In view of above, an appeal against this order shall lie before the Tribunal on payment of 10% of the duty demanded where duty or duty and penalty are in dispute, or penalty, where penalty alone is in dispute."

अपीलिय आदेश / ORDER-IN-APPEAL

M/s Ganesh Investment, present address at 11-B, Shyam Vihar Avenue, T B Road, At- Vijapur, Distt. Mehsana, Pin-384570 (hereinafter referred to as the "appellant") have filed the present appeal against Order-In-Original No.80/AC/DEM/MEH/ST/ Ganesh/2021-22, dated 19.03.2022 (hereinafter referred to as the "impugned order"), issued by Assistant Commissioner, CGST & C.Ex., Division-Mehsana, Commissionerate-Gandhinagar (hereinafter referred to as the "adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant were holding Service Tax Registration No. AAHFG7651CST001 for providing taxable services. As per the information received from the Income Tax department, discrepancies were observed in the total income declared in Income Tax Returns/Form 26AS, when compared with Service Tax Returns of the appellant for the period F.Y. 2015-16 and 2016-17. In order to verify the said discrepancies as well as to ascertain the fact whether the appellant had discharged their Service Tax liabilities during the F.Y. 2015-16 and 2016-17, letters/e-mails dated 05.05.2020 and 02.07.2020 were issued to them by the department. The appellant failed to file any reply to the query. It was also observed by the Service Tax authorities that the appellant had not declared actual taxable value in their Service Tax Returns for the relevant period. It was also observed that the nature of services provided by the appellant were covered under the definition of 'Service' as per Section 65B(44) of the Finance Act, 1994, and their services were not covered under the 'Negative List' as per Section 66D of the Finance Act, 1994. Further, their services were not exempted vide the Mega Exemption Notification No.25/2012-S.T., dated 20.06.2012 (as amended). Hence, the services provided by the appellant during the relevant period were considered taxable.

3. In the absence of any other available data for cross-verification, the Service Tax liability of the appellant for the F.Y. 2015-16 and 2016-17 was determined on the basis of value of difference between 'Sales of Services under Sales/Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)' as provided by the Income Tax department and the 'Taxable Value' shown in the Service Tax Returns for the relevant period as per details below:

TABLE

(Amount in "Rs.")

Period	Differential Taxable value as per Income Tax Data	Rate of Service Tax [Including Cess]	Service Tax Demanded
2015-16	17,62,720	14.5 %	2,55,594
2016-17	0	15 %	0
Total	17,62,720		2,55,594

4. The appellant was issued a Show Cause Notice vide F.No.V.ST/11A-197/Ganesh Investment/2020-21, dated 18.08.2020, wherein it was proposed to:

- Demand and recover Service Tax amount of Rs.2,55,594/- under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994 along with interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act,1994 ;
- Impose penalty under Section 77(2), 77C and 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

5. The said Show Cause Notice was adjudicated, ex-parte, vide the impugned order wherein:

- Demand of Service Tax amount of Rs.2,55,594/- was confirmed under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994;
- Interest was imposed to be recovered under section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994;
- Penalty amounting to Rs.2,55,594/- was imposed under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 ;
- A penalty @ Rs.200/- per day till the date of compliance or Rs.10,000/-, whichever is higher under Section 77(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 was also imposed.
- Option was given for reduced penalty vide clause (ii) of the second proviso to Section 78(1) of the Finance Act, 1994.

6. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant have filed the appeal wherein they, inter alia, contended as under:-

- They did not have any Service Tax liability during 2015-16, however the order was passed without hearing them.
- They are sub-broker of Networth Stock Broking Ltd. and provide share trading facilities to the clients.
- Means, they are Service Provider and providing Intermediary services to the Demat Holders of Authorized Stock Broker.
- As per Sr.No. 29(a) of the Notification No.25/2012-ST, dated 20.06.2012 they are exempted from paying Service Tax.

- It implies that their all Gross Receipts are exempted and they are not liable to pay Service Tax.

7. Personal hearing in the matter was held on 15.03.2023. Shri Shaikh Irshad Ahmed Gulamnabi, Advocate, appeared as authorized representative of the appellant. He submitted a written submission during hearing. He re-iterated the submissions made in the appeal memorandum.

8. In the written submission dated 15.03.2023, the appellant submitted as under:-

- As per Para 14 and 15, it clearly seem that order was passed one-sided based only on Income Tax data without hearing them.
- Postal communication was done on their old business address and final order was handed over to them calling them in office. Actually their business address was changed and the same was also amended on GST portal.
- SCN was not delivered to their current address as per GST registration.
- They are exempted from paying Service Tax as per Sr.No.29(a) of the Notification No.25/2012-ST, dated 20.06.2012.
- The appellant have submitted documents in support of their case viz. ST-2 Registration Certificate, GST Registration Certificate, Sub-Broker Certificate, Sub-Brokerage ledger for F.Y. 2015-16, Form 26 AS, etc.

9. I have gone through the facts of the case, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum as well as submissions made at the time of personal hearing and the materials available on the record. The issue before me for decision is as to whether the impugned order confirming the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs.2,55,594/-, along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstances of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period to F.Y. 2015-16.

10. It is observed that the appellant were registered with the department for providing taxable services namely Stock broker service. They were issued SCN on the basis of the data received from the Income Tax Department. The appellant were called upon to submit documents/required details in respect of the difference found in their income reported in the ST-3 returns as compared to the Income Tax Returns. However, the appellant failed to submit the required details. Therefore, the appellant was issued SCN demanding Service Tax on the differential income by considering the same as income earned from providing taxable services. The adjudicating authority had confirmed the demand of Service Tax, along with interest and penalty, ex-parte, vide the impugned order.

11. It is observed that the appellant is a Partnership firm and registered with the department. The appellant have claimed that the services provided by them are exempted under Sr. No. 29(a) of Notification No. 25/2012-ST, dated 20.06.2012. They have also submitted documents in support of their case.

11.1. I find it pertinent to refer to Instruction dated 26.10.2021 issued by the CBIC, wherein it was directed that:

"2. In this regard, the undersigned is directed to inform that CBIC vide instructions dated 1-4-2021 and 23-4-2021 issued vide F.No. 137/472020-ST, has directed the field formations that while analysing ITR-TDS data received from Income Tax, a reconciliation statement has to be sought from the taxpayer for the difference and whether the service income earned by them for the corresponding period is attributable to any of the negative list services specified in Section 66D of the Finance Act, 1994 or exempt from payment of Service Tax, due to any reason. It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner/Chief Commissioner(s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

11.2 However, in the instant case, I find that no such exercise, as instructed by the Board has been undertaken by the adjudicating authority, and the impugned order has been issued only on the basis of the data received from the Income Tax department. The appellant are registered for providing stock broker service, as is evident from Para 19 of the impugned order. Hence application of exemption under Sr. No. 29(a) of Notification No. 25/2012-ST, dated 20.06.2012 should have been examined before fastening the service tax liability, particularly when the demand in SCN was raised on data from Income Tax without any verification. This aspect was required to be examined in the case which was not done. Therefore, I find that the impugned order has been passed without following the directions issued by the CIBC.

12. I find that at Para 15 of the impugned order, it has been recorded that the opportunity of personal hearing was granted on 16.02.2022, 23.02.2022 and 16.03.2022 but the appellant had not appeared for hearing. It has also been recorded in the Para 14 that no reply has been filed by the appellant in response to the SCN. The adjudicating authority had thereafter decided the case ex-parte. It is contention of the appellant that they had not received communication on account of change in their communication address.

12.1 In terms of Section 33A (1) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, the adjudicating authority shall give an opportunity of being heard. In terms of sub-section (2) of Section 33A, the adjudicating authority may adjourn the case, if sufficient cause is shown. In terms of the proviso to Section 33A (2), no adjournment shall be granted more than three times. I find that in the instant case, three adjournments as contemplated in Section 33A of the Central Excise Act, 1944 have not been granted to the appellant. I find it relevant to refer to the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in the case of Regent Overseas Pvt. Ltd. Vs. UOI - 2017(6) GSTL 15 (Guj) wherein it was held that:

12. Another aspect of the matter is that by the notice for personal hearing three dates have been fixed and absence of the petitioners on those three dates appears to have been considered as grant of three adjournments as contemplated under the proviso to sub-section (2) of Section 33A of the Act. In this regard it may be noted that sub-section (2) of Section 33A of the Act provides for grant of not more than three adjournments, which would envisage four dates of personal hearing and not three dates, as mentioned in the notice for personal hearing. Therefore, even if by virtue of the dates stated in the notice for personal hearing it were assumed that adjournments were granted, it would amount to grant of two adjournments and not three adjournments, as grant of three adjournments would mean, in all four dates of personal hearing."

Therefore, the impugned order has been passed in violation of principles of natural justice and is not legally sustainable.

13. It is further observed that the appellant have, in their submission, contended that they have earned Rs. 17,62,720/- as brokerage commission income acting as sub-broker of Networth Stock Broking Ltd. , which is mentioned in the Profit & Loss Account. I find that the appellant have not submitted any corroborative documents in support of the said brokerage commission income they claimed to have received as sub-broker. Thus, the appellant have failed to submit correct reconciliation of the income for the F.Y. 2015-16. Considering the fact that the matter requires reconciliation of data with the relevant records, it would be in the interest of justice that the appellant are accorded one more opportunity to produce proper reconciliation of data of income for the relevant period, all required / relevant documents in support their case before the adjudicating authority. I further find that the adjudicating authority did not have the opportunity of considering the submissions of the appellant before passing the impugned order what they have represented before this appellate authority. Since the matter needs reconciliation with relevant documents and re-examination of exemption claimed by the appellant for which the adjudicating authority is best placed to conduct necessary verification. In view of the above, I am of the considered view that it would be in the fitness of things and in the interest of natural justice that the matter is remanded back to the adjudicating authority to consider the submissions of the appellant, made in the course of the present appeal and, thereafter, adjudicate the matter after affording the appellant the opportunity of submitting further documents in support of their contentions and give findings thereon.

14. In view of the above, the impugned order is set aside and the matter is remanded back to the adjudicating authority for adjudication afresh, after following principles of natural justice. The appellant is directed to submit their written submission to the adjudicating authority within 15 days of the receipt of this order. The appellant is also directed to appear before the adjudicating authority as and when personal hearing is fixed by the adjudicating authority. Accordingly, the impugned order is set aside and the appeal of the appellant is allowed by way of remand.

15. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
