ORDER-IN-APPEAL

This appeal is filed by M/s. Kalpataru Tower Transmission Ltd., 101, Part-III, GIDC Estate, Sector-28, Gandhinagar (for short "appellant") against OIO No.GNR-STX-DEM-DC-17/2017 dated 31.03.2017 passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Service Tax Division, Gandhinagar [for short - 'adjudicating authority'].

2. This appeal is primarily against CENVAT credit which stands disallowed on outdoor catering services. The facts of the case is that based on an audit objection, show cause notice dated 10.10.2016 was issued to the appellant, inter alia, proposing to disallow CENVAT Credit amounting to Rs.2,31,553/- availed on outdoor catering service for the period of 2011-12 to 2014-15. The notice demanded interest and further proposed penalty on the appellant. Vide the impugned order, supra, the said show cause notice was decided by the adjudicating authority by dis-allowing the CENVAT credit in respect of the aforementioned service and ordered payment of interest. He also imposed penalty on the appellant for Rs.2,31,553/-. It is against this order that the present appeal is filed.

3. The grounds raised in the appeal are that:-

- The appellant is engaged in erection and commissioning of electricity power line in remote area; that as per Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996 and Cess Act, 1996, welfare measures such as canteen facility, first aid facility, accommodation etc are required to be provided for workers near the work place; that the catering services were provided to the workers at the site where no other food facility available nearby area; that the exclusive part in definition of input service does not restricts such service provided to workers but restricts personal use on consumption of any employees.
- The nature of work and the provisions of the Act specifically mandate that the catering service must be provided to the workers and such service received by them is as per law and credit on such services is not deniable. Hence, demand with interest and penalty not sustainable.
- They relied on Hon'ble Gujarat High Court decision in case of M/s Ferromatik Milacron India Ltd and Bombay High Court decision in case of M/s Ultratech Cement.
- The demand hits by limitation.

4. Personal hearing in the matter was held on 11.09.2017. Shri S.J.Vyas, Advocate appeared on behalf of the appellant and reiterated the grounds of appeal. He explained definition of Input Service and submitted additional submissions. Mrs. Mary George, Superintendent of Gandhinagar Division, appeared on behalf of Revenue.

5. I have gone through the facts of the case, the grounds mentioned in the appeal and the oral averments, raised during the course of personal hearing. The main issue to be decided is whether as alleged by the department, the appellant has wrongly availed CENVAT credit on outdoor catering services or otherwise.

6. The adjudicating authority has denied the credit in view of clause (C) of exclusive part of definition of "input service"; that the said service is received for consumption of workers who may be other than employees however, the said service was not for industrial purpose. I find that the adjudicating authority has extensively quoted the definition of input service as defined under Rule 2(i) of Cenvat Credit Rules, 2004, and hence I do not reproduce the same. The appellant contended that the said definition of outdoor catering not attracts in their case as the service was used for their business activities and consumption of workers who are not the employees.

7. In the instant case, the appellant was providing food facility to the workers who were engaged in work of erection and commission of machine at a place other his factory. When a caterer provides services in connection with catering at a place other than his own but including a place provided by way of tenancy or by a person receiving such service, then such service is very well within the ambit of "outdoor catering service". I find that the disputed input service viz. outdoor catering service is excluded from the definition of input service. The exclusion clause was effective w.e.f. 1-4-2011 and Clause (C) of the said exclusion specifically excludes the services provided in relation to outdoor catering, when such services are used primarily for personal use or consumption of any employee. In the instant case, the said services are used for the workers deployed by the appellant. In the circumstances, the said service is very well covered in the exclusion part. The appellant has relied on the decision of Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in case of M/s M/s Ferromatik Milacron India Ltd [2013 (31)STR 424-Guj] and Bombay High Court decision in case of M/s Ultratech Cement [2010 (260) ELT 369] which is not applicable to the instant as the period involved in the said decisions are prior to the said amendment. Therefore, the adjudicating authority has rightly not accepted the decision.

8. In cases where, the definition of input services, have been amended to exclude such services, such exclusion on 01.04.2011 was conscious decision on part of the legislature having knowledge of earlier judicial decisions on such subject, yet it chose to exclude these items from the definition of input service and wisdom of the legislature cannot be questioned in the guise of interpretation or hardship. Moreover, the interpretation cannot add words to the definition, where definition is unambiguous and crystal clear. The Hon'ble High Court of Bombay in the case of Nicholas Piramal (India) Limited [2009

(244) ELT 321 (Bom)], has on the question of interpretation of Rules, made the following observation:

- We may only mention that hardship cannot result in giving a go-by to the language of the rule and making the rule superfluous. In such a case it is for the assessee to represent to the rule making authority pointing out the defects if any. Courts cannot in the guise of interpretation take upon themselves the task of taking over legislative function of the rule making authorities. In our constitutional scheme that is reserved to the legislature or the delegate.
- Hardship or breaking down of the rule even if it happens in some cases by itself does not make the rule bad unless the rule itself cannot be made operative. At the highest it would be a matter requiring reconsideration by the delegate.
- It is never possible for the Legislature to conceive every possible difficulty. As noted a provision or a rule can occasion hardship to a few, that cannot result in the rule being considered as absurd or manifestly unjust.
- In our opinion, the rule must ordinarily be read in its literal sense unless it gives rise to an ambiguity or absurd results.

I find that the Hon'ble Tribunal had pronounced eligibility of CENVAT credit on various items, before 2011. Despite the Legislature being aware of these judgments/decisions, yet it chose to restrict the credit by changing the definition in 2011, by excluding certain services and inputs. Hon'ble Supreme Court has very categorically stated "Courts cannot add words to a statute or read words into it which are not there". (Parmeshwaran Subramani [2009 (242) ELT 162 (SC)]). Moreover, in the guise of interpretation, no intention can be added, when intention of legislature is very clear. In view of the foregoing, I agree with the view taken by the adjudicating authority that the CENVAT credit was wrongly availed by the appellant as far as the issue is concerned.

9. Further, I find that in case of M/s AET Labarootory Pvt Ltd [2016-42-STR-720 Tri, Ban], the Hon'ble Tribunal has held that:

"The exclusion clause was effective w.e.f. 1-4-2011 and Clause (C) of the said exclusion specifically excludes the services provided in relation to outdoor catering and health insurance or life insurance, etc. Admittedly such services, prior to 1-4-2011, have been held to be covered by the definition of input services. In fact, the need for exclusion would arise only when the services are otherwise covered by the definition. Legislation, in its wisdom, has excluded certain services from the availment of Cenvat credit w.e.f. 1-4-2011, when such services are otherwise covered by the main definition clause of input service. To interpret the said exclusion clause, in such a manner, so as to hold that such services have direct or indirect nexus with the assessee's business and thus would be covered by the definition, would amount to defeat the legislative intent. It is well settled that the legislative intent cannot be defeated by adopting an interpretation which is clearly against such intent. As such, I find no justifiable reason to allow the credit in respect of the two disputed services and I uphold the confirmation of denial of Cenvat credit and demand of interest thereon."

10. In view of above discussion, I am of the considered view that the appellant is not eligible for taking Cenvat credit on service tax paid on Outdoor catering service during relevant period. In the circumstance, the same is required to be recovered with interest.

11. As regards the penalty, looking into the facts of the case, I do not find any merit to interfere the contention placed by the adjudicating authority in the impugned order. Hence, the same is also sustainable.

12. The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
