अपीलिय आदेश / ORDER-IN-APPEAL

M/s Plenar Solutions, Unit No. 109, 1st Floor, Wing-A Building, Aqualine Properties Pvt. Ltd., Mindspace IT/ITES SEZ, Koba, Gandhinagar -382009 [Present Address:- 203, Campus Corner, H. L. Commerce College Road, St. Xavier's College Cross Road, Navrangpura, Ahmedabad - 380009] (hereinafter referred to as the "appellant") have filed the present appeal against Order-In-Original No. 08/ADJ/GNR/PMT/2021-22, dated 24.01.2022 (hereinafter referred to as the "impugned order"), issued by Deputy Commissioner, CGST & C.Ex., Division - Gandhinagar, Commissionerate - Gandhinagar (hereinafter referred to as the "adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant were holding Service Tax Registration No. AANFP1842QSD001 for providing taxable services. As per the information received from the Income Tax department, discrepancies were observed in the total income declared in Income Tax Returns/26AS, when compared with Service Tax Returns of the appellant for the period F.Y. 2015-16. In order to verify the said discrepancies as well as to ascertain the correct discharge of Service Tax liabilities by the appellant during the F.Y. 2015-16, letters dated 04.06.2020 and 03.07.2020 were issued to them by the department. The appellant failed to file any reply to the query. It was also observed that the nature of services provided by the appellant were covered under the definition of 'Service' as per Section 65B(44) of the Finance Act, 1994, and their services were not covered under the 'Negative List' as per Section 66D of the Finance Act, 1994. Further, their services were not exempted vide the Mega Exemption Notification No. 25/2012-S.T., dated 20.06.2012 (as amended).

3. In the absence of any other available data for cross-verification, the Service Tax liability of the appellant for the F.Y. 2015-16 was determined on the basis of value of difference between 'Sales of Services under Sales/Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)' as provided by the Income Tax department and the 'Taxable Value' shown in the Service Tax Returns for the relevant period as per details below:

TABLE

(Amount in Rs.)

F.Y.	Taxable Value as per Income Tax data	Income on which Service Tax paid	Difference of Value	Service Tax Rate [including EC, SHEC]	Demand of Service Tax
2015-16	78,89,865	0	78,89,865	14.5 %	11,44,030.42

4. The appellant were issued a Show Cause Notice vide F.No. V/04-64/O&A/SCN/PLENAR/20-21, dated 20.07.2020, wherein it was proposed to:

- Demand and recover Service Tax amount of Rs. 11,44,030.42 under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994 along with interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 ;
- Impose penalty under Section 76, 77(2), 77(3)(c), and 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

5. The said Show Cause Notice was adjudicated, ex-parte, vide the impugned order wherein:

- Demand of Service Tax amount of Rs. 11,44,030.42 was confirmed under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994;
- Interest was ordered to be recovered under section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994;
- Penalty amounting to Rs. 11,44,030.42 was imposed under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 ;
- A penalty Rs. 10,000/- under Section 77(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 was also imposed.
- A penalty Rs. 10,000/- under Section 77(3)(c) of the Finance Act, 1994 was also imposed.
- Option was given for reduced penalty vide clause (ii) of the second proviso to Section 78(1) of the Finance Act, 1994.

6. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant have filed this appeal on merit alongwith application for condonation of delay wherein they, inter alia, contended as under:-

- On the delay filing of appeal, they contended that they were granted approval in 2012 under SEZ scheme for unit address at :- 109, 1st Floor, "A" Wing, Building No.1-A, Aqualine IT/ITES- SEZ, Village :- Koba, Gandhinagar.
- They exited from the SEZ scheme in 2014 and started operating from Address:- 203, Campus Corner, H.L.Commerce College Cross Road, Navrangpura, Ahmedabad- 380009.
- They received copy of notice dated 28.04.2022 from Range Superintendent regarding recovery of dues out of the impugned order at the present address. On receipt of this notice, they came to know about the impugned order department had passed which they were not aware till that date.
- On receipt of the notice dated 28.04.2022, they forwarded copy to their consultant who in turn had visited the GST department and got the copy. Thus they received the OIO on 10.05.2022 and filed the appeal on 27.06.2022 i.e. within stipulated time of 60 days.

On merit, they contended that on the facts of the case and law the period of limitation cannot be invoked. They were engaged in the business of exporting software services and there is no bonafide doubt about exemption of said services from service tax. Hence, extended period of limitation is not available.

- Principles of natural justice have not been followed by the adjudicating authority. OIO was passed without according them proper opportunity to represent their case and the order was passed based on incomplete information. The order passed against law of natural justice and bad in la and illegal.
- The adjudicating authority erred in considering export of service of software as taxable and determining tax liability of Rs. 11,44,030.42. They had on export turnover and there were no local sales or services. Software services are not taxable; hence, they are not liable for payment of Service Tax. They submitted the details of export of service in tabulated form and contended that services provided to the clients outside India are exempted from levy of Service Tax as per Section 64 of the Finance Act, 1994.
- Since tax liability itself is disputed, question of demand of interest thereon under Section 75 does not arise. Further, proposal of penalties under Section 78, 77(2) and 77(3)(c) are also not justifiable.

7. Personal hearing in the matter was held on 14.04.2023. Shri Parikshit A. Thakur, Partner of the appellant firm, appeared as authorized representative of the appellant. He re-iterated the submissions made in the application for condonation of delay. He, further vide letter dated 29.05.2023 received through e-mail, communicated to proceed in the matter on the basis of their written submissions and explanations given during the hearing without any further personal hearings in the matter.

8. At the first and foremost, while dealing with the issue of delay in filing of appeal, it is observed that the impugned order was issued on 24.01.2022 and the appellant had claimed its receipt/ date of communication on 10.05.2022. The appellant have filed the present appeal on 27.06.2022. They, vide letter dated 15.03.2023, submitted the explanation for delayed filing of appeal.

8.1 The appellant, in their explanation dated 15.03.2023, have mentioned that they were operating under SEZ scheme at the address :- 109, 1st Floor, Wing-A Building, Aqualine Properties Pvt. Ltd., Mindspace IT/ITES SEZ, Koba, Gandhinagar -382009 only till 2014. After having exited from the SEZ scheme, they started operating from the new address :- 203, Campus Corner, H. L. Commerce College Cross Road, Navrangpura, Ahmedabad- 380009. They received copy of notice dated 28.04.2022 at the present address from the Range Superintendent, CGST, AR-III, Division : Gandhinagar regarding recovery of dues arising out of the impugned order. Only on receipt of the said notice, they came to know about the impugned order department had passed which they were not aware till that date. On receipt of the notice dated 28.04.2022, they forwarded the copy to their consultant, who in turn had visited the GST department and got the copy of the impugned order. Thus they received the OIO only on 10.05.2022 and filed the appeal on 27.06.2022 which is within stipulated time of 60 days.

8.2 In view of the facts and circumstances mentioned by the appellant, this appellate authority has considered the date of service of the order as 10.05.2022 i.e. the date appellant claimed as the date of communication of the impugned order. Therefore, I am inclined to consider the request of the appellant and treat the appeal to be filed within time-limit.

9. As regards merit of the case, I have gone through the facts of the case, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum as well as submissions made at the time of personal hearing and the materials available on the record. The issue before me for decision is as to whether the impugned order confirming the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 11,44,030.42, along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstances of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period to F.Y. 2015-16.

10. It is observed that the appellant were registered with the department for providing taxable services. They were issued SCN on the basis of the data received from the Income Tax Department. The appellant were called upon to submit documents/required details of services provided during the F.Y. 2015-16. However, the appellant failed to submit the required details. Therefore, the appellant were issued SCN demanding Service Tax considering the income earned from providing taxable services as declared in the Income Tax Returns. The adjudicating authority had confirmed the demand of Service Tax, along with interest and penalty, ex-parte, vide the impugned order.

10.1. I find it pertinent to refer to Instruction dated 26.10.2021 issued by the CBIC, wherein it was directed that:

"2. In this regard, the undersigned is directed to inform that CBIC vide instructions dated 1-4-2021 and 23-4-2021 issued vide F.No. 137/472020-ST, has directed the field formations that while analysing ITR-TDS data received from Income Tax, a reconciliation statement has to be sought from the taxpayer for the difference and whether the service income earned by them for the corresponding period is attributable to any of the negative list services specified in Section 66D of the Finance Act, 1994 or exempt from payment of Service Tax, due to any reason. It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner/Chief Commissioner(s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

10.2 However, in the instant case, I find that no such exercise, as instructed by the Board, has been undertaken by the adjudicating authority, and the impugned order has been issued only on the basis of the data received from the Income Tax department. The appellant were admittedly registered with the department. It is observed that the appellant is a Partnership firm and registered with the department. The appellant have claimed that they were engaged in the business of exporting software services and the adjudicating authority erred in considering export of service of software as taxable and determining tax liability of Rs. 11,44,030.42. They had only export turnover and there were no local sales or services. Since Software services are not taxable, they are not liable for payment of Service Tax as services provided to the clients outside India are exempt from levy of Service Tax as per Section 64 of the Finance Act, 1994. All these facts claimed by the appellant were required to be examined in the case. Therefore, I find that the impugned order has been passed without following the directions issued by the CBIC.

11. Further, I find that at Para 19 of the impugned order, it has been recorded that the opportunity of personal hearing was granted on 08.12.2021, 23.12.2021 and 06.01.2022 but the appellant had not appeared for hearing. It has also been recorded that no reply has been filed by the appellant in response to the SCN. The adjudicating authority had, thereafter, decided the case ex-parte.

11.1 In terms of Section 33A (1) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, the adjudicating authority shall give an opportunity of being heard. In terms of sub-section (2) of Section 33A, the adjudicating authority may adjourn the case, if sufficient cause is shown. In terms of the proviso to Section 33A (2), no adjournment shall be granted more than three times. I find that in the instant case, three adjournments as contemplated in Section 33A of the Central Excise Act, 1944 have not been granted to the appellant. I find it relevant to refer to the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in the case of Regent Overseas Pvt. Ltd. Vs. UOI - 2017(6) GSTL 15 (Guj) wherein it was held that:

12. Another aspect of the matter is that by the notice for personal hearing three dates have been fixed and absence of the petitioners on those three dates appears to have been considered as grant of three adjournments as contemplated under the proviso to sub-section (2) of Section 33A of the Act.

In this regard it may be noted that sub-section (2) of Section 33A of the Act provides for grant of not more than three adjournments, which would envisage four dates of personal hearing and not three dates, as mentioned in the notice for personal hearing. Therefore, even if by virtue of the dates stated in the notice for personal hearing it were assumed that adjournments were granted, it would amount to grant of two adjournments and not three adjournments, as grant of three adjournments would mean, in all four dates of personal hearing."

Therefore, the impugned order has been passed in violation of principles of natural justice and is not legally sustainable.

11.2 It is further observed that the appellant have made submissions in their appeal memorandum, which were not made before the adjudicating authority. I find that the adjudicating authority did not have the opportunity of considering these submissions of the appellant before passing the impugned order what they have represented before this appellate authority. The matter needs reconciliation with relevant documents for which the adjudicating authority is best placed to conduct necessary verification. In view of the above, I am of the considered view that in the interest of the principles of natural justice, the matter is required to be remanded back for denovo adjudication after affording the appellant the opportunity of personal hearing.

12. In view of the above, the impugned order is set aside and the matter is remanded back to the adjudicating authority for adjudication afresh, after following principles of natural justice. The appellant is directed to submit their written submission to the adjudicating authority within 15 days of the receipt of this order. The appellant is also directed to appear before the adjudicating authority as and when personal hearing is fixed by the adjudicating authority. Accordingly, the impugned order is set aside and the appeal of the appellant is allowed by way of remand.

13. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
