced/maintained by M/s Pranav Metal and the M/s Alchem in the form of RG 23D register, Cenvat Register, RG 1 and Monthly returns and accounts documents like payment particulars, entries in the ledger. It is no doubt a settled law that department need not establish an offence case with mathematical precision but preponderance of probability is also sufficient in such case. But creating a suspicion is not sufficient to hold that preponderance of probability is in favour of the department. In the instant case, the investigating authority has not recorded any statement of any person confirming that the impugned goods have been diverted or sold to any other person. For creating preponderance of probability also there should be some incriminating statement or document.

10. In the instant case, the appellant contended that the impugned goods transported by Truck under lorry receipts were fully received by M/s Pranav Metal Mart, Nadiad and entered in their RG 23D register; they were concerned with the freight which was paid through regular banking channels and without evidence, the adjudicating authority has stated that the amounts were returned in cash. There is no positive statement in this case which convincingly convey that such goods were not received and the amounts paid by cheques were return to the appellant, as claimed. In the absence of such indicators, it cannot be said that preponderance of probability is in favour of the department that impugned have not reached its destination. It is also an established fact that the suspicion, whosoever grave it may be, cannot take the place of documentary evidence. Statements recorded and relied upon by the department cannot be considered to be conclusive piece of evidence.

without the appellant/manufacture being given an opportunity to cross-examination which was denied by the adjudicating authority in this case.

11. Further, as stated above, I observe that the case was not taken for decision earlier by the appellate authority as similar matter decided by the Hon'ble Tribunal, Ahmedabad in favour of M/s Monarc Metal Pvt Ltd has challenged by the department before Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat. In the matter of M/s Monarch Metal Pvt Ltd, the Hon'ble Tribunal has decided almost identical facts and circumstances from the same investigation, proceedings against the party were held to be unsustainable. Extract of the said case is reproduced below:

8. As is clear from the above that the appellate authority has not considered and appreciated various evidences on record which stand discussed in detail by the original adjudicating authority. He has allowed Revenue's appeal on short ground which was the basis for the issuance of show cause notice that LR do not bear the check-post stamp and the statement of the transporter. The appellant-1s have rightly contended that statement of the transporter being in the nature of co-accused, cannot be made the sole basis for holding against the appellant-1, unless corroborated with material particulars. I find that there is no such evidence on record. On the contrary, the assessee has produced ample evidence in the shape of documentary record to reflect upon the fact that they had actually received the inputs from the first dealer and had made payments to them through Demand Draft. In any case, the fact of non-stamping of LR is only in respect of the goods received by the registered dealer. As rightly observed by the original adjudicating authority, the same would not reflect upon the fact of non-receipt of the inputs by the appellant-1 from the dealer inasmuch as the dealer might have supplied the inputs obtained by him from other source.

9. In view of the above, set aside the impugned order of Commissioner (Appeals) and restore the order of original adjudicating authority and allow the Appeal Nos. E/686, 693/2009 with consequential relief to the appellant-1s.

Appeal Nos. E/802, 840, 925/09 :

(i) The Modvat credit of Rs. 2,83,191/- stand denied to M/s. Dhanlaxmi Tubes & Metals Industries (for short DTMI) along with imposition of penalty upon various persons on the ground that the inputs such as copper scrap, copper wire scrap, copper rod etc. have not actually been received by them and only invoices have been issued by the dealer PMM. For the above finding, the lower authorities have, though admitted, movement of trucks to Nadiad under the cover of LR issued by the transporter, but have denied the credit on the ground that delivery register of the transporter showed that the goods were of miscellaneous nature and not copper. I find that apart from the above, there is no other evidence to reflect upon the fact that the inputs were not actually received by the appellant-1. In the present case, there is no dispute that the LRs were issued by the transporter showing the appellant-1 as the consignee of the goods. However, Revenue has based his case on the Goods Register maintained by the transporter indicating the description of the goods as 'Miscellaneous'. This fact, by itself, cannot be held to be sufficient for arriving at conclusion that the inputs were never transported to the appellant-1's factory. All the documentary evidence on record supports the appellant-1's case about the receipt of the input whereas there is no independent corroborative evidence by the Revenue produced on record.

(ii) The above findings find support from the Tribunal's order in case of M/s. Ajay Industrial Corporation v. CCE, Delhi - 2009 (237) E.L.T. 175 (Tri.-Del.) as also from the Tribunal's decision in case of M/s. Shree Jagdamba Castings (P) Ltd. v. CCE, Bhopal, 2006 (206) E.L.T. 695 (Tri.-Del.). It has been held in said judgments that the credit availed on the basis of invoices issued by the registered dealer, cannot be denied on the ground that the transporters have admitted the fact of non-transportation of the goods and the addresses of truck owners were found to be fake. Similarly, in the case of M/s. Malerkotla Steels & Alloys Pvt. Ltd. v. CCE, Ludhiana, 2008 (229) E.L.T. 607 (Tri.-Delhi), it was held that a manufacturer cannot be denied the credit on the ground that registered dealer had not received the inputs. The Tribunal in case of M/s. Lloyds Metal Engg. Co. v. CCE, Mumbai, 2004 (175) E.L.T. 132 (Tri.-Mumbai) has held that burden to prove non-receipt of the inputs is required to be discharged by Revenue by sufficient evidence. Where disputed consignments are entered in RG-23A Part I and Part II in chronological order, the allegations of non-receipt of the inputs cannot be upheld.

(iii) In view of the above, I find no justifiable reason to uphold the impugned order and the same is, accordingly set aside and the Appeal Nos. E/802, 840, 925/2009 are allowed with consequential relief to the appellant-1s.

12. The above decision challenged by the department was decided by the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in case of M/s Dhanlaxmi Tubes & Metal Industries [2012 (282) ELT T 206]. The Hon'ble High Court has upheld the said decision. The relevant portion is as under.

4. A perusal of the record of the case shows that the detailed facts as regards the investigation carried out by the Department are set out in the show cause notice dated 11-1-2008. Upon going through the lengthy show cause notice in its entirety, the Court finds that though on the face of it, it appears that ample evidence has been collected during the course of investigation, in fact, the evidence collected against the assessee is to the effect that the record of the transporters shows that the vehicles through which the copper ingots/wire scrap were stated to have been sent, had actually transported goods other than copper ingots/wire scraps to the manufacturers at Gujarat, Daman or Silvassa. The entire case of the Department is based on the record of the transporters without the support of any other evidence. The record indicates that there is no dispute that copper ingots purchased from units located at Jammu were transported by trucks from Jammu to Delhi. After transshipment at Delhi, they were shown to be transported from Delhi to the premises of M/s. Pranav Metal Mart, at Nadiad. According to M/s. Pranav Metal Mart, the goods so transported have in fact been received by it under proper invoices. It is also the say of M/s. Pranav Metal Mart that the goods were sold to the assessee and it is the case of the assessee that such goods were received by it along with invoices.

5. A perusal of the order passed by the adjudicating authority indicates that the officers at the check post had entered the receipt of copper ingots in their record. Thus, even the official records maintained at the check post indicate receipt of copper. Merely because in the record of the transporter, two types of LRs had been issued in respect of the goods carried/transported by M/s. Singal Road Carriers which indicated transportation of miscellaneous goods and the other which indicated transportation of copper ingots/wire brass, the Department has jumped to the conclusion that copper ingots had not actually been transported. Except for the aforesaid evidence, there is no evidence whatsoever to indicate that M/s. Pranav Metal Mart, Nadiad had not received copper ingots or that the respondent assessee had not received the ingots along with the invoices. The statement of Shri Atul Navrattan Lal Sharma, Proprietor of M/s. Singal Road Carriers indicates that it is the categorical case of the said party that it had received raw material at its premises along with the LRs and other documents. The statement of the partner of the assessee, Shri Umesh Shah, also indicates that it was the categorical case of the assessee that it had received central excise invoices issued by the dealers through the truck driver who brought the consignments to its premises. In fact, from the statement of Shri Heda, it is apparent that M/s. Pranav Metal Mart, Nadiad, had even shown receipts of copper consignments and entered such receipts in the RG 23D registers. Likewise, the assessee had also recorded receipts of the raw materials in RG 23A Part-I record.

6. A bare perusal of the orders made by the adjudicating authority as well as the appellate authority clearly indicates that neither of the said authorities have discussed the evidence in detail and have merely placed reliance upon the report of the transporter for the purpose of holding that the assessee had in fact not received the goods referred to in the invoices and that only invoices had been issued to it and, therefore, the credit was not admissible to the assessee.

7. As can be seen from the impugned order of the Tribunal, the Tribunal after appreciating the evidence on record has recorded that there is no evidence to reflect upon the fact that the inputs were not actually received by the assessee; there was no dispute that the LRs were issued by the transporter showing that the assessee is the consignee of the goods; the case of revenue was based on the goods registers maintained by the transporter which indicates the description of the goods as "miscellaneous". According to the Tribunal, this fact, by itself, could not be held to be sufficient for arriving at the conclusion that the inputs were never transported to the assessee's factory. The Tribunal found as a matter of fact that all documentary evidence on record supported the assessee's case about the receipt of inputs, whereas there was no independent corroborative evidence produced on record by the revenue in support of its case.

8. From the facts noted hereinabove, it is apparent that the Tribunal has appreciated the facts of the present case in proper perspective and upon appreciating the evidence on record, has as a matter of fact, recorded that except for the goods registers maintained by the transporter, there is no other evidence on record to indicate that the assessee has in fact not received the goods in question. In the circumstances, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary being pointed out on behalf of the revenue, the conclusion arrived at by the Tribunal being based upon findings of fact recorded by it upon proper appreciation of the evidence on record, cannot be said to be unreasonable or perverse.

9. For the foregoing reasons, there being no infirmity in the impugned order of the Tribunal, the same does not give rise to any question of law, as proposed or otherwise, much less a substantial question of law so as to warrant interference. The appeal is, accordingly, dismissed.

13. I observe that the facts and circumstances of the above referred case are similar to the case confirmed by the adjudicating authority against M/s Achme. Further, on the basis of above decisions, I have decided in various OIAs in case of M/s Schutz Carbon Electrodes Pvt Ltd, M/s Sanginita Chemicals Pvt Ltd and Sahjanand Chem Industries. In the said decisions, the department's contention that no inputs were received by the manufacturer has been held as not sustainable and allowed the Cenvat credit denied to the manufacturer. In the said cases, the penalty imposed on appellant on the grounds of active and crucial involvement in transportation goods other than impugned goods has also been set aside on the grounds that since the case against manufacturer fails, the penalty imposed on other parties on the ground that they played active and crucial role in receipt of goods/transportation of goods does not have any merit.

14. As regards penalty imposed on appellant in the instant case also, the ratio of the said decision is applicable in view of Hon'ble Trinubunal and High Court order supra. Further, I observe that Rule 26 of Central Excise Rules, 2004, under which the penalty was imposed on appellant, provides for penalty for certain offences by any person who acquire possession of, or is any concerned in transporting, removing, depositing, keeping, concealing, selling or purchasing or in any manner deals with, excisable goods which he knows or has reason to believe are liable to confiscation. As discussed above, the department has not countered the refusal to admit non receipt of the impugned goods by the M/s Achme in the impugned order. Therefore, no excisable goods are found liable to be confiscated. Therefore, the penalty imposed on appellant does not have any merit.

15. In view of above discussion, I allow the appeal filed by the appellant and set aside the impugned order. The appeal stand disposed of accordingly.
