ORDER-IN-APPEALBrief facts of the case:-

M/s Paresh Panchal (Trade Name :- Trishna Engineering Works) (GSTIN-24BXQPP1650P1ZT), 125/2, Diamond Park, Near Gayatri School, Nikol, Ahmedabad-382350, Gujarat (hereinafter referred to as 'the Appellant') has filed the present appeal against Order No. ZA240121019972X, dated 05.01.2021 (hereinafter referred to as 'the impugned order'), for Cancellation of Registration issued by the Superintendent, CGST, Range-IV, Division-II [Naroda Road], Ahmedabad-North Commissionerate (hereinafter referred to as 'the adjudicating authority').

2. Briefly stated the fact of the case is that the appellant was registered under GSTIN 24BXQPP1650P1ZT. The appellant was issued Show Cause Notice dated 25.12.2020 for cancellation of their registration due to failure to furnish returns for a continuous period of six months. The adjudicating authority vide the impugned order dated 05.01.2021 ordered for cancellation of registration with effect from 23-12-2020 on the ground that the appellant has not filed reply and not attended personal hearing.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order the appellant filed the present appeal online on 25.08.2022 (submitted physically to this office on dated 08.12.2022) for revocation of cancellation of their GST Registration Number, wherein, inter-alia, contending that

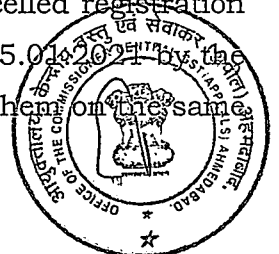

- (i) due to heavy loss in business during pandemic not able to file monthly returns;
- (ii) now, they are financially stable;
- (iii) requested for revocation of cancelled GST registration;

Personal Hearing :

3. Personal hearing in the case was held on 31.01.2023. Shri Vishal Acharya, Tax Practitioner / Chartered Accountant, appeared in person on behalf of the 'Appellant' as authorized representative. They have asked for 05 (five) working days to submit additional information, which is duly granted, but no submission made till date.

Discussion& findings:

4. I have gone through the facts of the case, the impugned order and the grounds of appeal as well as written submissions of the appellant. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time limit; and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation / restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer. I find that the impugned order was issued on 05.01.2021 by the adjudicating authority and the said order was also communicated to them on the same day i.e on 05.01.2021. It is further observed that the appellant has filed the present appeal online on 25.08.2022 and submitted GST APL-01 along with certified copy of the impugned order on 08.12.2022.

5. I further find it relevant to go through the relevant statutory provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017, which is reproduced as under:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month."

5.1 Accordingly, I observed that the Appellant was required to file appeal within 3 months from the receipt of the impugned order dated 05.01.2021. However, in the instant case the appellant has filed the present appeal on 08.12.2022 i.e. after a lapse of a period more than one and half year (1 ½ year) from the due date. Further, I also find that in terms of provisions of Section 107(4) ibid, the appellate authority has powers to condone the delay of one month in filing of appeal over and above the prescribed period of three months as mentioned above, if sufficient cause is shown. Accordingly, I find that there is an inordinate delay of more than one and half year (1 ½ year) in filing the appeal over and above the normal period of three months. Thus, I find that the present appeal has been filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under the Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 cannot be entertained.

5.2 I further find it relevant to go through the relevant statutory provisions of Rule 108 of the CGST Rules, 2017, which is reproduced as under:

"RULE 108. Appeal to the Appellate Authority. — (1) An appeal to the Appellate Authority under sub-section (1) of section 107 shall be filed in FORM GST APL-01, along with the relevant documents, either electronically or otherwise as may be notified by the Commissioner, and a provisional acknowledgement shall be issued to the appellant immediately.

(2) The grounds of appeal and the form of verification as contained in FORM GST APL-01 shall be signed in the manner specified in rule 26.

(3) A certified copy of the decision or order appealed against shall be submitted within seven days of filing the appeal under sub-rule (1) and a final acknowledgement, indicating appeal number shall be issued thereafter in FORM GST APL-02 by the Appellate Authority or an officer authorised by him in this behalf:

Provided that where the certified copy of the decision or order is submitted within seven days from the date of filing the FORM GST APL-01, the date of filing of the appeal shall be the date of the issue of the provisional acknowledgement and where the said copy is submitted after seven days, the date of filing of the appeal shall be the date of the submission of such copy.*

Explanation. -For the provisions of this rule, the appeal shall be treated as filed only when the final acknowledgement, indicating the appeal number, is issued."

5.3 On plain reading of the Rule 108 of CGST Rules, 2017 it is amply clear that the appellant has to submit the certified copies of the decisions or orders appealed against within seven days of filing the appeal under sub-rule (1) and a final acknowledgement, indicating appeal number has to be issued thereafter in FORM GST APL-02 by the Appellate Authority. Rule further provided that where the certified copy of the decision or order is submitted within seven days from the date of filing the FORM GST APL-01*, the date of filing of the appeal shall be the date of the issue of the provisional acknowledgement and where the said certified copy of the decision or order is submitted after seven days, the date of filing of the appeal shall be the date of the submission of such copy.

In view of the above provisions, I, accordingly, observed that the appellant has failed to submit the certified copy of decision or order within the period as stipulated under Rule 108 of the CGST Rules, 2017 and there was an inordinate delay in filing an appeal, I find that the present appeal has been filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under the CGST Act, 2017 / CGST Rules, 2017 and hence cannot be entertained.

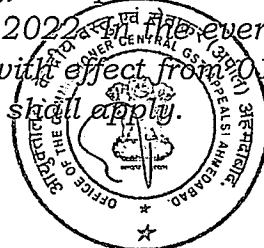

5.4 I further find that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has passed order on 10.01.2022 in matter of Miscellaneous Application No. 21 of 2022 in MA 665/2021, in SMW(C) No. 3 of 2020. The relevant para No. 5 (I) & 5 (III) of said order is reproduced as under:

5. Taking into consideration the arguments advanced by learned counsel and the impact of the surge of the virus on public health and adversities faced by litigants in the prevailing conditions, we deem it appropriate to dispose of the M.A. No. 21 of 2022 with the following directions:

I. The order dated 23.03.2020 is restored and in continuation of the subsequent orders dated 08.03.2021, 27.04.2021 and 23.09.2021, it is directed that the period from 15.03.2020 till 28.02.2022 shall stand excluded for the purposes of limitation as may be prescribed under any general or special laws in respect of all judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings.

II.

III In cases where the limitation would have expired during the period between 15.03.2020 till 28.02.2022, notwithstanding the actual balance period of limitation remaining, all persons shall have a limitation period of 90 days from 01.03.2022. In the event the actual balance period of limitation remaining, with effect from 01.03.2022 is greater than 90 days, that longer period shall apply.

5.5 Further, I also find that the CBIC, New Delhi has issued Circular No. 157/13/2021-GST dated 20th July, 2021 and clarified as under:-

4(c) Appeals by taxpayers/ tax authorities against any quasi-judicial order:-

Wherever any appeal is required to be filed before Joint/ Additional Commissioner (Appeals), Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, Tribunal and various courts against any quasi-judicial order or where a proceeding for revision or rectification of any order is required to be undertaken, the time line for the same would stand extended as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court's order.

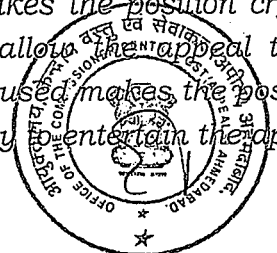

5. In other words, the extension of timelines granted by Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its Order dated 27.04.2021 is applicable in respect of any appeal which is required to be filed before Joint/ Additional Commissioner (Appeals), Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, Tribunal and various courts against any quasi-judicial order or where proceeding for revision or rectification of any order is required to be undertaken, and is not applicable to any other proceedings under GST Laws.

6. Looking to the above, I find in the present case that the period of limitation of 90 days as per Hon'ble Supreme Court's Order dated 10-1-2022 in suo-moto writ petition SMW(C) NO.3 of 2020 in MA No.665/2021 has also already been completed on 29.06.2022 (even if, considering one month condonation period) and hence, the present case would not be eligible for the relaxation / extension granted by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in respect of period(s) of limitation as mentioned above from the date on which the said decision or impugned order is communicated to such person/ appellant. Accordingly, I find that the further proceedings in case of the present appeal can be taken up for consideration strictly as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act, 2017.

7. It is also observed that the appellant has not submitted any cogent ground for such inordinate delay of more than one and half year (1 ½ year) in filing the appeal. I find that this appellate authority is a creature of the statute and has to act as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act. This appellate authority, therefore, cannot condone the delay beyond the period permissible under the CGST Act. When legislature has intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning further delay of only one month, this appellate authority cannot go beyond the power vested by the legislature. My views are supported by the following case laws:

- (i) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Singh Enterprises reported at 2008 (221) E.L.T.163 (S.C.) has held as under:

“8. ...The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only upto 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days period."

- (ii) In the case of Makjai Laboratories Pvt Ltd reported at 2011 (274) E.L.T. 48 (Bom.), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that the Commissioner (Appeals) cannot condone delay beyond further period of 30 days from initial period of 60 days and that provisions of Limitation Act, 1963 is not applicable in such cases as Commissioner (Appeals) is not a Court.
- (iii) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of Delta Impex reported at 2004 (173) E.L.T. 449 (Del) held that the Appellate authority has no jurisdiction to extend limitation even in a "suitable" case for a further period of more than thirty days.

8. I find that the provisions of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Act, 2017 are pari materia with the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 and Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and hence, the above judgments would be squarely applicable to the present appeal also.

9. By respectfully following the above judgments & provisions of law, I hold that this appellate authority cannot condone the delay beyond the period as prescribed under Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 / Rule 108 of CGST Rules, 2017 as well as the appeal is filed beyond the extension of time limit as provided by the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide order dated 10.01.2022. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is required to be dismissed on the grounds of limitation as not filed within the prescribed time limit. In view of the above discussion and findings, I reject the present appeal filed by the appellant on time limitation factor.

10. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
