ORDER-IN-APPEAL

BRIEF FACTS OF THE CASE :

M/s. Gopi Texfab Private Limited, 672/5, Bombay Market Cross Lane, Railwaypura, Ahmedabad : 380 001 (hereinafter referred to as "the appellant"), holding GSTIN 24AAFCG6065M1ZB has filed appeal against Order-In-Original No. GST/02/Dem/AC/2022-23/HNM, dated 13.06.2022 (hereinafter referred to as the "impugned order") passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST, Division-II [Naroda Road], Ahmedabad-North Commissionerate (hereinafter referred to as the "adjudicating authority").

2. The facts leading to this case are that the officers from the Directorate General of Goods and Services Tax Intelligence, Ahmedabad Zonal Unit [AZU], Ahmedabad (hereinafter referred to as 'DGGI') visited the business premises of the appellant on 05.02.2018. During the visit of officers of DGGI, it was noticed that the appellant had collected GST from their customers / clients, however, the appellant had not filed the prescribed returns i.e GSTR-1 and GSTR-3B for the period from July-2017 to December-2017 and also failed to deposit such tax collected to the Govt. exchequer for the period from July-2017 to December- 2017, GST liability was worked out to Rs. 23,23,696/-, therefore, DGGI initiated proceeding by issuing a Show Cause Notice F. No. DGGI / AZU/ Gr. A/ 36-12 / 2020-21, dated 29.05.2020 demanding GST amount of Rs. 23,23,696/- (CGST Rs. 11,52,782/- and SGST Rs. 11,52,782/-) under Section 74(1) read with Section 76(2) of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 and Gujarat Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (herein after referred to as the 'CGST Act, 2017/GGST Act, 2017' and collectively as the 'GST Acts, 2017') read with Section 20 of the IGST Act, 2017. The appellant had discharged their GST liability fully through Input Tax Credit (ITC) and paid Rs.23,23,696/- and filed GST returns viz. GSTR-1 on 08.03.2018 and GSTR-3B on 03.03.2018 for the period July-2017 to December-2017. On verification of the ITC availed and utilized by them, it was observed that the some part of the payments to the suppliers were not made in time i.e within 180 days of purchase. However, the appellant made payments to their suppliers on a continuous basis as per availability of fund, hence, the stipulated period of 180 days for making payment to the suppliers had been exceeded for some part of payment. The appellant received the inward supplies in the month of September, 2017 worth Rs. 7,26,59,993/- (inclusive of GST) from M/s. Bansal Multiflex Limited, out of which Rs. 5,70,60,418/- was outstanding on 01.04.2018. Therefore, as per proviso to Section 16(2) of the Acts read with Rule 37 of the CGST Rules & GGST Rules 2017 and read with Section 20 of the IGST Act, 2017, the ITC availed by the appellant on supplies in respect of which payments to the respective suppliers were outstanding, and therefore the appellant liable to pay interest under Section 50 of the Acts read with Section 20 of the IGST Act, 2017 on the ITC availed by the appellant without having made payment to the suppliers within the prescribed time i.e 180 days of purchase. The notice further proposes to demand interest on the CGST; SGST; ITC alleged to have wrongly availed under Section 50 of the CGST/GGST Acts, 2017; and also to impose penalty under Section 74, 76, 122(1)(iii), 122(1)(xvii) & 122(2)(b) of the GST Acts, 2017.

3. The Adjudicating Authority vide Order-in-Original No. GST/ 03/ Dem/ AC/ 2022-23/HNM, dated 13.06.2022 has :

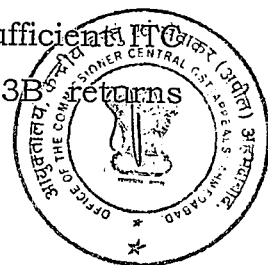

- (a) confirmed the GST amount of Rs.23,23,696/- (CGST Rs.11,52,782/- + SGST Rs.11,52,782/- and IGST Rs. 18,132/-) for the period from September-2017 to December-2017 under Section 74(1) of the GST Acts, 2017 read with section 20 of IGST Act, 2017 evaded by way of not paying GST on making taxable supplies and appropriated the GST amount of Rs. 23,23,696/- paid through Input Tax Credit (ITC) against their GST liability;
- (b) ordered to do not charge interest under Section 50 of the GST Acts, 2017 read with Section 20 of the IGST Act, 2017 on the GST liability of Rs.23,23,696/-;
- (c) ordered to charge Interest at applicable rates and to be recovered from the appellant under section 50 of the GST Acts, 2017 read with Rule 37 of the GST Rules, 2017 on the ITC availed by the appellant without having made payment to the suppliers within the prescribed time limit,

- (d) imposed a penalty of Rs. 23,36,689/- to the appellant under Section 74 the GST Acts, 2017 for non payments of GST amounts Rs. 23,36,689/-
- (e) not proposed penalty under Section 76 of the GST Acts, 2017;
- (f) not proposed penalty under Section 122(1)(iii) & 122(2)(b) of the GST Acts, 2017;
- (g) not proposed penalty on Shri Anand Gopiram Gupta, Director of M/s. Gopi Texfab Pvt. Ltd., under section 137(2) of the GST Acts, 2017 read with Section 20 of the IGST Act, 2017.

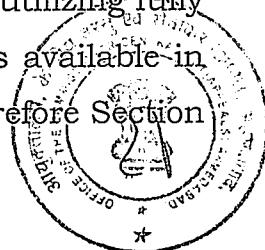

4. Being aggrieved, the appellant filed the present appeal on 14.09.2022 on the following grounds that:-

- (a) Section 74 of the CGST Act, 2017 is applicable when tax has not been paid or short paid, but the appellant ha paid tax voluntarily by filing of GST returns by utilizing of Input Tax Credit (ITC). Therefore, section 74 is not applicable in this case. The appellant has correctly accounted the output and input transaction in Books of accounts on timely basis but filed returns belatedly as appellant has not finalized the final liability due to multiple Sales Return transactions and complex nature & lack of understanding, as GST law. The appellant has made taxable purchases mainly from M/s. Bansal Multiflex Ltd. Due to late filing of GSTR-01 by M/s. Bansal Multiflex, ITC of purchases not reflected in GSTR-2A during the filing of GSTR-3B and the appellant were not in a position to pay tax in cash. In SCN, tax paid by utilizing the ITC has been appropriated against output GST liability of Rs. 23,23,696/-, when tax has been paid put through ITC, the applicability of section 74 of GST Acts, 2017 does not arise.
- (b) It has been alleged that the appellant has suppressed the tax liability by not filing the prescribed GST returns for the period September-2017 to December-2017 and if the department was not carried out investigation the appellant would have continue to apply the modus of collecting and not depositing the tax liability to the government and thus wilfully suppressed the facts with an intent to evade payment of GST. The appellant has accounted value of taxable supply in books of accounts for the period September-2017 to December-2017 for which sufficient ITC was available, but appellant has filed GSTR-1 & GSTR-3B returns belatedly i.e. on 3.3.2018 and 8.3.2018 by utilizing the ITC. Section 74 will not be applicable in the present case to demand tax as there is no suppression on their part, as the appellant filed GST Returns based on the transactions declared in books of accounts by utilizing full ITC credit. Mere non-filing of GST returns does not amount to wilful suppression or misstatement of facts for evading tax. The appellant had not suppressed the tax liability as they had recorded the tax liability in their books of accounts before DGGI initiated search proceedings. The appellant has sufficient ITC for availment and discharging their GST liability, which proves the bonafide belief of appellant for late filing of GST returns, and has no intention to evade tax or suppress the facts and there is no loss of revenue to the government exchequer in this case of late filing of return by utilizing the ITC. For this, the made reliance upon the judgment in the case of

- Super Industries 2017 (348) E.L.T. A127 (SC) wherein it is held that "Details declared in the books of Accounts cannot be said to be suppressed"
  - Padmini Products V/s CCE 43 ELT 195 (SC) it is held that "No suppression of facts if assessee had a bonafide belief".
  - Rainbow Industries V/s CCE 1994 74 ELT 3(SC) it is held that "In order for the extended time to apply, two ingredients must be present-wilful suppression and intention to evade duty."
- (c) It has been alleged that appellant has made late payment to the suppliers i.e some part of the payment not made to the suppliers. The appellant received the inward supplies in the month of September, 2017 worth Rs. 7,26,59,993/- (inclusive of GST) from M/s. Bansal Multiflex Limited, out of which Rs. 5,70,60,418/- was outstanding on 01.04.2018. But for sake of concluding the proceeding, the appellant discharged / paid the interest liability of Rs.2,06,655/- vide DRC-03 on 13.09.2022 for late payment to suppliers as per Section 16(2) of CGST Act, 2017 read with Rule 137 of CGST Rules, 2017. As the liability to pay GST does not arise hence question of payment of penalty does not arise. Further, the appellant has filed GST returns on 3.3.2018 & 8.3.2018 by utilizing fully ITC before the issuance of SCN as sufficient ITC credit was available in balance for availment & not required to pay tax in cash, therefore Section 73 or 74 not applicable in the present case. Mere filing of GST return belatedly after search proceedings does not amounts to fraud or suppression of facts.

- (d) GST law has provision of late fees and interest for late filing of returns means Govt. Can levy late fees and for late paying of tax, govt. can levy interest.
- (e) The department claimed that if investigation was not conducted, appellant may have continued to apply the modus of collecting and not depositing GST to the Government. On presumption basis, the department has estimated that the appellant is evading tax by not filing GST returns. However, before the investigation, the appellant has disclosed all transactions in their books of accounts and disclosed it in Tax Audit Report dated 22.09.2018 proving appellant is in bona-fide belief to pay tax, hence no intention to evade tax.
- (f) The department relied on meaning of word "suppression" as per Explanation 2 of Section 74 of CGST Act, 2017, in this case, returns are filed, all information as disclosed in books of accounts before initiation of proceedings, this is not a case of fraud or suppression. Mere filing of returns after investigation not put the appellant in shoes of fraudster. Therefore, Section 74 of CGST Act, 2017 is not applicable in this case. They rely upon in the case of Anand Nishikawa Co. Ltd Vs. Commissioner of Central Excise, Meerut [(2005) 7 SCC 749 = 2005 (188) E.L.T. 149 (SC) and Eastland Combines Vs. CCE, Coimbatore - 2003-TIOL-26-SC-CX;
- (g) It further alleged that the appellant has not made some part of payment to supplier within the prescribed time period as per Section 16(2) of CGST Act, 2017 i.e 180 days from the date of invoice read with Rule 37 of the CGST Rule, 2017. The appellant has made full payment to all supplier and also paid interest of Rs. 2,06,656/- through DRC-03 dated 13.09.2022 as per Section 16(2) read with Rule 37 of CGST Rules, 2017, as there is no mechanism for implementation of Second proviso to Section 16(2) of the CGST Act, 2017. Hence, delay in payment cannot be said "Failure to pay".
- (h) They re-iterated that Section 74 of the CGST Act, 2017 will not be applicable in the present case to demand tax as there is no suppression.

of facts with intention to evade payment of tax and relied upon various decisions of the Apex Court in support of their contention.

- (i) The appellant is not liable to pay penalty under Section 74 of CGST Act, 2017 as the penalty is to depend on the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case. The appellant has disclosed tax payable mentioned in the SCN in the books of accounts prior to initiation of proceedings by the department and filed tax audit report, income tax returns etc., showing all such taxable services. Hence, the appellant is in bona-fide belief to pay tax but due to complexity of computation of liability, it had delayed in filing of GST returns and paid the tax liability correctly. Penalty is not applicable in this case as appellant has discharged GST liability by full utilizing of ITC and allegation of suppression or fraud does not relevant for the late filing of returns.

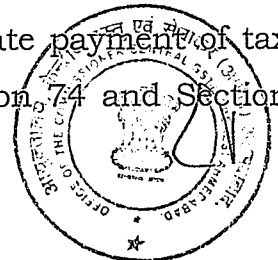

In view of the above submissions the appellant prayed to drop proceedings sought to be initiated and waive off the penalty as demanded under the impugned order.

PERSONAL HEARING:

5. Personal hearing in this case was held on 8.12.2022, Shri Jitendra Chopra and Nancy Shah, both Chartered Accountants, appeared in person, on behalf of the appellant as authorised representative. They reiterated that they nothing more to add to their written submission till date.

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS:-

6. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case and the submissions made by the appellant in their grounds of appeal as well as at the time of personal hearing and find that appellant is mainly contesting the demand of interest and imposition of penalty under Section 16(2) read with Rule 37 of GST Rules, Section 50 and Section 74 and of the GST Acts, 2017. According to the appellant, it is a mere late payment to the suppliers, late payment of tax and late filing of returns and hence the provisions of Section 74 and Section

16(2) of the GST Acts, 2017 are not attracted. So the questions to be answered in the present appeal are

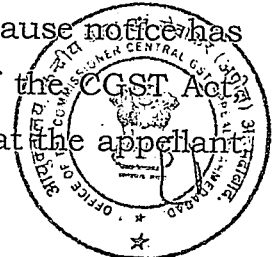

(i) whether demand of GST Rs. 23,23,696/- evaded by way of not paying GST on making taxable supplies during the period September-2017 to December-2017 it to be recovered under section 74 of the CGST Act, 2017 which appropriated by the adjudicating authority is proper or otherwise?

(ii) whether penalty of Rs. 23,23,696/- under Section 74 of the CGST Act, 2017 is applicable on the amount of ITC of Rs. 23,23,696/- for non-payment of GST amounting to Rs. 23,23,696/- is proper or otherwise;

(iii) whether demand of interest on the ITC availed by the appellant without payment to the suppliers for some part of payments not paid within 180 days time period from the date of issue of invoices under Section 16(2) read with Rule 37 and penalty thereof under of Section 74 of the CGST Act, 2017 is proper or otherwise;

7. At the foremost, I observed that in the instant case the "impugned order" is of dated 13.06.2022 and the same has been communicated to the appellant on 20.06.2022 and the present appeal is filed on 14.09.2022. As per Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017, the appeal is considered to be filed in time.

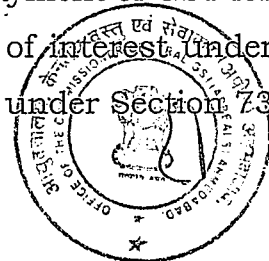

8. I find that the show cause notice proposed to recover the GST tax liability not paid by the appellant for the period from September-2017 to December-2017. I find that the appellant consequent to visit of DGGI officers on dated 05.02.2018 had filed all the pending GSTR returns for the period from September-2017 to December-2017 on 03.03.2018 and 8.3.2018 and accounted for the details of taxable supply made for the period from September-2017 to December-2017 in their books of account. DGGI have determined the tax liability only from the books of accounts maintained by the appellant. Thus, the instant matter is just a case of delayed payment of tax liability on the part of appellant as no undeclared income or transaction was detected during the DGGI's investigation. I find that the show cause notice has taken reliance in the Explanation-2 given under Section 74 of the CGST Act, 2017 which explained the expression 'suppression' to allege that the appellant suppressed facts. Explanation-2 to Section 74 of the CGST Act 2017 reads as under:

“Explanation-2. — For the purposes of this Act, the expression “suppression” shall mean non-declaration of facts or information which a taxable person is required to declare in the return, statement, report or any other document furnished under this Act or the rules made thereunder, or failure to furnish any information on being asked for, in writing, by the proper officer.”

From the plain reading of the above explanation it is evident that suppression is (i) non-declaration of fact or information in the return, statement, report or any other document furnished or (ii) failure to furnish any information on being asked for. In the present case, the appellant had booked their transaction in their books of accounts and not filed GSTR-1 & GSTR-3B returns before the investigation took place. The amount of GST was determined on the basis of the transaction declared in their books of account. It is also observed that subsequently the appellant has filed their GSTR-1 and GSTR-3B returns for the disputed period i.e from September-2017 to December-2017 on 3.3.2018 & 8.3.2018 which was admitted in the notice itself. All the tax dues were also paid by the appellant while filing these GSTR-1 and GSTR-3B returns by utilizing full ITC from their Electronic Credit Ledger as sufficient balance was available with the appellant. In the circumstances, I find that present matter is not a case where suppression of facts or non-declaration on the part of the appellant is proved. Further the term ‘suppression’ as provided in the said explanation is failure to furnish information on being asked for. Since, before issuance of the show cause notice, I find that the appellant has submitted all the relevant documents and information to the department at the time of proceedings by DGGI and the show cause notice has been issued on the basis of information taken from the books of account of the appellant; it cannot be the case of failure to furnish information either. Therefore, I find that it is not a case for invoking the provisions of Section 74 of the CGST/GGST Act, 2017 (the Acts) for demanding the GST but it is a case of delayed payment of GST for which the GST Acts has provided the provision for payment of interest under Section 50 ibid and the demand was required to be confirmed under Section 73 of the CGST Act, 2017 and Gujarat GST Act, 2017 (the Acts).

8.1 I find that in the instant case, the appellant is registered with the department. They were making taxable supplies and in terms of Section 9, though they were levying and collecting GST, but were not discharging their tax liability as stipulated under Section 12 of the Act. They, however, subsequently filed their GSTR-1 for September-2017 to December-2017 and discharged their tax liability of Rs. 23,23,696/- by filing GSTR-3B for the period September-2017 to December-2017, returns on 03.03.2018 by utilizing the full ITC debiting through their Electronic Credit Ledger (ECL) as the sufficient balance in ITC was available which have been further appropriated by the adjudicating authority in the impugned order. Thus, the tax payments for these period as well as the statutory returns were filed subsequent to initiation of investigation but before issuance of Show Cause Notice.

8.2 Further, I find that in the instant case, the interest charged on ITC availed by the appellant on some part of the payments not made to the supplier within 180 days time period from the date of issuance of invoices and under Section 50 of the GST Acts, 2017 read with Section 20 of the IGST Act, 2017 read with Rule 37 of the CGST Rules, 2017. For this, I refer to relevant provisions of Section 16(2) for eligibility and conditions for taking input tax credit, Rule 37 and Section 20 of IGST Act, 2017, which are reproduced below:

"SECTION 16. Eligibility and conditions for taking input tax credit.-

- (1) Every registered person shall, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed and in the manner specified in section 49, be entitled to take credit of input tax charged on any supply of goods or services or both to him which are used or intended to be used in the course of furtherance of his business and the said amount shall be credited to the electronic credit ledger of such person.*
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, no registered persons shall be entitled to the credit of any input tax in respect of any supply of goods or services or both to him unless-*
  - (a) he is in possession of a tax invoice or debit note issued by a supplier registered under this Act, or such other tax paying documents as may be prescribed;*
  - (aa) the details of invoice or debit note referred to in clause (a) has been furnished by the supplier in the statement of outward supplies and such details have been communicated to the recipient of such invoice or debit note in the manner prescribed under section 37;*
  - (b) he has received the goods or services or both.*

Explanation: For the purposes of this clause, it shall be deemed that the registered person has received the goods or, as the case may be, services-

(i) where the goods are delivered by the supplier to a recipient or any other person on the direction of such registered person, whether acting as an agent or otherwise, before or during movement of goods, either by way of transfer of documents of title to goods or otherwise,

(ii) where the services are provided by the supplier to any person on the direction of and on account of such registered person.

(ba) the details of input tax credit in respect of the said supply communicated to such registered person under section 38 has not been restricted;

- (c) subject to provisions of section 41, the tax charged in respect of such supply has been actually paid to the Government, either in cash or through utilization of input tax credit admissible in respect of the said supply; and
- (d) he has furnished the return under section 39;

PROVIDED that where the goods against an invoice are received in lots or instalments, the registered person shall be entitled to take credit upon receipt of the last lot or instalment;

PROVIDED FURTHER that where a recipient fails to pay to the supplier of goods or services or both, other than the supplies on which tax is payable on reverse charge basis, the amount towards the value of supply alongwith tax payable thereon within a period of one hundred and eighty days from the date of issue of invoice by the supplier, an amount equal to the input tax credit availed by the recipient shall be added to his output tax liability, along with interest thereon, in such manner as may be prescribed:

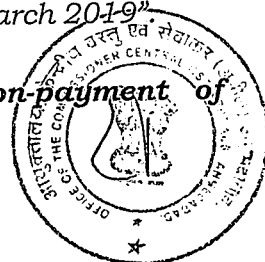

PROVIDED ALSO that the recipient shall be entitled to avail of the credit of input tax on payment made by him of the amount towards the value of supply of goods or services or both along with tax payable thereon.

- (3) Where the registered person has claimed depreciation on the tax component of the cost of capital goods and plant and machinery under the provisions of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961), the input tax credit on the said tax component shall not be allowed.

- (4) A registered person shall not be entitled to take input tax credit in respect of any invoice or debit note for supply of goods or services or both after the thirtieth day of NOVEMBER following the end of financial year to which such invoice or debit note pertains or furnishing of the relevant annual return, whichever is earlier.

PROVIDED that the registered person shall be entitled to take input tax credit after the due date of furnishing of the return under section 39 for the month of September, 2018 till the due date of furnishing of the return under the said section for the month of March, 2019 in respect of any invoice or invoice relating to such debit note for supply of goods or services or both made during the financial year 2017-18, the details of which have been uploaded by the supplier under sub-section (1) of section 37 till the due date for furnishing the details under sub-section (1) of said section for the month of March 2019.

"Rule 37: Reversal of input tax credit in the case of non-payment of consideration:-

- (1) A registered person,, who has availed of input tax credit on any inward supply of goods or services or both, but fails to pay to the supplier thereof, the value of such supply along with the tax payable thereon, within the time limit specified in the second proviso to sub-section (2) of section 16, shall furnish the details of such supply, the amount of value not paid and the amount of input tax credit availed of proportionate to such amount not paid to the supplier in FORM GSTR-2 for the month immediately following the period of one hundred and eighty days from the date of the issue of the invoice: .....

PROVIDED that the value of supplies made without consideration as specified in Schedule-I of the said Act shall be deemed to have been paid for the purposes of the second proviso to sub-section (2) of section 16:

PROVIDED FURTHER that the value of supplies on account of any amount added in accordance with the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section(2) of section 15 shall be deemed to have been paid for the purposes of the second proviso to sub-section (2) of Section 16;

- (2) The amount of input tax credit referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be added to the output tax liability of the registered person for the month in which the details are furnished.
- (3) The registered person shall be liable to pay interest at the rate notified under sub-section(1) of section 50 for the period starting from the date of availing credit on such supplies till the date when the amount added to the output tax liability, as mentioned in sub-rule(2), is paid.
- (4) The time limit specified in sub-section (4) of Section 16 shall not apply to a claim for re-availing of any credit, in accordance with the provisions of the Act or the provisions of this Chapter, that had been reversed earlier."

"SECTION 20. Application of provisions of Central Goods and Service Tax Act:-

Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, the provisions of Central Goods and Services Tax Act, relating to-

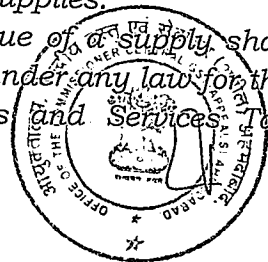

- (i) scope of supply; (ii) composite supply and mixed supply; (iii) time and value of supply; (iv) input tax credit; (v) registration; (vi) tax invoice, credit and debit notes; (vii) accounts and records; (viii) returns, other than late fee; (ix) payment of tax; (x) tax deduction at source; (xi) collection of tax at source; (xii) assessment; (xiii) refunds, (xiv) audit; (xv) inspection, search, seizure and arrest; (xvi) demands and recovery; (xvii) liability to pay in certain cases; (xviii) advance ruling; (xix) appeals and revision; (xx) presumption as to documents; (xxi) offences and penalties; (xxii) job work; (xxiii) electronic commerce; (xxiv) transitional provisions, and (xxv) miscellaneous provisions including the provisions relating to the imposition of interest and penalty, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply , so far as may be, in relation to integrated tax as they apply in relation to central tax as if they are enacted under this Act:

PROVIDED that in the case of tax deducted at source, the deductor shall deduct tax at the rate of two percent from the payment made or credited to the supplier:

PROVIDED FURTHER that in the case of tax collected at source, the operator shall collect tax at such rate not exceeding two percent, a may be notified on the recommendations of the Council, of the net value of taxable supplies:

PROVIDED ALSO that for the purposes of this Act, the value of a supply shall include any taxes, duties, cesses, feed and charges levied under any law for the time being in force other than this Act, and the Goods and Services Tax

(Compensation to States) Act, if charged separately by the supplier:

PROVIDED ALSO that in cases where the penalty is leviable under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act and the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, the penalty leviable under this Act shall be the sum total of the said penalties:

PROVIDED ALSO that where the appeal is to be filed before the Appellate Authority or the Appellate Tribunal, the maximum amount payable shall be fifty crore rupees and one hundred crore rupees respectively.

In view of the above and from the submission of the documents alongwith appeal memorandum, I find that the appellant has submitted a statement to the department related to payment made to their supplier M/s. Bansal Multiflex Ltd., the appellant has paid some part of payment to the supplier within stipulated time period of 180 days from the date of invoices and some part of the payment after 180 days as prescribed under Section 16(2) of the CGST Act, 2017, however, further they produced DRC-03 dated 13.09.2022 (Annexure-E of the appeal memorandum) wherein they have paid interest of Rs. 2,06,656/- for payment of admitted interest liability under Rule 37 of the CGST Rules, 2017 against the impugned order. Thus, I find that the appellant has already made some part of the payments to their suppliers before the stipulated time period of 180 days from the date of issuance of invoices upon which they avail the ITC and some part of the payment to their supplier after the stipulated time period of 180 days from the date of issuance of invoices (as per Annexure-D of the appeal memorandum) for which they are liable to pay interest, however, they have paid interest liability of Rs. 2,06,656/- vide DRC-03 dated 13.09.2022 (Annexure-E of appeal memorandum) on which they have availed ITC for payment made to their supplier after 180 days from the date of issuance of invoices, before filing the present appeal. Thus, I find that the appellant is entitled to avail of the credit of input tax on payment made to their supplier, subject to condition that they are not entitled to take such ITC after thirtieth day of November following the end of financial year to which such invoice pertains. I also find that the appellant having a sufficient balance in their credit ledger against the tax liability which had been discharged by them, they may allow to utilize the same by way of discharging their tax liability debiting through Electronic Credit Ledger (ECL) as per the law. Hence, there is no question of demand of interest on the admissible ITC to the appellant on ITC availed by them having sufficient balance in their ITC for which they are entitled to.

8.3 So far as the GST liability is concerned, I find the demand has been raised under Section 74(1) alleging suppression. Relevant text of Section 74 of CGST Act, 2017 is reproduced:-

SECTION 74. Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised by reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts. — (1) Where it appears to the proper officer that any tax paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or where input tax credit has been wrongly availed or utilised by reason of fraud, or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, he shall serve notice on the person chargeable with tax which has not been so paid or which has been so short paid or to whom the refund has erroneously been made, or who has wrongly availed or utilised input tax credit, requiring him to show cause as to why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice along with interest payable thereon under section 50 and a penalty equivalent to the tax specified in the notice.

(2) The proper officer shall issue the notice under sub-section (1) at least six months prior to the time limit specified in sub-section (10) for issuance of order.

Explanation 2. — For the purposes of this Act, the expression "suppression" shall mean non-declaration of facts or information which a taxable person is required to declare in the return, statement, report or any other document furnished under this Act or the rules made thereunder, or failure to furnish any information on being asked for, in writing, by the proper officer.

8.4 On bare perusal of the legal provision under Section 74, it is apparent that in a case where it appears to a proper officer that any tax has not been paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or where input tax credit has been wrongly availed or utilized by reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, he shall serve notice on the person chargeable with tax, which has not been paid or has been short paid or to whom refund has been erroneously made or who has wrongly availed or utilised input tax credit requiring him to show cause as to why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice along with the interest payable thereupon under Section 50 and a penalty equivalent to the tax specified in the notice. The ingredients of Section 74 of the Act require either of the following ingredients to be satisfied for proceedings thereunder i.e. that the tax in question has not been paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or the ITC has been wrongly availed or utilized by reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax.

8.5 In the instant case, the appellant has filed the GSTR-1 and GSTR-3B belatedly. The notice alleges that the appellant had suppressed the taxable income by not filing the GSTR-1 and GSTR-3B returns timely for the period from September-2017 to December-2017, under Section 37 & Section 39 of the CGST/GGST Act, 2017. However, for the period from September-2017 to December-2017, the appellant did not file the GSTR-1 & GSTR-3B in time as the same were filed on 03.03.2018 & 08.03.2018 i.e beyond the due date prescribed in the statute & after initiation of investigation by 5.2.2018. So, both the returns were subsequently filed though belatedly and after initiation of investigation. I find that mere non-filing of returns and delayed payment of tax cannot be ground to invoke the provisions of fraud or wilful misstatement or suppression of fact. As to allege suppression, there should be non-declaration of facts or information in the return. The term 'suppression' in the explanation is defined as any non-declaration of facts or information which a taxable person is required to declare in the return, statement, report or any other document furnished under this Act or the rules made thereunder, or failure to furnish any information on being asked for, in writing, by the proper officer shall amount to suppression. I find that in the instant case, neither the demand notice nor the impugned order has brought out any non-declaration or any additional information on record to allege suppression of facts or established any suppression of facts to evade tax, which the appellant were required to declare in their GSTR-1 return, but failed to declare. I, therefore, find that the demand of ITC amounting to Rs. 23,23,696/- made under Section 74 (1) is not sustainable as no suppression is brought on record to invoke the provisions of extended period of limitation.

8.6 I, however, find that the demand would be sustainable under Section 73(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I, therefore, in terms of Section 75(2) of the CGST Act, 2017, hold that the proper officer shall re-determine the tax payable by the appellant by deeming the notice have been issued under Section 73(1) in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 75 of the said Act and within the time limit specified under Section 75(3). Relevant provision of Section 75(2) is reproduced below:-

SECTION 75. General provisions relating to determination of tax. —

(2) Where any Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or court concludes that the notice issued under sub-section (1) of section 74 is not sustainable for the reason that the charges of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax has not been established against the person to whom the notice was issued, the proper officer shall determine the tax payable by such person, deeming as if the notice were issued under sub-section (1) of section 73.

8.7 This provision was further clarified by the CBIC vide Circular No.185/17/2022-GST dated 27.12.2022, wherein it was stated that where the show cause notice has been issued by the proper officer to a noticee under sub-section (1) of section 74 of CGST Act for demand of tax not paid/ short paid or erroneous refund or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilized, the appellate authority or appellate tribunal or the court concludes that the said notice is not sustainable under sub-section (1) of section 74 of CGST Act, for the reason that the charges of fraud or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax have not been established against the noticee and directs the proper officer to re-determine the amount of tax payable by the noticee, deeming the notice to have been issued under sub-section (1) of section 73 of CGST Act, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 75 of CGST Act.

8.8 Thus, in terms of Section 75(2) of the CGST Act, 2017 and CBIC's clarification vide Circular No.185/17/2022-GST dated 27.12.2022, the impugned order confirming the tax payable by the appellant under Section 74(1), needs to be re-determined by the proper officer by deeming, as if the SCN has been issued under Section 73(1) of the Act.

9. I further find that the payment of GST liability paid through ITC and filing of GST returns were made much prior (i.e on 3.3.2018 & 8.3.2018) to issue of the subject show cause notice dated 29.05.2020. Further, I find that the computation of GST liability was made only on the basis of the records maintained by the tax payer. When the tax along with interest (as no interest is required to pay by the appellant as GST liability was paid fully with ITC debiting Electronic Credit Ledger) was paid before the issuing the notice, according to sub-section 5 of Section 73 of CGST/SGST Act 2017, no penalty was required to be imposed. Section 73 of the CGST/SGST Act 2017 which read as under:

SECTION 73. Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised for any reason other than fraud or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts. —

(1) Where it appears to the proper officer that any tax has not been paid or short paid or erroneously refunded, or where input tax credit has been wrongly availed or utilized for any reason, other than the reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, he shall serve notice on the person chargeable with tax which has not been so paid or which has been so short paid or to whom the refund has erroneously been made, or who has wrongly availed or utilised input tax credit, requiring him to show cause as to why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice along with interest payable thereon under section 50 and a penalty leviable under the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

(2) to (4) ...

(5) The person chargeable with tax may, before service of notice under sub-section (1) or, as the case may be, the statement under sub-section (3), pay the amount of tax along with interest payable thereon under section 50 on the basis of his own ascertainment of such tax or the tax as ascertained by the proper officer and inform the proper officer in writing of such payment....

(8) to (11) ....."

9.1 I find that the adjudicating authority has held that the appellant is also liable to pay interest at applicable rates is required to be demanded and recovered from them under Section 50 of the GST Acts, 2017 read with Section 20 of the IGST Act, 2017 read with Rule 37 of the CGST Rules, 2017 on the ITC availed by the appellant without having made payment to the suppliers within the prescribed time for the period starting from the date of availing credit on such supplies till the date when the amount added to the output tax liability. In this regard, I find that the appellant submitted date-wise payment particulars made to the supplier within 180 days and also made payments after 180 days of time period from the date of issuance of invoices. They have paid interest on the ITC availed for which they have made payment beyond 180 days time period and contended that they have already paid interest Rs. 2,06,656/- towards payment of admitted interest liability under Section 50 of the CGST Act, 2017 and Rule 37 of the CGST Rules, 2017. I further find that interest of Rs. 2,06,656/- (CGST Rs.1,03,328/- & SGST Rs.1,03,328/-) on ITC availed without having made payment to the suppliers within prescribed time has been discharged through DRC-03 on 13.09.2022 and they have made payment to the suppliers beyond 180 days time period as stipulated under Section 16(2) of the Act read with Rule 37 of CGST Rules, 2017. Hence, I uphold the order of adjudicating authority to charge interest at applicable rates and to be recovered from the appellant on the ITC availed without having made payment to suppliers within the prescribed time as discussed above.

9.2 I find that, in the impugned order, the adjudicating authority has not charged any interest on GST amounting to Rs. 23,23,696/- as per Section 50 of the CGST Act 2017, the interest shall be levied on the portion of the tax that is paid by debiting the electronic cash ledger. The sub section (1) of Section 50 provides for interest on delayed payment of tax, which is reproduced below:

“SECTION 50. Interest on delayed payment of tax. — (1) Every person who is liable to pay tax in accordance with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder, but fails to pay the tax or any part thereof to the Government within the period prescribed, shall for the period for which the tax or any part thereof remains unpaid, pay, on his own, interest at such rate, not exceeding eighteen per cent., as may be notified by the Government on the recommendations of the Council:

Provided that the interest on tax payable in respect of supplies made during a tax period and declared in the return for the said period furnished after the due date in accordance with the provisions of section 39, except where such return is furnished after commencement of any proceedings under section 73 or section 74 in respect of the said period, shall be levied on that portion of the tax that is paid by debiting the electronic cash ledger”.

[As per Section 112 of the Finance Act, 2021 this amendment has been with effect from 1st June, 2021 retrospectively from 1.7.2017, which has been notified vide Notification No. 16/2021-Central Tax, dated 01.06.2021.]

From the above discussions and plain reading of the substituted Section 50, it is clear that the interest under Section 50 of the CGST Act, 2017 can only be levied on the net tax liability and not on the gross tax liability where the supplies made during the tax period are declared in the return after the due date. However, where such returns are furnished after commencement of any proceedings under Section 73 or Section 74 in respect of said period, then interest shall be payable on the entire amount. In the instant case, I find that for the period September 2017 to December 2017, the returns were filed by the appellant before commencement of proceedings under Section 74. Therefore, in terms of amended Section 50, which was given retrospective effect vide Notification No. 9/2022-Central Tax dated 05-07-2022, the interest shall be payable only on the net cash tax liability (i.e. that portion of the tax that has been paid by debiting the electronic cash ledger or is payable through cash ledger). I, therefore, find that to that extent the demand of interest on the gross tax payable and ITC availed & utilized for duty payment by the appellant are not legally sustainable and order to recover interest only on the net cash tax liability subject to the re-determination of demand under Section 73(1).

9.3 In this case, I find that the appellant had discharged the entire tax liability of Rs. 23,23,696/- (CGST Rs.11,52,782/- + SGST Rs. 11,52,782/- + IGST Rs. 18,132/-) while filing GSTR-3B returns debiting through electronic credit ledger, which has also been mentioned in the impugned order. The appellant has discharged the tax liability through electronic credit ledger before issue of show cause notice. Therefore, I hold that there is no interest is payable in the present case on the above demands as discussed above which is also not demanded by the adjudicating authority in the impugned. This is a case of mere late payment of tax and since the tax is paid, however, interest is not payable on the liability discharged through Electronic Credit Ledger, no penalty is attracted and the proceedings are to be closed in accordance with sub-section (5) of Section 73 ibid which read as under:

"5) The person chargeable with tax may, before service of notice under sub-section (1) or, as the case may be, the statement under sub-section (3), pay the amount of tax along with interest payable thereon under section 50 on the basis of his own ascertainment of such tax or the tax as ascertained by the proper officer and inform the proper officer in writing of such payment."

10. As the tax payer had paid the tax liability before issue of the notice, as discussed in the above paras, therefore, as per the provisions contained in Section 73(5), no penalty is attracted on GST amount of Rs. 23,23,696/-.

11 Considering the foregoing facts, I hereby referred the provisions of Section 50 (3) of the CGST Act, 2017, the same is as under:-

SECTION 50 (3):- Where the input tax credit has been wrongly availed and utilised, the registered person shall pay interest on such input tax credit wrongly availed and utilised, at such rate not exceeding twenty-four per cent, as may be notified by the Government, on the recommendations of the Council, and the interest shall be calculated, in such manner as may be prescribed.]

[As per Section 110 of the Finance Bill, 2022, this amendment has been with effect from 1st July, 2017, which has been notified vide Notification No. 09/2022-Central Tax, dated 05.07.2022.]

In view of above, it is abundantly clear that interest is leviable only if the Input Tax Credit has been wrongly availed and utilized. In the present matter, the appellant has availed only eligible / admissible ITC in their Electronic Credit Ledger. Further, I find that the balance of ITC in Electronic Credit ledger was sufficient to discharge their GST liability for the disputed period i.e from July 2017 to December 2017. Therefore, I find that interest is not leviable on the ITC i.e for Rs. 23,36,689/-. I further find reliance on the Order-In-Appeal No. AHM-EXCUS-002-APP-135/2022-23 dated 31.01.2023 passed by the Commissioner, Appeals, Ahmedabad, wherein in the similar case of M/s. Nami Steel Pvt Ltd, the appellate authority has ordered to re-determine the tax, interest and penalty under Section 73 of the CGST Act, 2017 as Section 74 of CGST Act, 2017 is not sustainable.

12. Further, it is also observed that penalty has been imposed under Section 74(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 on the appellant by the adjudicating authority on GST liability amounting to Rs. 23,23,696/-. As the impugned order confirming the tax payable by the appellant under Section 74(1), needs to be re-determined by the proper officer, by deeming as if the SCN has been issued under Section 73(1) of the CGST Act, 2017, I, therefore, find that the imposition of penalty also needs to be re-determined in terms of Section 73 of the CGST Act, 2017. Needless to say that the appellant shall furnish all the relevant documents relating to the return period as requisite under the law and rules made thereunder.

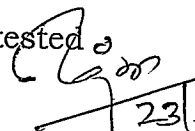

13. In view of the above discussions and findings, the impugned O-I-O is set aside to the above extent and sent back to the adjudicating authority for re-determination of tax, interest and penalty.

14. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
