ORDER IN APPEAL

This appeal has been filed under Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") by M/s ACRON ENTERPRISE, 2nd Floor, Manguba Bhavan, Near Memco Bridge, Omkar Char Rasta, Naroda Road, Ahmedabad - 380025 (hereinafter also referred to as "the appellant") against the Order No.ZA2401210485051 dated 11.01.2021 (hereinafter referred to as "the impugned order") passed by the Superintendent, Central Goods and Service Tax Range-II, Division-II, Ahmedabad North (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority/Proper Officer").

2. Brief facts of the case are that the Proper Officer has cancelled the GSTIN:24AKPPP8256J1ZH of M/s ACRON ENTERPRISE, 2nd Floor, Manguba Bhavan, Near Memco Bridge, Omkar Char Rasta, Naroda Road, Ahmedabad - 380025 due to reason that as the appellant has not filed reply and not attended P.H.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order dated 11.01.2021, the appellant has filed the appeal on 13.07.2021, the delay of 92 days from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of CGST Act, 2017. Further, the appellant has submitted letters dated 12.08.2021 & 23.08.2021 vide which it is requested to process the appeal application without giving opportunities of being heard on priority basis by considering related document submitted by the appellant and available with this office. The appellant has submitted that they have filed GST returns till November-2020. Appellant has further submitted that due to unexpected financial crisis that followed pursuant to the COVID-19 pandemic they could not file the return in time; that however, it is pertinent to note that as on the date of order cancelling the registration of the appellant i.e. 11.01.2021, no returns were pending for filing. The appellant has further submitted that they have already paid the GST due for the period Decemebr-2020 to June-2021 and also prepared and annexed a manual return in the Form GSTR-3B. They have also paid GST liability including late fees and Interest for the period of December-2020 to June-2021. The appellant has mentioned that, if GSTN is restored before 31st August, 2021 then they can file their pending returns till 31.08.2021 with uniform late filing fee and interest (as the GST Amnesty Scheme issued on 1st June, 2021 by CBIC vide Notification No. 19/2021-Central Tax will be expired on 31st August, 2021).

4. I have gone through the facts of the case and the written submissions made by the appellant. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case are (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time- limit and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation by the proper officer.

5. First of all, I would like to take up the issue of filing the appeal and before deciding the issue of filing the appeal on merits, it is imperative that the statutory provisions be gone through, which are reproduced, below:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(2) .....

(3) .....

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

6. I observed that in the instant case the appeal has been filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.

Further, in the above context, I find that in terms of the Hon'ble Supreme Court judgment dated 23.03.2020, wherein the Apex Court taking suo motu cognizance of the situation arising due to COVID-19 pandemic has extended the period of limitation prescribed under the law with effect from 15.03.2020 till further orders. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide order dated 27.04.2021 has restored the order dated 23rd March 2020 thereby directing that the period(s) of limitations, as prescribed under any General or Special Laws in respect of all judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings, whether condonable or not, shall stand extended till further orders from 15.03.2020.

In the above context, I also find that the CBIC, New Delhi has issued Notification No.35/2020-Central Tax dated 3rd April 2020 and notified as under:-

(i) where, any time limit for completion or compliance of any action, by any authority or by any person, has been specified in, or prescribed or notified under the said Act, which falls during the period from the 20th day of March, 2020 to the 29th day of June, 2020, and where completion or compliance of such action has not been made within such time, then, the time-limit for completion or compliance of such action, shall be extended up to the 30th day of June, 2020, including for the purposes of -

(a) completion of any proceeding or passing of any order or issuance of any notice, intimation, notification, sanction or approval or such other action, by whatever name called, by any authority, commission or tribunal, by whatever name called, under the provisions of the Acts stated above; or

(b) filing of any appeal, reply or application or furnishing of any report, document, return, statement or such other record, by whatever name called, under the provisions of the Acts stated above;

Further, CBIC, New Delhi vide Notification No.55/2020-Central Tax dated 27th June,2020 has make the following further amendment in the Notification of the Govt of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue), No.35/2020-Central Tax dated 3rd April,2020 published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part-II, Section 3, Sub section (i) vide number GSR 235(E) dated 3rd April,2020 namely:-

In the said notification, in the first paragraph, in clause (i), -

(i) for the words, figures and letters "29th day of June, 2020", the words, figures and letters "30th day of August, 2020" shall be substituted;

(ii) for the words, figures and letters "30th day of June, 2020", the words, figures and letters "31st day of August, 2020" shall be substituted.

I also find that the CBIC, New Delhi has issued Circular No. 157/13/121-GST dated 20th July, 2021 and clarified as under:-

4(c):- Appeals by taxpayers/ tax authorities against any quasi- judicial order:-
Wherever any appeal is required to filed before Joint/ Additional Commissioner (Appeals), Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, Tribunal and various courts against any quasi-judicial order or where a proceeding for revision or rectification of any order is required to be undertaken, the time line for the same would stand extended as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court's order.

5. In other words, the extension of timelines granted by Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its Order dated 27.04.2021 is applicable in respect of any appeal which is required to be filed before Joint/ Additional Commissioner (Appeals), Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, Tribunal and various courts against any quasi-judicial order or where proceeding for revision or rectification of any order is required to be undertaken, and is not applicable to any other proceedings under GST Laws.

In view of above and also looking into the Covid-19 pandemic situation in the instant matter, I am inclined to condone the delay of filing of appeal. Accordingly, I am proceeded to decide the case on merits.

7. I have gone through the facts of the case and the written submissions made by the appellant. I find that the adjudicating authority/proper officer has cancelled the registration with effect from 12.12.2020 as the appellant has neither replied to the Show Cause Notice dated 03.12.2020 issued by the department nor attended Personal Hearing in connection with non filing of Returns. On going through the records produced before me, I find that the proper officer has issued the Order of cancellation of registration of Appellant on 11.01.2021 effective from 02.12.2020. Whereas, on verifying the details available online, I find that the status of GSTR3B Returns shown as filed on 09.12.2020 for the period upto November-2020. Further, in the order of cancellation of registration it is mentioned that "this has reference to your reply dated 12.12.2020" and simultaneously the registration is cancelled on the ground of not filing reply. So, it is not justified.

In view of above, I find that the order of cancellation of registration passed on 11.01.2021 is not just proper and sustainable as on the said date no returns were pending for filing by the appellant. Further, the appellant has stated that they have paid the GST liability including late fees and Interest for the period of December-2020 to June-2021. Further I find that, the appellant has submitted the copy of GSTR-3B return for the period December-2020 to June-2021. Further, I find that the provisions of revocation of cancellation of registration when the same is cancelled by the proper officer on suo moto basis are contained in Section 30 of the CGST Act, 2017 and Rule 23 of the CGST Rules, 2017. Therefore, I find it pertinent to refer Section 30 and Rule 23 as under under: -

SECTION 30. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order :

Provided that such period may, on sufficient cause being shown, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended, -

(a) by the Additional Commissioner or the Joint Commissioner, as the case may be, for a period not exceeding thirty days;

(b) by the Commissioner, for a further period not exceeding thirty days, beyond the period specified in clause (a).]

(2) The proper officer may, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, by order, either revoke cancellation of the registration or reject the application :

Provided that the application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall not be rejected unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The revocation of cancellation of registration under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be a revocation of cancellation of registration under this Act.

RULE 23. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1) A registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may submit an application for revocation of cancellation of registration, in FORM GST REG-21*, to such proper officer, within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order of cancellation of registration at the common portal, either directly or through a Facilitation Centre notified by the Commissioner :

Provided that no application for revocation shall be filed, if the registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns :

Provided further that all returns due for the period from the date of the order of cancellation of registration till the date of the order of revocation of cancellation of registration shall be furnished by the said person within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration :

Provided also that where the registration has been cancelled with retrospective effect, the registered person shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.]

(2) (a) Where the proper officer is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that there are sufficient grounds for revocation of cancellation of registration, he shall revoke the cancellation of registration by an order in FORM GST REG-22* within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the application and communicate the same to the applicant.

(b) The proper officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, under circumstances other than those specified in clause (a), by an order in FORM GST REG-05*, reject the application for revocation of cancellation of registration and communicate the same to the applicant.

(3) The proper officer shall, before passing the order referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (2), issue a notice in FORM GST REG-23* requiring the applicant to show cause as to why the application submitted for revocation under sub-rule (1) should not be rejected and the applicant shall furnish the reply within a period of seven working days from the date of the service of the notice in FORM GST REG-24***.

(4) Upon receipt of the information or clarification in FORM GST REG-24*, the proper officer shall proceed to dispose of the application in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of such information or clarification from the applicant.

8. Further, I find that Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs, New Delhi has clarified the issue vide circular No. 99/18/2019-GST dated 23.04.2019. Para 3 of said circular read as under:

3. First proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules provides that if the registration has been cancelled on account of failure of the registered person to furnish returns, no application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall be filed, unless such returns are furnished and any amount in terms of such returns is paid. Thus, where the registration has been cancelled with effect from the date of order of cancellation of registration, all returns due till the date of such cancellation are required to be furnished before the application for revocation can be filed. Further, in such cases, in terms of the second proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules, all returns required to be furnished in respect of the period from the date of order of cancellation till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration have to be furnished within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of revocation.

9. On going through the records/submissions, I find that the appellant has filed returns before the date of order of cancellation of registration. Hence, I find that the appellant has substantially complied with the above said provisions in the instant case, thus the order of cancellation of registration so challenged before this appellate authority is not sustainable and which requires to be quashed. Therefore, I am of the opinion that the registration of appellant may be considered for revocation by the proper officer subject to due compliance of the conditions by the appellant under Rule 23(1) of CGST Rules, 2017. Accordingly, I allow the appeal of the appellant and order to the proper officer to consider the revocation application of the appellant after due verification of payment particulars of tax, penalty, late fee, interest and status of returns.

10. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
