ORDER-IN-APPEAL

Brief facts of the case:-

M/s.Garva Chirag Dineshkumar, Trade Name: Aadesh Enterprise (GSTIN-24AULPG5513D1Z1), 8, Chandanvila CO. OP H Society-2, Nikol Odhav, Ahmedabad, Ahmedabad,Gujarat,382350 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Appellant') has filed the present appeal against Order No. ZA240423006803Z dated 03.04.2023 (hereinafter referred to as 'the impugned order'), for Cancellation of Registration issued by the Superintendent, CGST, Range-IV, Division-II Naroda Road, Ahmedabad-North Commissionerate (hereinafter referred to as 'the adjudicating authority').

2. Briefly stated the fact of the case is that the appellant was registered under GSTIN-24AULPG5513D1Z1. The appellant was issued Show Cause Notice date 02.03.2023 for cancellation of their registration due to failure to furnish returns for a continuous period of six months. The adjudicating authority vide the impugned order dated 03.04.2023 ordered for cancellation of registration with effect from 01-08-2022.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order the appellant filed the present appeal online on 18-10-2023 for revocation of cancellation of their GST Registration Number, wherein, inter-alia, contended that:

a. The Business is running well again, that's reason appellant wants to reactive GSTIN Number.

b. The appellant reserves the right to add, alter and modify all or any of the aforesaid ground of appeal.

c. The appellant assessee have been already filed GST return up-to July-2022 with taxes and dues and want to file all other pending returns.

d. The appellant assessee have safe guarded and paid all the revenue attached to this case."

Further the Appellant has requested to restore their registration.

Personal Hearing :

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 01-11-2023. Shri Nikunj Trapasiya, Chartered Accountant appeared in person on behalf of the Appellant. He submitted that all dues have been paid. As regards the delayed filing of appeal, it has been submitted that due to medical issues they could not file appeal in time and requested to condone the delay. He further reiterated the written submissions and requested to allow the appeal.

Discussion & findings:

5. I have gone through the facts of the case, the impugned order and the grounds of appeal as well as written submissions of the appellant. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time limit; and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation/restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer. I find that the impugned order was issued on 03.04.2023 by the adjudicating authority. It is further observed that the appellant has filed the present appeal online on 18.10.2023 and submitted hard copy along with documents to this office on 27-10-2023.

6. I further find it relevant to go through the relevant statutory provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017, which is reproduced as under:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(2) ..... (3) .....

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month”.

6.1 Accordingly, I observed that the Appellant was required to file appeal within three (3) months from the receipt of the impugned order dated 03.04.2023 i.e on or before 03.07.2023. However, in the instant case the appellant has filed the present appeal online on 18.10.2023 i.e. after a lapse of more than three months from the due date. Further, I also find that in terms of provisions of Section 107(4) ibid, the appellate authority has powers to condone the delay of only one month in filing of appeal over and above the prescribed period of three months as mentioned above, if sufficient cause is shown. Accordingly, I find that there is an inordinate delay of more than three months in filing the appeal over and above the normal period of three months. Thus, I find that the present appeal has been filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under the Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 cannot be entertained (even if, considering one month condonation period). Accordingly, I find that the further proceedings in case of the present appeal can be taken up for consideration strictly as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act, 2017.

7. It is also observed that the appellant has requested for condonation of delay in filing Appeal wherein the reasons for inordinate delay in filing the appeal is stated to be Medical issues of the appellant and his daughter. I find that this appellate authority is a creature of the statute and has to act as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act. This appellate authority, therefore, cannot condone the delay beyond the period permissible under the CGST Act. When legislature has intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning further delay of only one month, this appellate authority cannot go beyond the power vested by the legislature. My views are supported by the following case laws:

(i) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Singh Enterprises reported at 2008 (221) E.L.T.163 (S.C.) has held as under:

"8. ...The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only upto 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days period."

(ii) In the case of Makjai Laboratories Pvt Ltd reported at 2011 (274) E.L.T. 48 (Bom.), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that the Commissioner (Appeals) cannot condone delay beyond further period of 30 days from initial period of 60 days and that provisions of Limitation Act, 1963 is not applicable in such cases as Commissioner (Appeals) is not a Court.

(iii) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of Delta Impex reported at 2004 (173) E.L.T. 449 (Del) held that the Appellate authority has no jurisdiction to extend limitation even in a "suitable" case for a further period of more than thirty days.

8. I find that the provisions of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Act, 2017 are pari materia with the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 and Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and hence, the above judgments would be squarely applicable to the present appeal also.

9. By following the above judgments & provisions of law, I hold that this appellate authority cannot condone the delay beyond the period as prescribed under Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 / Rule 108 of CGST Rules, 2017 as well as the appeal is filed beyond the prescribed time limit under the law. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is required to be dismissed on the grounds of limitation as not filed within the prescribed time limit. In view of the above discussion and findings, I reject the present appeal filed by the appellant on time limitation factor.

10. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
