ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Mukeshkumar Shivilal Prajapati, 1, Mahavir Smruti, Society, Nr. C.P. Nagar, Ghatlodia, Ahmedabad – 380061 (hereinafter referred to as “the appellant”) against Order-in-Original No. CGST/WT07/HG/325/2022-23 dated 17.08.2022 (hereinafter referred to as “the impugned order”) passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Central GST, Division VII, Ahmedabad North (hereinafter referred to as “the adjudicating authority”).

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant is holding PAN No. AJCPP7697R. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the FY 2015-16, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 28,36,222/- during the FY 2015-16, which was reflected under the heads “Sales / Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)” or “Total amount paid / credited under Section 194C, 194I, 194H, 194J (Value from Form 26AS)” provided by the Income Tax department. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but has neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant was called upon to submit copies of Balance Sheet, Profit & Loss Account, Income Tax Return, Form 26AS, for the said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant was issued a Show Cause Notice No. CGST/A’bad North/Div-VII//AR-III/TPD/Unreg15-16/20-21/9 dated 22.12.2020 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 4,11,252/- for the period FY 2015-16, under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; and imposition of penalties under Section 77(1)(a), Section 77(1)(c), Section 77(2) & Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of un-quantified amount of Service Tax for the period FY 2016-17 to FY 2017-18 (up to Jun-17).

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated ex-parte vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 4,11,252/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period from FY 2015-16. Further (i) Penalty of Rs. 4,11,252/- was also imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1)(a) and Section 77(1)(c) of the Finance Act, 1994; and (iii) Penalty of Rs. 5,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 for not submitting documents to the department, when called for.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant have preferred the present appeal on the following grounds:

- They are a small service provider engaged in construction of residential units as a works contractor. The taxable value of services provided by the Appellant is below threshold limit prescribed under Notification No. 33/2012-ST dated 20-06-2012.
- The notice for personal hearing was issued vide letter dated 01-08-2022 scheduling personal hearing on three different dates in the matter on 01-08-2022, 03-08-2022 and 08-08-2022. The appellant was not able to attend the same on the aforesaid dates. Thereafter, no intimation for scheduling personal hearing has been issued by the Department which is violation of natural justice. The adjudicating authority without following the principal of natural justice i.e. by not providing another opportunity of being heard, confirmed the demand proposed in the SCN vide impugned order along with interest and penalty. In this regard, they have relied upon the following case laws:
 - a) IPC Packaging Company Pvt. Ltd. Vs. Addl. C.C., ICD, Bangalore [2017 (6) GSTL 256 (Kar.)]
 - b) Meenakshi Associates (P) Ltd. Vs. Commissioner of C.EX. [2009 (245) ELT 362 (Tri.-Del.)]
 - c) Lenovo India Pvt. Ltd. Vs. Commissioner of Cus., Export, Chennai [2019 (369) ELT 1349 (Tri. Chennai)]
- They further submitted that value of service portion in execution of original works was restricted to 40% of the total amount charged for works contract. In the instant case, as evident from the income tax return filed by the appellant, the total amount charged for works contract services was Rs.19,63,527/- and the 40% of the same was the taxable value of services which amounts to Rs.7,85,411/-. Further, appellant has also provided works contract services other than for execution of original works amounting to Rs.1,56,800/-. The taxable value for the same as per Rule 2A(ii)(B) of the Service Tax (Determination of value) Rules, 2006 would be 70% of the total amount charged for the works contract which amounts to Rs.1,09,760/-. Accordingly, the total value of taxable services aggregates to Rs.8,95,171/- which was well below the threshold prescribed under Notification No. 33/2012-ST dated 20-06-2012 and thus not liable to service tax. The aggregate value of taxable services provided by them has not exceeded the threshold of rupees ten lakhs during F.Y. 2015-16. Accordingly, the liability to pay service tax does not arise.

- The services provided by the appellant is not liable to tax as are covered under threshold prescribed under Notification No. 33/2012-ST dated 20-06-2022 and appellant is not liable to obtain registration. Accordingly, appellant is not required to file service tax returns and thus has not contravened the provision of Section 70 of the Act. They have not required to file service tax returns the question of imposing penalty for non filing of service tax return does not arise at all.
 - Without prejudice to above submissions and without accepting the liability, the appellant submitted that recovery cannot be initiated merely on the basis of presumption by considering the revenue receipts reported in the income tax return as a taxable service of the appellant. In this regard, they have relied upon the following case laws:
 - a) Sundaram Finance Ltd. Vs. ACIT (Supreme Court) [(2012) 10 SCC 430]
 - b) Kush Constructions Vs. CGST NACIN [2019 (24) GSTL 606 (Tri-All)]
 - c) Amrish Rameshchandra Shah Vs UOI [2021-TIOL583-HC-MUM-ST]
 - They are eligible for cum tax benefit as they have not collected service tax and they are required to pay service tax only on the basis amount received considering such amount as inclusive of tax.
 - They also submitted that extended period of limitation cannot be invoked in the instant case as the appellant has not suppressed the facts from the department when all the information sought in the income tax returns has been submitted by him. The extended period of limitation for recovery of duty not levied or not paid or short levied or short paid or erroneously refunded can only be invoked in case if the appellant found to be indulged in fraud, collusion, wilful mis-statement, suppression of facts, contravention of any provisions of the Rules made under the Act with intent to evade payment of service tax. Also, as the appellant not suppressed any facts, therefore, no penalty under Section 78 can be levied on the appellant.
4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 15.02.2023. Shri Gopal Krishna Laddha Chartered Accountant, and Ms. Anjali Bhatia, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant for personal hearing. They reiterated submission made in appeal memorandum. They stated that the taxable value of the appellant was below threshold exemption limit. They submitted copies of bank statement during the course of hearing.

I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period FY 2015-16.

6. I find that in the SCN in question, the demand has been raised for the period FY 2015-16 based on the Income Tax Returns filed by the appellant. Except for the value of "Sales of Services under Sales / Gross Receipts from Services" provided by the Income Tax Department, no other cogent reason or justification is forthcoming from the SCN for raising the demand against the appellant. It is also not specified as to under which category of service the non-levy of service tax is alleged against the appellant. Merely because the appellant had reported receipts from services, the same cannot form the basis for arriving at the conclusion that the respondent was liable to pay service tax, which was not paid by them. In this regard, I find that CBIC had, vide Instruction dated 26.10.2021, directed that:

"It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts, may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner /Chief Commissioner (s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

6.1 In the present case, I find that letters were issued to the appellant seeking details and documents, which were allegedly not submitted by them. However, without any further inquiry or investigation, the SCN has been issued only on the basis of details received from the Income Tax department, without even specifying the category of service in respect of which service tax is sought to be levied and collected. This, in my considered view, is not a valid ground for raising of demand of service tax.

7. I find that the first contention made by the appellant is that the impugned order was issued without conducting personal hearing and in violation of natural justice. In this regard, I find that the adjudicating authority has scheduled personal hearing by specifying 3 (three) different dates i.e. 01.08.2022, 03.08.2022 and 05.08.2022 in single letter / notice dated 07.07.2022. The appellant also contended that they could not attend the personal hearing and no other opportunity provided by the adjudicating authority. In this regard, I find that the adjudicating authority given three dates of personal hearing in one notice and has considered the same as three opportunities. I also find that there is no mention about any adjournment sought by the appellant.

7.1 As per Section 33A(2) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, as made applicable to Service Tax vide Section 83 of the Finance Act, 1994, when a personal hearing is fixed, it is open to a party to seek time by showing sufficient cause and in such case, the adjudicating authority may grant time and adjourn the personal hearing by recording the reason in writing. Not more than three such adjournments can be granted. Since such adjournments are limited to three, the hearing would be required to be fixed on each such occasion and on every occasion when time is sought and sufficient cause is made out, the case would be adjourned to another date. However, the adjudicating authority is required to give one date a time and record his reasons for granting adjournment on each occasion. It is not permissible for the adjudicating authority to issue one consolidated notice fixing three dates of hearing, whether or not the party asks for time, as has been done in the present case.

7.2 It is further observed that by notice for personal hearing on three dates and absence of the appellant on those dates appears to have considered as grant of three adjournments by the adjudicating authority. In this regard, I find that the Section 33A(2) of the Central Excise Act, 1944 provides for grant of not more than 3 adjournments, which would envisage four dates of personal hearing and not three dates. The similar view has been taken by the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in the case of Regent Overseas Private Limited and others Vs. Union of India and others reported in 2017 (3) TMI 557 – Gujarat High Court.

7.3 In view of the above, I find that the adjudicating authority was required to give adequate and ample opportunity to the appellant for personal hearing and it is only thereafter, the impugned order was required to be passed. Thus, it is held that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority is clearly in breach of the principles of natural justice.

8. In view of the above discussion, I hold that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, without following principles of natural justice, is not legal and correct. I am of the considered view that the same is required to be decided a fresh.

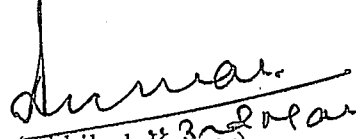

9. The appellant is directed to submit all the records and documents in support of their claim for exemption from Service Tax before the adjudicating authority within 15 days of the receipt of this order. The adjudicating authority shall after considering the records and documents submitted by the appellant decide the case afresh by following the principles of natural justice.

10. In view of the above discussion, I remand the matter back to the adjudicating authority to reconsider the issue a fresh and pass a speaking order after following the principles of natural justice.

11. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
