एवं सेंट

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Ramesh Shantibhai Parmar, A-403, Ganesh Residency, Dehgam-Naroda Road, Nava Naroda, Ahmedabad – 382330 (hereinafter referred to as "the appellant") against Order-in-Original No. CGST/WT07/HG/282/2022-23 dated 17.08.2022 (hereinafter referred to as "the impugned order") passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Central GST, Division VII, Ahmedabad North (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant is holding PAN No. AREPP0029P. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the FY 2015-16 & FY 2016-17, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 19,86,401/- during the FY 2015-16 and an income of Rs. 20,01,638/- during the FY 2016-17, which was reflected under the heads "Sales / Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)" or "Total amount paid / credited under Section 194C, 194I, 194H, 194J (Value from Form 26AS)" filed with the Income Tax department. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but has neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant was called upon to submit copies of Balance Sheet, Profit & Loss Account, Income Tax Return, Form 26AS, for the said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant was issued a Show Cause Notice No. CGST/AR-V/Div-VII/A'bad North/TPDUR15-16/69/20-21dated 27.09.2020 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 5,88,273/- for the period FY 2015-16 & FY 2016-17, under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; and imposition of penalties under Section 77(1)(a), Section 77(1)(c), Section 77(2) & Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of un-quantified amount of Service Tax for the period FY 2017-18 (up to Jun-17).

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated ex-parte vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 5,88,273/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period from FY 2015-16 & FY 2016-17. Further (i) Penalty of Rs. 5,88,273/- was also imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1)(a) and Section 77(1)(c) of the Finance Act, 1994; and (iii) Penalty of Rs.

5,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 for not submitting documents to the department when called for.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant have preferred the present appeal on the following grounds:

- The appellant was carrying on electric labour / trading business from the premises 41/406, Chandrabhaga Society, New Vadaj, Ahmedabad.
- Total income mentioned in the impugned order is combined value of Trading activity as well as labour activity both. They have already explained in reply furnished in show cause notice that while filing income tax return, their consultant has occurred an error and shown all income as income from services only, instead of giving breakup for income from sale of goods and income from sale of service.
- They are not providing only labour service, they provided works contract service as well as trading of goods as per the requirement of their customers.
- During the FY 2015-16, their income from sale of goods was Rs. 11,43,956/- and income from labour work was Rs. 8,50,600/-, and during the FY 2016-17, their income from sale of goods was Rs. 11,93,780/- and income from labour work was Rs. 8,15,850/-.
- Their taxable turnover from service had not crossing threshold limit of Rs. 10 lakh, therefore, no service tax liability arises and they were not required to pay any service tax.
- They have already replied to SCN along with Profit & Loss Accounts, sample sales invoices, etc., however, the adjudicating authority not considered the same while issuing the impugned order.
- As far as matters regarding non attending Personal Hearing, they submitted that they have not received any notice for personal hearing.
- They submitted copies of invoice of goods as well as labour and Profit & Loss Accounts for the FY 2015-16 & FY 2016-17.

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 16.03.2023. Shri Hiren Pathak, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant for personal hearing. He reiterated submission made in appeal memorandum. He also submitted a compilation of documents during the hearing containing Form 26AS for the FY 2015-16 & FY 2016-17, Profit & Loss Account for the FY 2015-16 & FY 2016-17 and sample copies of invoices issued by the appellant during the FY 2014-15 to FY 2017-18.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand of service tax against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period FY 2015-16 & FY 2016-17.

6. I find that in the SCN in question, the demand has been raised for the period FY 2015-16 & FY 2016-17 based on the Income Tax Returns filed by the appellant. Except for the value of "Sales of Services under Sales / Gross Receipts from Services" provided by the Income Tax Department, no other cogent reason or justification is forthcoming from the SCN for raising the demand against the appellant. It is also not specified as to under which category of service the non-levy of service tax is alleged against the appellant. Merely because the appellant had reported receipts from services, the same cannot form the basis for arriving at the conclusion that the respondent was liable to pay service tax, which was not paid by them. In this regard, I find that CBIC had, vide Instruction dated 26.10.2021, directed that:

"It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts, may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner /Chief Commissioner (s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

6.1 In the present case, I find that letters were issued to the appellant seeking details and documents, which were allegedly not submitted by them. However, without any further inquiry or investigation, the SCN has been issued only on the basis of details received from the Income Tax department, without even specifying the category of service in respect of which service tax is sought to be levied and collected. This, in my considered view, is not a valid ground for raising of demand of service tax.

7. It is also observed that the appellant contended that they have submitted reply to the show cause notice vide letter dated 16.01.2021 already explaining that their total income combined value of Trading activity as well as labour activity. Their consultant has made an error and shown all income as income from services only while filing Income Tax Return. However, I find that the adjudicating authority has not taken into consideration reply filed by the appellant and has passed impugned order ex-parte in backdrop of the situation when the SCN it self was issued without even specifying the category of service and merely on the basis of Income Tax data.

8. As regard, the other contention of the appellant that the impugned order was issued without conducting personal hearing, it is observed that the adjudicating authority has scheduled personal hearing by specifying 3 (three) different dates, i.e., 05.08.2022, 08.08.2022 and 10.08.2022 in the single letter / notice dated 01.08.2022. The appellant have contended that the said letter was not received by them, and therefore, they could not attend the personal hearing.

8.1 In this regard, I find that the adjudicating authority has given three dates of personal hearing in one notice and has considered the same as three opportunities. As per Section 33A(2) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, as made applicable to Service Tax vide Section 83 of the Finance Act, 1994, when a personal hearing is fixed, it is open to a party to seek time by showing sufficient cause and in such case, the adjudicating authority may grant time and adjourn the personal hearing by recording the reason in writing. Not more than three such adjournments can be granted. Since such adjournments are limited to three, the hearing would be required to be fixed on each such occasion and on every occasion when time is sought and sufficient cause is made out, the case would be adjourned to another date. However, the adjudicating authority is required to give one date a time and record his reasons for granting adjournment on each occasion. It is not permissible for the adjudicating authority to issue one consolidated notice fixing three dates of hearing, whether or not the party asks for time, as has been done in the present case.

8.2 It is further observed that by giving notice for personal hearing on three dates and absence of the appellant on those dates appears to have been considered as grant of three adjournments by the adjudicating authority. In this regard, I find that the Section 33A(2) of the Central Excise Act, 1944 provides for grant of not more than 3 adjournments, which would envisage four dates of personal hearing and not three dates. The similar view has been taken by the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in the case of Regent Overseas Private Limited and others Vs. Union of India and others reported in 2017 (3) TMI 557 – Gujarat High Court.

8.3 In view of the above, I find that the adjudicating authority was required to give adequate and ample opportunity to the appellant for personal hearing and it is only thereafter, the impugned order was required to be passed. Thus, it is held that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority is clearly in breach of the principles of natural justice. The same is not legally sustainable and is required to be set aside.

9. I also find that the appellant have submitted sample copies of invoices issued by them during the FY 2014-15 to FY 2017-18 during the course of personal hearing, which was not produced by them to the adjudicating authority during the adjudication process. As ther matter involves reconciliation of income with relevant documents, it would be in the interest of justice that the matter is remanded back to the adjudicating authority for causing necessary reconciliation and examine the contention of the appellant. The appellant is directed to submit all the records and documents in support of their claim before the adjudicating authority within 15 days of the receipt of this order. The adjudicating authority shall after considering the records and documents submitted by the appellant decide the case afresh by following the principles of natural justice.

10. Accordingly, I set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal filed by the appellant by way of remanding the case back to the adjudicating authority to decide the same afresh.

अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है ।
The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
