:: ORDER-IN-APPEAL ::

M/s. Pharmakem, Shed No.73/74, Silver Indl. Estate, Sarkhej Bavla Road, Moraiya, Sanand, Ahmedabad - 382213 (hereinafter referred to as 'appellant') has filed present appeal against Order of rejection of application for revocation of cancellation of GST registration issued in form GST REG-05 bearing reference No. ZA240221137864R dated 09.02.2021 (hereinafter referred to as 'impugned order'), issued by the Deputy Commissioner, CGST Division IV, Ahmedabad North, Ghatak 11 (Ahmedabad) (hereinafter referred to as 'adjudicating authority').

2. The brief facts of the case are that appellant was registered under GST, having registration number as 24ABQJ3441F1ZT. The appellant was issued a show cause notice dated 09.08.2019 in the form of GST REG-17 asking as to why registration should not be cancelled for not filing returns for a continuous period of six months. Subsequently, the said SCN was confirmed vide order no. ZA241019036116W dated 14.10.2019 cancelling GST registration of the appellant w.e.f. 14.10.2019. Consequently, the appellant filed an application for revocation of cancellation of registration on 22.01.2021 which was rejected by the impugned order. The rejection was done on the reason that the appellant had not replied to the notice dated 30.01.2021 within time specified therein, which was issued to them asking as to why their application for revocation of cancellation of registration should not be rejected.

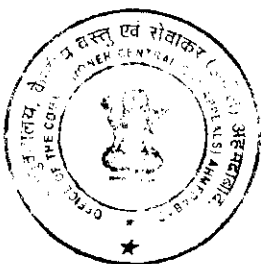

3. Being aggrieved, the appellant filed the present appeal against the impugned order, inter alia, contending that:-

(i) That appellant could not file the return and tax in time due to negligence on his part and now to settle the default he had filed all returns upto October – 2019 and settled all liabilities till date.

(ii) That his son met with an accident and due to fracture in legs he got admitted, he got SCN for rejection of revocation application during same time, due to said reason unable to reply to department within mentioned time.

(iii) That appellant has filed all the returns and paid tax and late fees till the effective date of cancellation of registration number.

4. Personal hearing in the matter was held through virtual mode on 23.08.2021. Mr. Arvind M. Chaudhary, authorized representative of the appellant attended the hearing. He reiterated the grounds of appeal memorandum and requested to consider the same and decide the case on the basis of merit.

Discussion & Findings

5. I have gone through the records of the case, the impugned order, and the grounds of appeal as well as oral submission of the appellant. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order is correct, legal and proper or not.

6. I find that the appellant had obtained registration under the CGST Act, but had not filed returns for more than 6 consecutive months. Therefore, the appellant's registration was cancelled under provision of Section 29(2)(c) of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017(hereinafter referred to as 'CGST Act'), on suo-moto basis by the jurisdictional proper officer. On cancellation of registration, the appellant applied for revocation of the same before the adjudicating authority. But, the same was rejected vide the impugned order citing the reason of non-submission of any reply by the appellant in response of Show Cause Notice dated 30.01.2021 issued consequent to their application for revocation of cancellation of registration.

7. Looking into facts of the case, I find it germane to refer the provisions of revocation of cancellation of registration. The relevant Section 30 and Rule 23 are reproduced as under;

Section 30: Revocation of cancellation of registration.

(1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order.

Provided that such period may, on sufficient cause being shown, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended,'

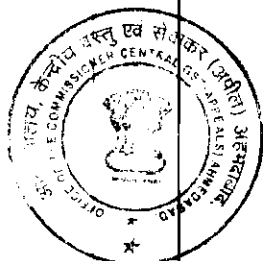

(a) by the Additional Commissioner or the Joint Commissioner, as the case may be, for a period not exceeding thirty days;

(b) by the Commissioner, for a further period not exceeding thirty days, beyond the period specified in clause (a)

Provided that the registered person who was served notice under sub-section (2) of section 29 in the manner as provided in clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 169 and who could not reply to the said notice, thereby resulting in cancellation of his registration certificate and is hence unable to file application for revocation of cancellation of registration under sub-section (1) of section 30 of the Act, against such order passed up to 31.03.2019, shall be allowed to file application for revocation of cancellation of the registration not later than 22.07.2019.

(2) The proper officer may, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, by order, either revoke cancellation of the registration or reject the application:

Provided that the application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall not be rejected unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The revocation of cancellation of registration under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be a revocation of cancellation of registration under this Act.

RULE 23. Revocation of cancellation of registration :-

(1) A registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may submit an application for revocation of cancellation of registration, in FORM GST REG-21, to such proper officer, within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order of cancellation of registration at the common portal, either directly or through a Facilitation Centre notified by the Commissioner:

Provided that no application for revocation shall be filed, if the registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns.

Provided further that all returns due for the period from the date of the order of cancellation of registration till the date of the order of revocation of cancellation of registration shall be furnished by the said person within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration:

Provided also that where the registration has been cancelled with retrospective effect, the registered person shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.

(2) (a) Where the proper officer is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that there are sufficient grounds for revocation of cancellation of registration, he shall revoke the cancellation of registration by an order in FORM GST REG-22 within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the application and communicate the same to the applicant.

(b) The proper officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, under circumstances other than those specified in clause (a), by an order in FORM GST REG-05, reject the application for revocation of cancellation of registration and communicate the same to the applicant.

(3) The proper officer shall, before passing the order referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (2), issue a notice in FORM GST REG-23 requiring the applicant to show cause as to why the application submitted for revocation under sub-rule (1) should not be rejected and the applicant shall furnish the reply within a period of seven working days from the date of the service of the notice in FORM GST REG-24.

(4) Upon receipt of the information or clarification in FORM GST REG-24, the proper officer shall proceed to dispose of the application in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of such information or clarification from the applicant.

8. On perusal of above Section 30(1), I find that subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order. Further, as per first proviso to Rule 23(1) of the CGST Rules, no such application can be filed in cases where registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns. Furthermore, as per third proviso to the said rule, it is provided also that where the registration has been cancelled with retrospective effect, the registered person shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.

8.1. I note that registration of the appellant has been cancelled w.e.f. 14.10.2019. I also note that the appellant had filed returns upto tax period October 2019. It is obvious that the system does not allow for filing returns for the period falling after the date of cancellation of registration. Therefore, third proviso to Rule 23(1) mandates filing of returns for such periods within 30 days from date of revocation of cancellation of registration.

9. Further, I find that as per Rule 23(2)(b), the adjudicating authority was required to record the reasons in writing before rejecting the application for revocation of cancellation of registration. I also find that such reason has been recorded as the appellant has not replied to the Show Cause Notice dated 30.01.2021. I find that the registration was cancelled due to non-filing of returns for consecutive 6 months. The appellant has pleaded that he failed to reply to department within mentioned time as his son was admitted in hospital and during same time he got SCN for rejection of revocation application. The appellant has requested to condone his above defaults and approve the application of revocation of cancellation at the earliest. At the same time, the appellant has declared that he has cleared his tax liability for the period from November-2019 to December-2020 by paying Tax, Late Fee and Interest.

10. Looking into the facts involved in the matter, I find that the appellant has filed return upto date of cancellation of registration and following the guideline of proviso to Rule 23(1) of the CGST Rules, the appellant is ready to furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration. Therefore, I am of the opinion that the appellant should not be made to suffer any more. Accordingly, I direct the adjudicating authority to take necessary steps to revoke the GST registration of the appellant.

Needless to say, the appellant shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration. Further, payment particulars (including tax liability, interest, penalty & late fee etc.,) and the status of returns filed may be verified by the concerned authority having power to revoke the cancelled registration. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is allowed in above terms.

11. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

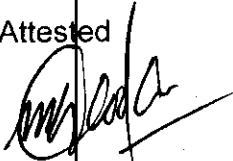

11. The appeals filed by the appellants stand disposed of in above terms.
