In view of above, an appeal against this order shall lie before the Tribunal on payment of 10% of the duty demanded where duty or duty and penalty are in dispute, or penalty where penalty alone is in dispute."

अपीलिय आदेश / ORDER-IN-APPEAL

M/s Ashish Rameshbhai Prajapati [Proprietor :- M/s Maruti Financial Services], 18, Apollo Enclave, Highway, Mehsana - 384002 (hereinafter referred to as the "appellant") have filed the present appeal against Order-In-Original No. 76/AC/DEM/MEH/ST/Ashish/2021-22, dated 18.03.2022/ 22.03.2022 (hereinafter referred to as the "impugned order"), issued by Assistant Commissioner, CGST & C.Ex., Division - Mehsana, Commissionerate - Gandhinagar (hereinafter referred to as the "adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant were holding Service Tax Registration No. ALQPP7236ESD001 for providing taxable services. As per the information received from the Income Tax department, discrepancies were observed in the total income declared in Income Tax Returns/26AS, when compared with Service Tax Returns of the appellant for the period F.Y. 2014-15. In order to verify the said discrepancies as well as to ascertain the correct discharge of Service Tax liabilities by the appellant during the F.Y. 2014-15, e-mail dated 19.06.2020 was issued to them by the department. The appellant failed to file any reply to the query. It was also observed that the nature of services provided by the appellant were covered under the definition of 'Service' as per Section 65B(44) of the Finance Act, 1994, and their services were not covered under the 'Negative List' as per Section 66D of the Finance Act, 1994. Further, their services were not exempted vide the Mega Exemption Notification No. 25/2012-S.T., dated 20.06.2012 (as amended). Hence, the services provided by the appellant during the relevant period were considered taxable.

3. In the absence of any other available data for cross-verification, the Service Tax liability of the appellant for the F.Y. 2014-15 was determined on the basis of value of difference between 'Sales of Services under Sales/Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)' as provided by the Income Tax department and the 'Taxable Value' shown in the Service Tax Returns for the relevant period as per details below:

TABLE

(Amount in Rs.)

F.Y.	Taxable Value as per Income Tax data	Taxable Value declared in ST-3 Return	Difference of Value	Service Tax Rate [including EC, SHEC]	Demand of Service Tax
2014-15	16,94,201	0	16,94,201	12.36%	2,09,403

4. The appellant were issued a Show Cause Notice vide F.No. IV/16-13/TPI/PI/Batch3C/2018-19/Gr.II/3498, dated 25.06.2020, wherein it was proposed to:

- Demand and recover Service Tax amount of Rs. 2,09,403/- under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994 along with interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 ;
- Impose penalty under Section 77(2), 77C and 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

5. The said Show Cause Notice was adjudicated, ex-parte, vide the impugned order wherein:

- Demand of Service Tax amount of Rs. 2,09,403/- was confirmed under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994;
- Interest was imposed to be recovered under section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994;
- Penalty amounting to Rs. 2,09,403/- was imposed under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 ;
- ➤ A penalty Rs. 10,000/- under Section 77(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 was also imposed.
- A penalty @ Rs.200/- per day till the date of compliance or Rs. 10,000/-, whichever is higher under Section 77(1)(c) of the Finance Act, 1994 was also imposed.
- Option was given for reduced penalty vide clause (ii) of the second proviso to Section 78(1) of the Finance Act, 1994.

6. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant have filed this appeal on merit alongwith application for condonation of delay wherein they, inter alia, contended as under:-

- ➤ They left for Ahmedabad and the impugned order was for earlier period. Considerable time was lapsed in collection of the information for earlier period from Mehsana. Further to pay the pre-deposit, they have sought guidance from the department.
- On the basis of ITR, the department has issued SCN. Letters/ informative notices issued by the department were not received by them.
- SCN was issued based on presumptions without any verification and hence not sustainable.
- The notice is totally time barred. Extended period of limitation is not applicable in the present matter in terms of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. In support they relied upon the decision in case of M/s Cosmic Dye Chemical Vs Collector of C.Ex., Bombay [1995(75) ELT 721 (SC)].

They had filed the Income Tax Return and on that basis the adjudicating officer passed the present order without considering the facts of case.

- They worked as agent for various banking institution in North Gujarat and as per their knowledge they were eligible for small scale exemption and hence not required to make any payment. Details of the income they earned is as under :-

Particular	Amount	Applicability of Tax
2015-16	17,01,292	Commission income
2015-16	37,376	Interest income [Exempted]
Total	17,38,668

They are eligible for basic exemption limit as per Notification No. 33/2012-S.T., dated 20.06.2012, as amended. They have submitted Profit & Loss account and contended that Service Tax in relation to income would be determined as under :-

2015-16	Amount
Commission Income	17,01,292
Less Small Scale Exemption	10,00,000
Net Taxable Value	7,01,292
Tax Rate	12.36%
Cum Duty Tax.*	77,144

- For Cum Duty Tax they relied upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of Commissioner Vs Advance Media Consultants -2009 (14) STR J49 (S.C.).
- They are not liable for any tax and requested to grant them small scale exemption and to demand the tax accordingly.
- They also contended that since there are no tax liabilities, no penalty is imposable upon them as there was no intention to evade tax. They relied upon the decision of Apex Court in case of M/s Hindustan Steel Vs State of Orissa- 1978 ELT (J159).

7. Personal hearing in the matter was held on 04.05.2023. Shri Arpan Yagnik, Chartered Accountant, appeared as authorized representative of the appellant. He re-iterated the submissions made in the application for condonation of delay. He further vide email dated 12.05.2023 communicated to proceed in the matter on merit basis considering their submission and they do not need any further personal hearing in the matter.

At the first and foremost, while dealing with the issue of condonation of delay, observed that the impugned order was issued on 22.03.2022 and appellant had claimed its receipt/ date of communication on 10.04.2022. The appellant have filed the present appeal on 16.06.2022 and vide letter dated 24.06.2022, they have requested for condonation of delay of 7 days stating the reason that present order is passed for earlier period and hence, considerable time got elapsed in obtaining the necessary information and they also sought guidance from the department for payment of pre-deposit. Thus, a delay of seven (7) days occurred in filing the present appeal beyond the prescribed time limit of two months as per the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994.

8.1 In terms of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, an appeal before the Commissioner (Appeals) is to be filed within a period of two months from the receipt of the order being appealed. Further, the proviso to Section 85 (3A) of the Finance Act, 1994 allows the Commissioner (Appeals) to condone delay and allow a further period of one month, beyond the two month allowed for filing of appeal in terms of Section 85 (3A) of the Finance Act, 1994, if he is satisfied that the appellant were prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of two months.

8.2. On going through the submissions, I find that the appellant have claimed that present order is for earlier period and hence considerable time got elapsed in obtaining the necessary information and they also sought guidance from the department for payment of pre-deposit. Therefore, delay of 7 days occurred in filing the present appeal. I find that the reason for the delay stated by the appellant is genuine and acceptable. Therefore, I am inclined to consider the request of the appellant and condone the delay in filing appeal.

9. As regards merit of the case, I have gone through the facts of the case, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum as well as submissions made at the time of personal hearing and the materials available on the record. The issue before me for decision is as to whether the impugned order confirming the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 2,09,403/- , along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstances of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period to F.Y. 2014-15.

10. It is observed that the appellant were registered with the department for providing supply of taxable services. They were issued SCN on the basis of the data received from the Income Tax Department. The appellant were called upon to submit documents/required details of services provided during the F.Y. 2014-15. However, the appellant failed to submit the required details. Therefore, the appellant were issued SCN demanding Service Tax considering the income earned from providing taxable services as declared in the Income Tax Returns. The adjudicating authority had confirmed the demand of Service Tax, along with interest and penalty, ex-parte, vide the impugned order.

11. It is observed that the appellant is a Proprietorship firm and registered with the department. The appellant have claimed that they were eligible for basic exemption limit as per Notification No. 33/2012-S.T., dated 20.06.2012, as amended. They have submitted Profit & Loss Account for the relevant period and contended that Service Tax in relation to income would be determined after allowing them the basic exemption and then Tax on cum duty basis.

11.1. I find it pertinent to refer to Instruction dated 26.10.2021 issued by the CBIC, wherein it was directed that:

"2. In this regard, the undersigned is directed to inform that CBIC vide instructions dated 1-4-2021 and 23-4-2021 issued vide F.No. 137/472020-ST, has directed the field formations that while analysing ITR-TDS data received from Income Tax, a reconciliation statement has to be sought from the taxpayer for the difference and whether the service income earned by them for the corresponding period is attributable to any of the negative list services specified in Section 66D of the Finance Act, 1994 or exempt from payment of Service Tax, due to any reason. It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner/Chief Commissioner(s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

11.2 However, in the instant case, I find that no such exercise, as instructed by the Board has been undertaken by the adjudicating authority, and the impugned order has been issued only on the basis of the data received from the Income Tax department. The appellant were admittedly registered with the department. Further, the appellant claimed that they are eligible for basic exemption limit as per Notification No. 33/2012-S.T., dated 20.06.2012, as amended. It is also observed that the appellant have commission income of Rs. 17,01,292/- during F.Y. 2014-15. Even in case of eligibility of basic exemption limit as per Notification No. 33/2012-S.T., dated 20.06.2012, they are liable to pay Service Tax on the income exceeding the exemption limit. All these facts claimed by the appellant were required to be examined in the case which was not done. Therefore, I find that the impugned order has been passed without following the directions issued by the CBIC.

12. I find that at Para 15 of the impugned order, it has been recorded that the opportunity of personal hearing was granted on 16.02.2022, 23.02.2022 and 07.03.2022 but the appellant had not appeared for hearing. It has also been recorded in the Para 14 that no reply has been filed by the appellant in response to the SCN. The adjudicating authority had, thereafter, decided the case ex-parte.

12.1 In terms of Section 33A (1) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, the adjudicating authority shall give an opportunity of being heard. In terms of sub-section (2) of Section 33A, the adjudicating authority may adjourn the case, if sufficient cause is shown. In terms of the proviso to Section 33A (2), no adjournment shall be granted more than three times. I find that in the instant case, three adjournments as contemplated in Section 33A of the Central Excise Act, 1944 have not been granted to the appellant. I find it relevant to refer to the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in the case of Regent Overseas Pvt. Ltd. Vs. UOI - 2017(6) GSTL 15 (Guj) wherein it was held that:

12. Another aspect of the matter is that by the notice for personal hearing three dates have been fixed and absence of the petitioners on those three dates appears to have been considered as grant of three adjournments as contemplated under the proviso to sub-section (2) of Section 33A of the Act. In this regard it may be noted that sub-section (2) of Section 33A of the Act provides for grant of not more than three adjournments, which would envisage four dates of personal hearing and not three dates, as mentioned in the notice for personal hearing. Therefore, even if by virtue of the dates stated in the notice for personal hearing it were assumed that adjournments were granted, it would amount to grant of two adjournments and not three adjournments, as grant of three adjournments would mean, in all four dates of personal hearing."

Therefore, the impugned order has been passed in violation of principles of natural justice and is not legally sustainable.

12.2 It is further observed that the appellant have made submissions in their appeal memorandum, which were not made before the adjudicating authority. I find that the adjudicating authority did not have the opportunity of considering these submissions of the appellant before passing the impugned order what they have represented before this appellate authority. The matter needs reconciliation with relevant documents for which the adjudicating authority is best placed to conduct necessary verification. In view of the above, I am of the considered view that in the interest of the principles of natural justice, the matter is required to be remanded back for denovo adjudication after affording the appellant the opportunity of personal hearing.

13. In view of the above, the impugned order is set aside and the matter is remanded back to the adjudicating authority for adjudication afresh, after following principles of natural justice. The appellant is directed to submit their written submission to the adjudicating authority within 15 days of the receipt of this order. The appellant is also directed to appear before the adjudicating authority as and when personal hearing is fixed by the adjudicating authority. Accordingly, the impugned order is set aside and the appeal of the appellant is allowed by way of remand.

14. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
