In view of above, an appeal against this order shall lie before the Tribunal on payment of 10% of the duty demanded where duty or duty and penalty are in dispute, or penalty, where penalty alone is in dispute."

ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Tulsi Service, Proprietor Jagdish Ramniklal Parikh, 29/B, Hari Park, Opp. Ankur Bus Stop, Naranpura, Ahmedabad-380054 (hereinafter referred to as "the appellant") against Order-in-Original No. CGST/WT07/RAJ/25/2022-23 dated 27/04/2022 (hereinafter referred to as "the impugned order") passed by the Deputy Commissioner, Central GST, Division VII, Ahmedabad North (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant is holding PAN No. AFRPP5356A. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the Financial Year 2014-15, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 21,03,162/- during the FY 2014-15, which was reflected under the heads "Sales / Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)" or "Total amount paid / credited under Section 194C, 194I, 194H, 194J (Value from Form 26AS)" provided by the Income Tax department. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but has neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant was called upon to submit copies of Balance Sheet, Profit & Loss Account, Income Tax Return, Form 26AS, for the said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant was issued a Show Cause Notice No. CGST/AR-1/DIV-VII/A'bad-North/79/JAGDISH/2020-21 dated 27/09/2020 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 2,59,951/- for the period FY 2014-15, under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; and imposition of penalties under Section 77(1)(a), Section 77(1)(c), Section 77(2) & Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of unquantified amount of Service Tax for the period FY 2015-16 to FY 2017-18 (up to Jun-17).

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated ex-parte vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 2,59,951/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period from FY 2014-15. Further (i) Penalty of Rs. 2,59,951/- was also imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1)(a) and Section 77(1)(c) of the Finance Act, 1994; and (iii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 for not submitting documents to the department, when called for.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant have preferred the present appeal along with application for condonation of delay in filing of appeal on the following grounds:

- The appellant has not availed any opportunity of hearing because he was out of India and not received any hearing in this letter though the department has sent letter to him. In absence of any reply to SCN and explaining the case without hearing, the impugned order confirming the duty is not proper and legal.
- While demand is confirmed on the ground of CBDT data, the cum duty price benefit is not extended.
- In ITR for the period 2014-15, the amount of income shown is Rs. 21,03,162/- which is considered as taxable service under SCN but on what ground it is considered as taxable value is not mentioned anywhere in SCN. Therefore, in absence of any ground, the said SCN and impugned order for demanding service tax is not sustainable.
- Even the department has not taken care to investigate the matter whether, in fact, the amount of income as per ITR is liable to service tax. Therefore, in absence of any evidence, the appellant is not liable to pay service tax as mentioned in impugned order. The appellant in this regard placed reliance on the judgment reported in 2019 (24) GSTL 606 in the case of Kush Construction.
- In the SCN, there is no classification of service has been mentioned that under which appellant is covered and liable to pay service tax of Rs. 2,59,951/- for the FY 2014-15. If there is no such classification of service is mentioned in notice, it can not be concluded that the appellant is liable to pay service Tax. The appellant in this regard placed reliance on the following judgments:
  - i. 2018 (10) GSTL 392 in the case of Deltax Enterprise
  - ii. 2015 (040) STR 1034 & 2020 (43) GSTL 533 in the case of Vaatika Constructions.
  - iii. 2022 (58) GSTL 324 in the case of Ganpati Mega Builders (I) Pvt. Ltd.
  - iv. 2002 (58) 245 in the case of Quest Engineers & Consultant (P)
- The invocation of extended period to cover liability for the period 2014-15 is totally baseless and vague by issuing notice on 27/09/2020. The demand is totally time barred. Therefore, the impugned order is not sustainable.
- The penalty is proposed to be imposed under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 on the ground of suppression of facts but there is no suppression of facts on the part of appellant as the appellant is not liable to pay service tax. It is well settled law, by catena of decision that penalty is imposable on the act or omission or deliberate violation with disregard to the statue and in absence of any allegation made in the show cause notice regarding the activity / involvement of the appellants, and presence of mens-rea being a mandatory requirement, in absence of same proposal for imposition of penalty is unjustified, as enshrined by the various judgments as mentioned below:

- a) 2008 (226) E.L.T. 38 (P & H) Commissioner of C. Ex., Jalandhar Vs. S. K. Sacks (P) Ltd.
- b) 1998 (33) E.L.T. 548 (Tri) - Indopharma Pharmaceutical Works
- c) 2000 (125) E.L.T. 781 (Tribunal) - Bhillai Conductors (P) Ltd.
- d) 1994 (74) E.L.T. 9 (SC) - Tamil Nadu Housing Board

4. On going through the appeal memorandum, it is noticed that the impugned order was issued on 07.04.2022 and received by the appellant on 24.05.2022. However, the present appeal, in terms of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, was filed on 26.07.2022, i.e. after a delay of 3 days from the time limit for filing appeal. The appellant have also filed a Application seeking condonation of delay along with appeal memorandum stating that in the preamble of the impugned order, the time period mentioned to file the appeal is 3 months from the date of communication of order, therefore, the appellant was of view that the last day for filing the appeal would be 23.08.2022. Thus, it resulted in delay of 3 days, which was accidental and not intentional.

4.1 Personal hearing in the case was held on 08.02.2023. Shri Naimesh K. Oza, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant. He reiterated submission made in application for condonation of delay. He stated that the appellant was unregistered and hence benefit of cum-duty is available to him. He also reiterated the submissions made in appeal memorandum.

4.2 Before taking up the issue on merits, I proceed to decide the Application filed seeking condonation of delay. As per Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, an appeal should be filed within a period of 2 months from the dates of receipt of the decision or order passed by the adjudicating authority. Under the proviso appended to sub-section (3A) of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, the Commissioner (Appeals) is empowered to condone the delay or to allow the filing of an appeal within a further period of one month thereafter if, he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the period of two months. Considering the cause of delay given in application as genuine, I condone the delay of 3 days and take up the appeal for decision on merits.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period FY 2014-15.

6. I find that in the SCN in question, the demand has been raised for the period FY 2014-15 based on the Income Tax Returns filed by the appellant. Except for the value of "Sales of Services under Sales / Gross Receipts from Services" provided by the Income Tax Department, no other cogent reason or justification is forthcoming from the SCN for raising the demand against the appellant. It is also not specified as to under which category of service the non-levy of service tax is alleged against the appellant. Merely because the appellant had reported receipts from services, the same cannot form the basis for arriving at the conclusion that the respondent was liable to pay service tax, which was not paid by them. In this regard, I find that CBIC had, vide Instruction dated 26.10.2021, directed that:

"It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts, may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner /Chief Commissioner (s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

6.1 In the present case, I find that letters were issued to the appellant seeking details and documents, which were allegedly not submitted by them. However, without any further inquiry or investigation, the SCN has been issued only on the basis of details received from the Income Tax department, without even specifying the category of service in respect of which service tax is sought to be levied and collected. This, in my considered view, is not a proper ground for raising of demand of service tax.

7. I also find that the appellant have also contended that the demand is barred by limitation. In this regard, I find that the due date for filing the ST-3 Returns for April, 2014 to September, 2014 was 14th November, 2014 (as extended vide Order No. 02/2014-ST dated 24.10.2014). Therefore, considering the last date of which such return was to be filed, I find that the demand for the period April, 2014 to September, 2014 is time barred as the notice was issued on 27.09.2020, beyond the prescribed period of limitation of five years. I, therefore, agree with the contention of the appellant to that extent that even if the suppression is invoked, the demand is time barred in terms of the provisions of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. Therefore, the demand on this count is also not sustainable for the period from April, 2014 to September, 2014 as, the same is barred by limitation. In this regard, I also find that the adjudicating authority has not taken into consideration the issue of limitation and confirmed the demand in toto.

7.1 For the remaining period from October, 2014 to March, 2015, the due date of filing ST-3 Return was 25th April, 2015. However, due to COVID pandemic, in terms of relaxation provision of Section 6 of Chapter V of the Taxation and Other Laws (Relaxation of Certain Provisions) Ordinance, 2020 (No.2 of 2020) dated 31.03.2020, and the CBIC Notification G.S.R. No. 418(E), dated 27-6-2020, the Central Government had extended the time limit in the taxation and other laws. In terms of said Ordinance, where the time limit specified in an Act falls during the period from 20th March, 2020 to 29th September, 2020, the same shall stand extended to 31st March, 2021. In the instant case, the due date for issuing SCN was 24th April, 2020, but the same was issued on 28th September 2020. Considering the relaxation provided vide above Ordinance in the time limit for issuance of SCN, I find that the notice covering the period from October, 2014 to March, 2015 was issued well within limitation.

8. As regard, the contention of the appellant that the impugned order was issued without conducting personal hearing, it is observed that the adjudicating authority has scheduled personal hearing by specifying 3 (three) different dates i.e. 19.02.2022, 21.02.2022 and 25.02.2022 in the single letter / notice dated 07.04.2022. The appellant has contended that they have not received any hearing notice. In this regard, I find that the adjudicating authority has given three dates of personal hearing in one notice and has considered the same as three opportunities. I also find that there is no mentioned about any adjournment sought by the appellant.

8.1 As per Section 33A(2) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, as made applicable to Service Tax vide Section 83 of the Finance Act, 1994, when a personal hearing is fixed, it is open to a party to seek time by showing sufficient cause and in such case, the adjudicating authority may grant time and adjourn the personal hearing by recording the reason in writing. Not more than three such adjournments can be granted. Since such adjournments are limited to three, the hearing would be required to be fixed on each such occasion and on every occasion when time is sought and sufficient cause is made out, the case would be adjourned to another date. However, the adjudicating authority is required to give one date a time and record his reasons for granting adjournment on each occasion. It is not permissible for the adjudicating authority to issue one consolidated notice fixing three dates of hearing, whether or not the party asks for time, as has been done in the present case.

8.2 It is further observed that by notice for personal hearing on three dates and absence of the appellant on those dates appears to have considered as grant of three adjournments by the adjudicating authority. In this regard, I find that the Section 33A(2) of the Central Excise Act, 1944 provides for grant of not more than 3 adjournments, which would envisage four dates of personal hearing and not three dates. The similar view has been taken by the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in the case of Regent Overseas Private Limited and others Vs. Union of India and others reported in 2017 (3) TMI 557 – Gujarat High.Court.

8.3 In view of the above, I find that the adjudicating authority was required to give adequate and ample opportunity to the appellant for personal hearing and it is only thereafter, the impugned order was required to be passed. Thus, I hold that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority is clearly in breach of the principles of natural justice.

9. As regard the contention of the appellant that they have not charged service tax from the service receivers, and therefore, provision of Section 67(2) will be applicable and benefit of cum duty valuation is admissible and therefore taxable value is required to be recomputed, the same may also be examined by the adjudicating authority and give appropriate finding on the same.

10. Considering the facts of the case as discussed herein above and in the interest of justice, I am of the considered view that the case is required to be remanded back to the adjudicating authority to examine the case on merits and also to consider the claim of the appellant for cum duty benefit and also for limitation issue. The appellant is directed to submit all the records and documents in support of their claim for cum duty benefit before the adjudicating authority within 15 days of the receipt of this order. The adjudicating authority shall after considering the records and documents submitted by the appellant decide the case afresh by following the principles of natural justice.

11. In view of the above discussion, I remand the matter back to the adjudicating authority to reconsider the issue a fresh and pass a speaking order after following the principles of natural justice.

12. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है ।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
