ORDER-IN-APPEAL

Shri Varunbhai Bahecharbhai Patel (hereinafter referred to as 'the appellant'), authorized person of M/s. Royal Enterprises, 8, Krishna Warehousing Complex, Anjur Dadoda Road, B/h. Sairaj Dhaba, Village Bhiwandi, District Thane, Maharashtra, has filed an appeal against the Order-in-Original number AHM-CEX-003-ADC-AJS-021-17-18 dated 28.02.2018 (hereinafter referred to as 'impugned order') passed by the Additional Commissioner, Central Excise and CGST, Gandhinagar (hereinafter referred to as 'adjudicating authority').

2. The facts of the case, in brief, are that M/s. Eva Alu Panel Ltd., Post Dalpur, National Highway No. 8, Taluka-Prantij, Himmatnagar (hereinafter referred to as 'M/s. Eva') were holding Central Excise Registration number AABCE6705GXM001 and are engaged in the manufacture of aluminium panel sheets falling under the Chapter 76 of Central Excise Tariff Act, 1985 and were availing the credit of Central Excise duty on inputs. During the visit to the factory premises of M/s. Eva, it was found that M/s. Eva were clearing aluminium panel sheets without accounting the same in their regular books of accounts and finished goods register. It was also found that on certain occasions, they had resorted to undervaluation of their finished goods and had collected the differential amount, over and above the bill/invoice value, in cash so as to evade the payment of Central Excise duty leviable on the said manufactured goods. During the search of their premises, some incrementing documents were recovered under a regular panchnama. After completion of investigation, a show cause notice dated 20.01.2014 had been issued to M/s. Eva which was adjudicated by the adjudicating authority vide the impugned order. During the course of investigation, it was found that the appellant was one of the customers of M/s. Eva. The appellant confessed during investigation that he had purchased aluminium panel sheets from M/s. Eva. The appellant could not produce details regarding aluminium panel sheets purchased without bill/in cash from M/s. Eva, as he had destroyed all the evidences when inquiry was getting conducted at the premises of M/s. Eva. However, it was confirmed from the entries made in the cash register that the company of the appellant, M/s. Royal Enterprises, Thane, had made cash payment to M/s. Eva against the purchase of aluminium panel sheets in cash without the cover of any invoice. The Directors of M/s. Eva, in their respective statements, had confirmed that they had sold the said goods to the appellant in cash without the cover of invoice. It was further noticed that when the appellant purchased goods from M/s. Eva with invoices, payments were made in cheque and transportation was arranged by M/s. Eva in a normal way. However, when the appellant purchased the goods without invoice, transportation was arranged by the appellant himself and payments were made in cash. After completion of investigation, a show cause notice dated 20.01.2014 had been issued to the appellant. The said show cause notice was adjudicated by the adjudicating authority vide the impugned order. The adjudicating authority imposed penalty of ₹ 1,50,000/- on the appellant, under Rule 26 of the Central Excise Rules, 2002, being the customer of M/s. Eva and knowingly involving himself in the purchase of aluminium sheets in cash without cover of invoice and with clear intention to evade the payment of Central Excise duty.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant preferred the present appeal. The appellant argued that the case against M/s. Eva itself cannot be sustained and therefore, there can be no question of imposition of any penalty against the appellant. The appellant further stated that he had denied in his statement that he had received any goods in cash without invoice. Therefore, there can be no question of imposition of any penalty against him.

4. Personal hearing in the case was granted to the appellant on 27.06.2018, 19.07.2018, 23.08.2018, 11.09.2018 and 10.10.2018 but no one, on behalf of the appellant appeared before me nor was any letter, for adjournment of personal hearing, submitted to me.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case on records and grounds of appeal in the Appeal Memorandums. I find that the appellant has been granted enough chance of personal hearing for representing their case before me. However, as he has failed to avail the benefit of personal hearing, I hereby, take up the matter ex parte, purely on the basis of merit and available documents.

6. To begin with, I find that there has been a delay occurred in filing the appeal by the appellant. The impugned order was issued on 28.02.2018 and the appellant has filed the appeal on 21.05.2018. I find that the appeal is delayed by 22 days and the appellant has neither cited any reason for the delay nor submitted any application for condonation of the delay. In view of the above, I reject the appeal on limitation; however, in light of the principle of natural justice, I proceed to decide the case on merit.

7. The very first argument the appellant has placed before me is that as the case against M/s. Eva is not sustainable, there can be no question of imposition of penalty on the appellant. This sounds to be a very juvenile argument on the part of the appellant. How can the appellant be so sure that the case against M/s. Eva is not sustainable! Mere verbal assertion without any documentary evidence has no role to play in the eyes of law. In fact, I have gone through the arguments of M/s. Eva (also filed an appeal before me), where M/s. Eva claimed that the statements of the purchasers cannot be relied upon. On one hand, M/s. Eva doubt the statement of their customers and on the other hand, the present appellant is advocating the innocence of M/s. Eva. I reject the argument of the present appellant outright.

8. In the second argument tabled by the appellant, he has stated that as he had denied in his statement that he had received any goods in cash without invoice, penalty cannot be imposed on him. Again, mere verbal assertion without any documentary evidence has no role to play in the eyes of law. I find that though the appellant has denied having received any goods in cash, he could not give any explanation in respect of the financial transactions, against his firm's name, shown in the file 14 and registers numbering 29, 34 and 35 received from the premises of M/s. Eva (paragraph number 1.12.6 of the impugned order). If he was not involved in cash transaction then why he is mute about the above entries! He has very carefully avoided all the allegations placed against him in the impugned order. The appellant has not submitted any documentary evidence before me in support of his innocence. His ground of appeal ends in only two paragraphs quoting the above two immature and non sustainable arguments, without any documentary evidence.

9. Now, as the appellant has claimed that the case against M/s. Eva is not sustainable, and hence no penalty can be imposed on him, I, walking on same line, proclaim that as the case of the department, against M/s. Eva, has been upheld by me (vide O-I-A number AHM-EXCUS-003-APP-45-46-18-19 dated 23.07.2018), the appellant is liable for penalty. The activity of the appellant has been uncovered by the statements of the Directors of M/s. Eva and the appellant has been fully exposed. In view of the above, I reject the grounds submitted by the appellant considering them to be flimsy and afterthought.

10. Accordingly, as per the above discussion, I do not find any reason to interfere in the impugned order and reject the appeal filed by the appellant.

11. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

11. The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed off in above terms.
