ORDER-IN-APPEAL

Brief facts of the case:-

Indu Anand Arya (Trade Name: M/s Silvassa Spanyol Industries) 6th, 603, Sahjanand Bldg., Nr. Swaminarayan Temple, Shahibag, Ahmedabad - 380 004 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Appellant') has filed the present appeal against Order No. ZA240922113281Z dated 22.09.2022 (hereinafter referred to as 'the impugned order'), for Cancellation of Registration issued by the Superintendent, Range-I, Division-II [Naroda Road], Ahmedabad North Commissionerate (hereinafter referred to as 'the adjudicating authority').

2. Briefly stated the fact of the case is that the appellant was registered under GSTIN 24AAIPA1562F1ZA. The appellant was issued Show Cause Notice dated 13.09.2022 for cancellation of their registration, on the grounds that : "Non-compliance of any specified provisions in the GST Act or the Rules made thereunder as may be prescribed." Subsequently, the adjudicating authority vide the impugned order dated 22.09.2022 ordered for cancellation of registration with effect from 02-07-2017 on the grounds that "Nobody appeared for personal hearing against the SCN dtd 13.09.2022 and response has not been submitted till date by the taxpayer. Therefore, I hereby cancelled the registration w.e.f. ab-initio. However, the said tax payer has filed their latest GSTRs. Any pending tax arrears, interest, or penalty must be deposited immediately. The said cancellation does not affect the liability or other dues for any period prior to the date of cancellation whether or not such tax and other dues are determined before or after the date of cancellation. You are, therefore, requested to file a final return within three months of the date of cancellation in FORM GSTR-10 through GST common portal."

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order the appellant filed the present appeal on 09.03.2023 for revocation of cancellation of their GST Registration Number, wherein they contended that

- (i) the appellant filed NIL returns from October '21 to till date,
- (ii) the appellant is ready to pay their GST liability with interest and late fees;
- (iii) requested for revocation of cancellation of Registration;
- (iv) requested for condonation of delay in filling of appeal on health ground.

PERSONAL HEARING:

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 13.04.2023. Shri Abhishek Vasani, Chartered Accountant, appeared personally on behalf of the 'Appellant' as authorized representative. During the personal hearing he said that he wants to submit additional information for which he has been granted 07 working days.

Discussion & findings:

5. I have gone through the facts of the case, the impugned order and the grounds of appeal as well as written submissions of the appellant. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time limit; and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation / restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer. I find that the impugned order was issued on 22.09.2022 by the adjudicating authority and the said order was also communicated to them on the same day i.e on 22.09.2022. It is further observed that the appellant has filed the present appeal on 09.03.2023 along with self certified copy of the impugned order and show cause notice. Further, vide their letter 24.04.2023, the appellant requested to grant 15 days adjournment for additional submission, which was granted to them. Vide their letter 10.05.2023, they again requested for further 15 days adjournment for additional submission, which was again granted to them. However, till date no additional submission submitted by the appellant. Therefore, I am proceeded to decide the case, on available records, facts of the case, and submission made by the appellant in the appeal memorandum.

6. I further find it relevant to go through the relevant statutory provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017, which is reproduced as under:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the prescribed period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

7. Accordingly, I observed that the Appellant was required to file appeal within 3 months from the receipt of the impugned order dated 22.09.2022. However, in the instant case the appellant has filed the present appeal on 09.03.2023 i.e. after a lapse of a period more than three months period from the due date. Further, I also find that in terms of provisions of Section 107(4) ibid, the appellate authority has powers to condone the delay of one month in filing of appeal over and above the prescribed period of three months as mentioned above, if sufficient cause is shown. Accordingly, I find that there is an inordinate delay of more than three (3) months in filing the appeal over and above the normal period of three months. Thus, I find that the present appeal has been filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under the Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 cannot be entertained.

8. It is also observed that the appellant has not given any cogent grounds for delay in filing appeal. However, as per Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017, the appellate authority can condone only one month period in filing the present appeal. I find that this appellate authority is a creature of the statute and has to act as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act. This appellate authority, therefore, cannot condone the delay beyond the period permissible under the CGST Act. When legislature has intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning further delay of only one month, this appellate authority cannot go beyond the power vested by the legislature. My views are supported by the following case laws:

(i) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Singh Enterprises reported at 2008 (221) E.L.T.163 (S.C.) has held as under:

"8. ...The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only upto 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days period."

(ii) In the case of Makjai Laboratories Pvt Ltd reported at 2011 (274) E.L.T. 48 (Bom.), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that the Commissioner (Appeals) cannot condone delay beyond further period of 30 days from initial period of 60 days and that provisions of Limitation Act, 1963 is not applicable in such cases as Commissioner (Appeals) is not a Court.

(iii) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of Delta Impex reported at 2004 (173) E.L.T. 449 (Del) held that the Appellate authority has no jurisdiction to extend limitation even in a "suitable" case for a further period of more than thirty days.

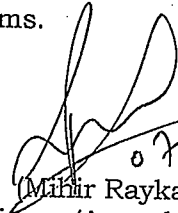

9. I find that the provisions of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Act, 2017 are pari materia with the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 and Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and hence, the above judgments would be squarely applicable to the present appeal also.

10. By respectfully following the above judgments, I hold that this appellate authority cannot condone delay beyond further period of one month as prescribed under Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 as well as appeal is filed beyond the extension of time limit provided by the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide order dated 10.01.2022. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is required to be dismissed on the grounds of limitation as not filed within the prescribed time limit in terms of the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. I do not find any reason to interfere with the decision taken by the adjudicating authority vide the impugned order. I, accordingly, reject the present appeal filed by the appellant on time limitation factor.

11. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeals filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
