ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Gujarat Energy Transmission Corporation Limited, Transmission Division, 132 KV Deesa Sub Station, Railway Station Road, Patan Chowkadi, Deesa, Banaskantha, Gujarat – 385 535 (hereinafter referred to as the appellant) against Order in Original No. PLN-AC-STX-07/2020-21 dated 11-02-2021 [hereinafter referred to as "impugned order"] passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST, Division : Palanpur, Commissionerate : Gandhinagar [hereinafter referred to as "adjudicating authority"].

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case is that the appellant are holding Service Tax Registration No. AABCG4029RSD072 and are engaged in providing and receiving various services viz. Scientific and Technical Consultancy, Technical Testing and Analysis (as a service provider), Manpower Supply Services (as a service receiver), Rent-a-Cab Service (as a service received), Security Agency Service (as a service receiver), Legal Consultancy Services (as a service receiver) etc. During the course of audit of the records, for the period F.Y. 2012-13 to F.Y. 2015-16, of the appellant, by the officers of the erstwhile Central Excise & Service Tax Audit-I, Ahmedabad, it was observed that taxable value under the category of Manpower Supply Services and Rent-a-Cab services declared by them in their ST-3 returns were less than the taxable value worked out from their financial records on the basis of expenses incurred by them. It appeared that the appellant had short paid service tax amounting to Rs. 1,55,652/- on Manpower Supply Services and Rent-a-Cab services. The appellant was issued Show Cause Notice bearing No. VI/1(b)-07/IA/16-17/AG-10 dated 13.04.2017 proposing to recover the service tax amounting to Rs.1,55,652/- under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance, Act, 1994 along with interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994. Imposition of Penalty was also proposed under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

2.1 The said SCN was adjudicated vide OIO No. PLN-AC-STX-02/2018 dated 30.05.2018 wherein the demand for service tax was confirmed along with interest. Penalty equal to the service tax confirmed was also imposed under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994. Being aggrieved, the appellant had filed an appeal with the Commissioner (Appeals), Ahmedabad who vide OIA No. AHM-EXCUS-003-APP-113-115-18-19 dated 09.10.2018 remanded the case back to the adjudicating authority for deciding afresh after verifying and examining the submissions of the appellant.

2.2 In denovo proceedings, the case was decided vide the impugned order wherein the demand for service tax was confirmed along with interest. Penalty equal to the service tax confirmed was also imposed under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant has filed the instant appeal on the following grounds :

- i. As per Point of Taxation Rules, 2011, in case of payment of service tax under reverse charge, the point of taxation for payment of service tax is the date of payment to the contractors by service receiver. Whereas books of accounts are prepared by company on accrual basis. It amounts to difference in value as per books of accounts and as per ST-3 returns.
- ii. They were not taking cenvat credit of the service tax paid on input services. Hence, cost of services as per book value is inclusive of service tax whereas value shown in ST-3 return was taxable value on which service tax was payable i.e. without service tax. The adjudicating authority has not considered the reconciliation sheet for difference in value in true spirit.
- iii. They are a Government of Gujarat owned public sector undertaking. Hence, there cannot be any intention of tax evasion by them. They have paid service tax on all applicable services both as service receiver and service provider. Hence, by non-payment of service tax/suppression of taxable value, there cannot be any undue benefit to them. Further, in case of government undertaking, employees cannot derive any personal benefit by suppression of taxable value and non payment of service tax. Hence, no penalty is imposable on them.

4. The appellant filed additional written submissions on 09/02/2022 wherein it was inter alia, submitted that :

- Complete reconciliation statement, certified by the Chartered Accountant, between the service tax value and the books of accounts was provided to the adjudicating authority.
- They are accounting the expenses in the books of accounts inclusive of service tax and the fact is also certified by the Chartered Accountant in his certificate. Since service tax was not payable on this amount, the same has been excluded from the service tax return.
- The contention of the adjudicating authority that as per accounting principles, the tax amount will go to the tax head is not at all accepted. They are permitted to maintain books of accounts as per their requirements. Since their business is out of service tax net, they are not availing cenvat credit of the service tax paid. Hence, expenses are booked in the books of accounts inclusive of service tax.
- The books of accounts are prepared by them on accrual basis as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. As per the accrual system of accounting, they make provisional entry in books of account for various expenses incurred but payment to service providers are pending at the year end. As per the Point of Taxation Rules, 2011, service tax under reverse charge is payable at the time of payment to the service provider. They had already paid service tax on provisional year end amount at the time of payment to vendor in the forthcoming year. The contention of the adjudicating authority that they had debited the provisional amount from the books of account without actually proving that service tax liability on the said amount is discharged by them is not sustainable.
- They are providing petty cash in the form of temporary imprest/permanent imprest to various employees, particularly Junior Engineer/Deputy Engineer in charge of substation for petty cash expenses like petty material expense, office expense, travelling expense etc. as and when needed. Such expenses are in petty expense nature on occasional basis and there is no formal contract with the vendor. Based on the monthly expense sheet provided to them, they book the expense under relevant different account head. In absence of any contract and other expense nature, no service tax was payable by them.

- The petty cash reimbursed to the employees includes expense for travelling via public transport or auto rickshaws. The same being covered under Negative List of Services is exempt from service tax.
- The petty cash expenses also include expenditure incurred on purchasing phenyl, acid, broom, washing powder etc. on which service tax is not leviable.
- In respect of Rent-a-Cab Service, the invoices to the extent of Rs. 44,552/- was booked prior to 01.07.2012, so service tax is not applicable on the same.
- There is no suppression of facts with an intent to evade payment of duty and hence imposition of penalty under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 will not be applicable as there is no fraud, collusion or willful mis-statement or suppression of facts. For operation of extended period of limitation, intention to deliberately default is a mandatory prerequisite and inadvertent non-payment doesn't attract extended period of limitation.
- Their accounts are subject to audit by the Controller and Auditor General of India and there could not be any intention of tax evasion or suppression of facts on their part.
- In Piramal Health Care Limited Vs. Commissioner of Central Excise & Service Tax, Indore, the Hon'ble Tribunal held that where the assessee was regularly paying service tax under reverse charge on certain services received by them but had failed to pay service tax on few of the transactions due to oversight, the imposition of penalties under Section 77 and 78 was not warranted especially considering the fact that the appellants would be eligible to avail cenvat credit of the tax paid by them. In IWI Crogenic Vaporization System India

Vs. CCE & ST, Vadodara-II it was held that in view of revenue neutral situation in case of reverse charge duty payment, there could be no intention to evade payment of service tax and accordingly, no penalty is imposable.

5. Personal Hearing in the case was held on 09.02.2022 through virtual mode. Ms. Neeta V. Ladha, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant for the hearing. She reiterated the submissions made in appeal memorandum.

6. I have gone through the facts of the case, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum, submissions made at the time of personal hearing and additional written submissions as well as material available on records. The issue before me for decision is whether the appellant had short paid service tax on Manpower Supply service and Rent-a-Cab service under reverse charge for the period involved in SCN, or otherwise. I find that the impugned order has been passed in the denovo proceedings ordered vide OIA No. AHM-EXCUS-003-APP-113-115-18-19 dated 09.10.2018. Para 9 of the said OIA is reproduced as under :

“ 9. Thus, in view of the above findings and in the fitness of things, it would be just and proper to remand the matter to the Adjudicating Authority to decide afresh, after verifying and examining all the submissions of the appellants. The submitted Certified reconciliation statements (total 6 folders and 4 files containing CA certified reconciliation statements) are also sent herewith to the adjudicating authority for proper verification and examination. Needless to say that in case any other documents/details are required by the adjudicating authority, the adjudicating authority shall give proper opportunity the documents/details, , before passing the order. The appellants are also directed to provide all possible assistance to the adjudicating authority in relation to the same.”

6.1 From the above directions, it is clear that the adjudicating authority was directed to verify the documents submitted by the appellant as well as call for further details/documents, if any, required by him. However, on going through the impugned order, I find that the adjudicating authority has summarily discarded the documents submitted by the appellant on the ground that they are the same which were submitted earlier with the adjudicating authority. The adjudicating authority has also recorded in

Para 21 of the impugned order that "On going through the documents submitted by them for, I find that the same cannot be specifically linked so as to explain the difference in the value of taxable service mentioned in the book of accounts and that mentioned in ST 3 Returns." What this indicates is that despite being specifically directed by the Commissioner (Appeals) to call for additional documents/details as are required by him, the adjudicating authority has not considered it appropriate to do so and has given a finding which is similarly worded to the OIO which was set aside and remanded back for denovo adjudication. I further find that the adjudicating authority has neither discussed the Chartered Accountant certified reconciliation statement submitted by the appellant before him nor has he given any findings on the same. A financial statement certified by a Chartered Accountant, who is qualified in such matters, has significant validity in the eyes of the law. Therefore, if the same is not being accepted, the justifiable reasons for the same has to assigned. However, no reasons has been recorded in the impugned order for not accepting the Chartered Accountant certified reconciliation statement submitted by the appellant.

6.2 The appellant have basically contended and explained the difference in the taxable value of services recorded in their books of accounts and the ST-3 returns as being on account of the taxable value recorded in their books of accounts as being inclusive of the service tax paid by them, while the value indicated in the ST-3 returns is exclusive of the service tax paid by them. The reason put forth by the appellant for recording a service tax inclusive value in their books account is that they are not availing cenvat credit of the service tax paid. I find merit in the contention of the appellant. Since the incidence of service tax is being borne by them, the cost of the service for the appellant would be the amount inclusive of the service tax paid by them. Therefore, the confirmation of demand for service tax on this ground is not legally sustainable.

6.3 The appellant have further explained and contended that the difference in the taxable value is on account of certain petty expenses being services which are occasional and that there is no contract with the vendor. They have further contended that the same is not chargeable to service tax. In this regard, the adjudicating authority has recorded at Para 18 of the impugned order that "Such small service providers do not hold service tax registration and hence liability to pay service tax on the said services comes on to GETCO under reverse charge". This is a very untenable and baseless conclusion arrived at by the adjudicating authority. From the records, I find that the petty expenses pertain to purchase of material, leveling work, cleaning work, removing of grass etc. The applicability of reverse charge for payment of service tax is in terms of Section 68(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Notification No. 30/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012. The adjudicating authority has not cited the serial number of the said notification under which the appellant is held liable to pay service tax on reverse charge in respect of the services towards which the petty expenses are incurred. Since no specific entry has been cited by the adjudicating authority for holding the services, on which petty expenses were incurred, were liable to payment of service tax on reverse charge, I hold that the confirmation of demand for service tax on this ground is not legally sustainable.

6.4 The other issues which the appellant have contended account for the difference in the taxable value is the invoices issued prior to 01.07.2012 and the year end provision entry on expenses incurred but not paid in the same Financial Year. In this regard, I find that the relevant documents have are not available in the appeal memorandum of the appellant or in their additional submissions. Therefore, I am of the view that the matter is required to be remanded back to the adjudicating authority for examination of the documents in this regard and thereafter decide the issue.

7. The demand confirmed vide the impugned order is only bifurcated on the basis of Manpower Supply Service and Rent-a-Cab service. The appellant have explained the difference on account of four different reasons, as recorded in the foregoing paragraphs. I have already held that confirmation of demand in respect of two of grounds for difference in the taxable value, put forth by the appellant and discussed at Para 6.2 and 6.3 above is not legally sustainable. The demand in respect of the difference in taxable value on account of the remaining two grounds, detailed in para 6.4 above, is required to be decided afresh. Since bifurcation and quantification of the demand on the four different grounds is not possible at this juncture, the entire matter is being remanded back to the adjudicating authority for deciding afresh.

8. In view of the facts discussed herein above, I set aside the impugned order and remand the case back to the adjudicating authority for denovo adjudication in light of the observations contained in the foregoing paragraphs and after following the principles of natural justice.

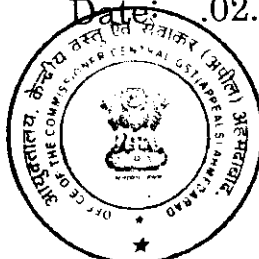

9. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed off in above terms.
