ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Parag Rajnikant Raval, B-11, Galaxy View Flats, B/s. Pavan Party Plot, Nr. Hari Park, Naranpura, Ahmedabad – 380013 (hereinafter referred to as “the appellant”) against Order-in-Original No. CGST/WT07/RAJ/59/2022-23 dated 27.04.2022 (hereinafter referred to as “the impugned order”) passed by the Deputy Commissioner, Central GST, Division VII, Ahmedabad North (hereinafter referred to as “the adjudicating authority”).

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant is holding PAN No. AAJPR8266Q. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the Financial Year 2014-15, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 13,54,200/- during the FY 2014-15, which was reflected under the heads “Sales / Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)” or “Total amount paid / credited under Section 194C, 194I, 194H, 194J (Value from Form 26AS)” provided by the Income Tax department. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but has neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant was called upon to submit copies of Balance Sheet, Profit & Loss accounts, Income Tax Returns, Form 26AS, for the said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant was issued a Show Cause Notice No. CGST/AR-I/Div-VII/A'bad North/21/Parag Ra/2020-21 dated 26.09.2020 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 1,67,379/- for the period FY 2014-15, under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; and imposition of penalties under Section 77(1)(a), Section 77(1)(c), Section 77(2) & Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of un-quantified amount of Service Tax for the period FY 2015-16 to FY 2017-18 (up to Jun-17).

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated ex-parte vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 1,67,379/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period from FY 2014-15. Further (i) Penalty of Rs. 1,67,379/- was also imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1)(a) & Section 77(1)(c) of the Finance Act, 1994; and (iii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 for not submitting documents to the department, when called for.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant has preferred the present appeal on the following grounds:

- The appellant is Chartered Accountant and engaged in providing "Consultancy Services".
- On receipt of the Show Cause Notice dated 26.09.2020, the appellant duly paid the outstanding demand of Rs. 1,67,379/- on 22.10.2020, i.e. within 30 days of issue of Show Cause Notice. As the demand of Service Tax is already discharged by him, there is no merit in the demand confirmed vide impugned order issued by the adjudicating authority and the same is required to be set aside.
- The appellant has also submitted defence reply to the SCN on 10.11.2020. The copy of acknowledgement of the said reply is submitted along with appeal memorandum. However, there is no reference of submission made by the appellant anywhere in the impugned order. Without referring the reply to SCN along with relevant documents, impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority shall be considered as null and void.
- Penalty under Section 78 can be levied only if there is fraud; collusion; wilful misstatement, suppression of facts or contraventions of any provision with intend to evade payment of Service Tax. The appellant submitted that no penalty shall be imposable on him.

- On the basis of above grounds, the appellants requested for setting aside the impugned order.

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 17.01.2023 through virtual mode. Ms. Bhagyashree Dave, Chartered Accountant and Ms. Foram Dhruv, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant for personal hearing. They reiterated submission made in appeal memorandum.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period FY 2014-15.

6. I find that in the SCN in question, the demand has been raised for the period FY 2014-15 based on the Income Tax Returns filed by the appellant. Except for the value of "Sales of Services under Sales / Gross Receipts from Services" provided by the Income Tax Department, no other cogent reason or justification is forthcoming from the SCN for raising the demand against the appellant. It is also not specified as to under which category of service the non-levy of service tax is alleged against the appellant. Merely because the appellant had reported receipts from services, the same cannot form the basis for arriving at the conclusion that the respondent was liable to pay service tax, which was not paid by them. In this regard, I find that CBIC had, vide Instruction dated 26.10.2021, directed that:

"It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts, may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner /Chief Commissioner (s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

6.1 In the present case, I find that letters were issued to the appellant seeking details and documents, which were allegedly not submitted by them. However, without any further inquiry or investigation, the SCN has been issued only on the basis of details received from the Income Tax department, without even specifying the category of service in respect of which service tax is sought to be levied and collected. This, in my considered view, is not a proper ground for raising of demand of service tax.

7. I also find that the appellant claim to have paid the Service Tax amount of Rs. 1,67,379/- on 22.10.2020 and submitted detailed reply to the Show Cause Notice to the adjudicating authority vide letter dated 07.11.2020 received by the adjudicating authority on 10.11.2020, i.e. within 30 days of the Show Cause Notice. However, the adjudicating authority in the impugned order, has not considered the same and has mentioned that the appellant has not replied to the SCN, and confirmed the demand of Service Tax. It also observed that the adjudicating authority has scheduled personal hearing by specifying 3 (three) different dates i.e. 19.04.2022, 21.04.2022 and 25.04.2022 in the single letter dated 07.04.2022. In this regard, I find that the adjudicating authority has given three dates of personal hearing in one notice and has considered the same as three opportunities. As per Section 33A(2) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, as made applicable to Service Tax vide Section 83 of the Finance Act, 1994, when a personal hearing is fixed, it is open to a party to seek time by showing sufficient cause and in such case, the adjudicating authority may grant time and adjourn the personal hearing by recording the reason in writing. Not more than three such adjournments can be granted. Since such adjournments are limited to three, the hearing would be required to be fixed on each such occasion and on every occasion when time is sought and sufficient cause is made out, the case would be adjourned to another date. However, the adjudicating authority is required to give one date a time and record his reasons for granting adjournment on each occasion. It is not permissible for the adjudicating authority to issue one consolidated notice fixing three dates of hearing, whether or not the party asks for time, as has been done in the present case.

8.3 In view of the above, I find that the adjudicating authority had not considered the reply to the Show Cause Notice filed by the appellant and also not given adequate and ample opportunity to the appellant for personal hearing and passed the impugned order ex-parte. Thus, it is held that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority is clearly in breach of the principles of natural justice.

9. In view of the above discussion, I hold that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority is not legal and correct and I am of the considered view that the same is required to be decided a fresh. Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, keeping all the issues open, I remand the matter back to the adjudicating authority to reconsider the issue a fresh and pass a speaking order after following the principles of natural justice.

10. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
