In view of above, an appeal against this order shall lie before the Tribunal on payment of 10% of the duty demanded where duty or duty and penalty are in dispute, or penalty, where penalty alone is in dispute."

ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Hitesh Ramanbhai Patel,1/B, manichandra Society, Vibhag-II, Sun and Step Club Road, Thaltej, Ahmedabad - 380054 (hereinafter referred to as "the appellant") against Order-in-Original No. GST-06/D-VI/O&A/753/Hitesh/AM/2022-23 dated 23.03.2023 passed by The Assistant Commissioner, CGST Division-VI, Ahmedabad North (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant are holding PAN No. ABGPP7077B. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the FY 2016-17, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 14,86,453/- during the FY 2016-17, which was reflected under the heads "Sales of services" (Value from ITR)" filed with the Income Tax department. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the substantial income by way of providing taxable services but has neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant were called upon to submit copies of relevant documents for assessment for the above said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued to them by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant was issued Show Cause Notice No. GST-06/4-1616/Hitesh/2021-22 dated 18.10.2021 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 2,22,967/- for the period FY 2016-7 under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; imposition of Late Fee under Rule 7C of the S. tax Rules, 1994 read with the section 70 of the Finance Act,1994 for ST-3 returns late/not filed and imposition of penalties under Section 77 and Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994. However, the appellant had not responded to the department.

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated, ex-parte, vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 2,22,967/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period from FY 2016-17. Further (i) Penalty of Rs. 2,22,967/- was also imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 5,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77 of the Finance Act, 1994 and (iii) Late fee/Penalty of Rs. 40,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 70 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 7C of the Service Tax Rules, 1994.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, the appellant have preferred the present appeal on the following grounds:

- The appellant submitted that as they were not registered with the service tax department, they were required user ID and the password to pay the pre-deposit amount. This take too much time, thereby a delay of 13 days was occurred in filing the present appeals. They requested to condone the same.
- The appellant has earned the subject income from business of transportation, Road Transport and they are not a GTA. Their activity fall in the negative list of service tax as per section 666D. They have trucks which are used for small clients for transporting sand to the construction sites locally. Freight charges are also below Rs.1500/- for one truck.
- The appellant stated that they have filed their submission dated 04.12.2021 but the adjudicating authority failed to consider the same. Even if they are liable to pay service tax, they are eligible for threshold exemption which was not extended to them.
- They submitted that they have nothing suppressed from the department and the extended period can't be invoked in their case. The appellant denies all the demand confirmed vide impugned OIO and submitted that the OIO is against the facts, equity and law and the same may be quashed and set-aside.

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 19.03.2024. Shri Punit Jhamtani, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant. he informed that the client is owner of two trucks and locally transporting construction material. He is not a GTA. The local transportation is covered under negative list -66D(p). Hence the client is not liable for service tax. Further he requested for one day time to submit additional documents which have been received in this office on dated 20.03.2021.

5. On going through the appeal memorandum, it is noticed that the impugned order was issued on 23.03.2023 and delivered on dated 12.04.2023 to appellant. The present appeal, in terms of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 was filed on 22.06.2023, i.e. after a delay of 11 days from the last date of filing of appeal. The appellant have along with appeal memorandum also filed an Application seeking condonation of delay stating that they were not registered with the service tax department and the user ID and the password were required to pay the pre-deposit amount. This has taken too much time, thereby a delay of 11days was occurred in filing the present appeals which was required to be filed on or before 11.06.2023.

6. Before taking up the issue on merits, I proceed to decide the Application filed seeking condonation of delay. As per Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, an appeal should be filed within a period of 2 months from the date of receipt of the decision or order passed by the adjudicating authority. Under the proviso appended to sub-section (3A) of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, the Commissioner (Appeals) is empowered to condone the delay or to allow the filing of an appeal within a further period of one month thereafter if, he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the period of two months. Considering the cause of delay given in application as genuine, I condone the delay of 11 days and take up the appeal for decision on merits.

7. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum, during the course of personal hearing and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand of service tax against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period FY 2016-17.

8. I find that in the SCN in question, the demand has been raised for the period FY 2016-17 based on the Income Tax Returns filed by the appellant as they failed to respond the departmental letters. Further, the demand was confirmed on ex parte basis.

9. Now as per submission before me, it is seen that the appellant has furnished the copies of registration certificate of 2 loading vehicles registered in his name. Further, from 26AS filed for the relevant period and the copies of the sample invoices, it can be seen that, they have supplied "Sp. Greet and Sp. Kapachi" to various client and charging on trip basis. Per trip charges are shown below Rs. 1500/- From the above it appears that the appellant is a small service provider of transportation of goods and he is not a GTA. The income received against such activity is exempted from the service tax as per the Clause (p) of the Section 66D of Finance Act, 1994. Relevant portion of the above is re-produced as under:

66D. Negative list of services. - The negative list shall comprise of the following services, namely: -

(p) service by way of transportation of goods

(i) by road except the services of

(A) a goods transportation agency, or

(B) a courier agency.

So once the activity falls within the meaning of any service provided in service tax negative list, the activity is out of service tax applicability. Since the demand of Service Tax is not sustainable on merits, there does not arise any question of charging interest or imposing penalties in the case.

10. In view of the above discussion, I set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal filed by the appellant.

11. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
