II. Any person aggrieved by an Order-in-Appeal issued under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017/Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017/Goods and Services Tax (Compensation to States) Act, 2017, may file an appeal before the appropriate authority.

ORDER IN APPEAL

This appeal has been filed by M/s. Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Limited, Survey No. 124/1, NH 08, Near S P Ring Road, Nana Chiloda, Gandhinagar District, Gujarat 382 640 [for short – ‘appellant’] against OIO No. 12/D/GNR/NK/2018-19 dated 12.10.2018 passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST, Gandhinagar Division, Gandhinagar Commissionerate [for short – ‘adjudicating authority’].

2. Briefly, the facts are that scrutiny of the records of the appellant by CERA revealed that the appellant was collecting additional amount under the head ‘other charges’ from their customers and was not discharging central excise duty on the said amount by not including it in the transaction value. A show cause notice dated 20.4.2017 was therefore issued inter alia demanding central excise duty of Rs. 17,53,622/- under section 11A(4) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, along with interest. The notice further proposed imposition of penalty under Section 11AC of the Central Excise Act, 1944 read with Rule 25 of the Central Excise Rules, 2002.

3. This notice was adjudicated vide the aforementioned impugned OIO dated 12.10.2018, wherein the adjudicating authority confirmed the demand along with interest and further imposed penalty on the appellant.

4. Feeling aggrieved, the appellant has filed this appeal raising the following averments:

- that the OIO is not correct, legal ;
- that the clearance of the goods from their CNG mother station is not covered under Rule 6 of the Valuation Rules;
- that the other charges shown in the retail invoice is the component of dealers commission @ 1.57 per kg and the VAT element of 15% charged under Gujarat VAT on the dealers commission;
- that the issue has attained finality in terms of BPCL decision [1999(108) ELT 402 which was maintained by the Apex court [2004(174) ELT A 78(SC), IOCL [2017(346) ELT 397];
- that they would also like to rely on the case of Mahanagar Gas Limited [2017(348) ELT 175, which was confirmed by the Hon’ble Apex Court [2018(36) ELT A 187];
- that the adjudicating authority has simply brushed aside the reliance on the aforementioned case laws by one liners as not applicable to the current issue;
- that since the department has earlier accepted that excise duty was not chargeable on the dealer commission element, later on its action in charging service tax on commission was rejected by the Tribunal;
- that the matter is hit by limitation;
- that no penalty is imposable.

5. Personal hearing in the matter was held on 7.3.2019, wherein Shri Prakash Ramandasani, Senior Manager Finance, appeared on behalf of the appellant and reiterated the grounds of appeal. He also submitted copies of citation reported at [2018(360) ELT A 133(SC)].

6. I have gone through the merits of the case, the grounds of appeal and the oral submission made during the course of personal hearing. The issue to be decided is whether the adjudicating authority was correct in holding that the other charges recovered by the appellant from their customer would form a part of the assessable value.

7. The adjudicating authority, in his impugned OIO held that the other charges collected from the customers, flowing directly or indirectly from the buyer to the appellant, is an additional consideration; that in terms of Rule 6 of the Central Excise Valuation (Determination of price of excisable goods) Rules, 2000, the assessable value = transaction value + amount of money value of the additional consideration flowing directly or indirectly from the buyer to the appellant; that the price actually paid to the appellant by the customer includes the component charged under the head other charges; that as per the provision of Section 4 of the Central Excise Act, 1944, other charges should form a part of the transaction value in as much as the same has been actually paid by the customer towards purchase of the said excisable goods; that in the invoice, nowhere it is mentioned that other charges collected are towards 'dealers commission' received by them; that it is not a dealer commission rather it is an amount collected which would fall within the four corners of section 4 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 read with Rule 6 of the Central Excise Valuation (Determination of the price of excisable goods) Rules, 2000, as an additional consideration flowing from the customer to the appellant in relation to that particular sale.

8. The appellant, while contesting the aforementioned findings has stated that the clearance of the goods from their CNG mother station is not covered under Rule 6 of the Valuation Rules; that the other charges shown in the retail invoice is the component of dealers commission @ 1.57 per kg and the VAT element of 15% charged under Gujarat VAT on the dealers commission.

8.1 As far as this contention goes, I find that [a] the amount that stands collected, as other charges should form the part of the assessable value in terms of section 4 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 read with Rule 6 of the Central Excise Valuation (Determination of the price of excisable goods) Rules, 2000 and [b] there is no proof produced by the appellant, which is also pointed out by the adjudicating authority that this is in fact was relating to dealers commission.

9. The appellant has further relied mainly upon the following case laws, further submitting that the same were simply brushed aside by the adjudicating authority in single line. The appellant's contention belies fact. I have gone through paras 10.5.1 to 10.5.4, wherein the adjudicating authority while discussing the four case laws, has clearly distinguished it by mentioning his reasoning. The appellant should have clearly stated in the appeal papers as to why the reasoning adopted by the adjudicating authority is not correct. On the contrary, I find that the reasons mentioned by the adjudicating authority, in distinguishing the case law from the present dispute, are correct. Moreover, I find that the reliance placed by the appellant on these case laws, are not tenable.

10. The appellant has also not mentioned any plausible grounds which forces me to interfere with his findings as far as invocation of extended period and imposition of penalty is concerned.

11. In view of the foregoing, the appeal filed by the appellant is rejected and the impugned OIO dated 12.10.2018, is upheld.

12. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
12. The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
