ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Rajkumar Vimalbhai Jain, 616-6th Floor, Gala Empire, Opp. TV Tower, Drive in Road, Thaltej, Ahmedabad – 380054 (hereinafter referred to as “the appellant”) against Order-in-Original No. CGST/WT07/RAJ/38/2022-23 dated 27.04.2022 (hereinafter referred to as “the impugned order”) passed by the Deputy Commissioner, Central GST, Division-VII, Ahmedabad South (hereinafter referred to as “the adjudicating authority”).

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant are holding PAN No. AGLPJ7949L. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the FY 2014-15, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 21,54,317/- during the FY 2014-15, which was reflected under the heads “Sales / Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)” or “Total amount paid / credited under Section 194C, 194I, 194H, 194J (Value from Form 26AS)” filed with the Income Tax department. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but had neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant were called upon to submit copies of Balance Sheet, Profit & Loss Account, Income Tax Return, Form 26AS, for the said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant were issued Show Cause Notice No. CGST/AR-I/Div-VII/A'bad-North/TPD/30/20-21 dated 26.09.2020 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 2,66,274/- for the period FY 2014-15, under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; and imposition of penalties under Section 77(1)(a), Section 77(1)(c), Section 77(2) and Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated, ex-parte, vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 2,66,274/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period from FY 2014-15. Further (i) Penalty of Rs. 2,66,274/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1)(a) and Section 77(1)(c) of the Finance Act, 1994; and (iii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 for not submitting documents to the department, when called for.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, the appellant have preferred the present appeal on the following grounds:

- The appellant are working as a Commission/Brokerage agent for Sale or Purchase of Agricultural Produce.
- The services provided by the appellant falls under negative list as per Section 66D of the Finance Act, 1994 vide Sr. No. (d) Services relating to agriculture or agricultural produce by way of - (vii) Services by any Agricultural Produce Marketing Committee or Board or services provided by a commission agent for sale or purchase of agricultural produce.
- The appellant had income as a commission agent of Agricultural produces like Indian Gaur Meal, Milling Wheat, Indian Rape Seed Meal, etc. during the F.Y. 2014-15. Accordingly, the services provided by the appellant falls under negative list and hence out of the purview of Service tax.
- All the letters, SCN were issued to the appellant to their old address i.e. 501/B, Shikhar Complex, Opp. Navneet House, Gurukul Road, Ahmedabad -380071. As a consequence, all the letters issued by the department was not received by the appellant and accordingly the appellant could not reply to any letter, SCN issued by the department.
- In SCN, the demand has been raised based on the Income Tax Returns filed by the appellant, wherein the base is taken only of "Sales of Services under Sales/Gross Receipt from Services" provided by the Income Tax Department and no other strong and valid reason is mentioned in the SCN for raising the demand against the appellant. Further the category of service was also not specified under which the non levy of service tax is alleged against the appellant. Thus, SCN issued based on presumptions and third-party information and therefore not sustainable. In this regard they have relied upon the following case laws:
  - a) Commissioner Vs. Sharma Fabricators & Erectors Private Ltd – 2017 (7) TMI 168 – CESTAT Allahabad
  - b) Oudh Sugar Mills Ltd Vs. UOI – 1962 (3) TMI 75 – Supreme Court
  - c) R. Ramdas Vs. Joint Commissioner of Central Excise, Puducherry – 2021 (44) GSTL 258 (Mad.).

- As per the proviso to sub section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994, the extended period of 5 years is applicable only in situations where any service tax has not been levied or paid or has been short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded by reason of (a) Fraud; or (b) Collusion; or (c) Wilful mis-statement; or (d) Suppression of facts; or (e) Contravention of any of the provisions of this Chapter or of the rules made thereunder with intent to evade payment of service tax. The appellant have neither suppressed and concealed the facts nor intended to evade payment of service tax. Hence, extended period of limitation cannot invoked in the present case. In this regard, they relied upon the judgement of M/s. Cosmic Dye Chemical Vs Collector of Cen. Excise, Bombay [1995 (75) E.L.T. 721 (S.C.)].
- Their taxable turnover for the financial year 2013-14 is less than 10 lakhs, hence, they are eligible for exemption limit of ten lakhs while calculating service tax liability for the financial year 2014-15.
- As explained in the facts of the case along with reading of grounds of appeal, the appellant have neither charged nor collected Service Tax from the clients/ customers, the gross value charged from the clients/ customers should be considered as inclusive of Service Tax.

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 31.05.2023. Shri Sachin Dharwal, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant for personal hearing. He reiterated submissions made in appeal memorandum.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand of service tax against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period from FY 2014-15.

6. I find that in the SCN in question, the demand has been raised for the period FY 2014-15 based on the Income Tax Returns filed by the appellant. Except for the value of "Sales of Services under Sales / Gross Receipts from Services" provided by the Income Tax Department, no other cogent reason or justification is forthcoming from the SCN for raising the demand against the appellant. It is also not specified as to under which category of service the non-levy of service tax is alleged against the appellant. Merely because the appellant had reported receipts from services, the same cannot form the basis for arriving at the conclusion that the respondent was liable to pay service tax, which was not paid by them. In this regard, I find that CBIC had, vide Instruction dated 26.10.2021, directed that:

"It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts, may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner /Chief Commissioner (s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

6.1 In the present case, I find that letters were issued to the appellant seeking details and documents, which were allegedly not submitted by them. However, without any further inquiry or investigation, the SCN has been issued only on the basis of details received from the Income Tax department, without even specifying the category of service in respect of which service tax is sought to be levied and collected. This, in my considered view, is not a valid ground for raising of demand of service tax.

7. It is observed that the main contentions of the appellant are that (i) they are working as a Commission/Brokerage agent for Sale or Purchase of Agricultural Produce and the services provided by them falls under negative list as per Section 66D(d) of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) all the letters issued by the department was not received by the appellant as the same were sent to their old address, therefore, the appellant could not reply to any letter, SCN issued by the department; and (iii) their taxable turnover for the financial year 2013-14 is less than 10 lakhs, hence, they are eligible for exemption limit of ten lakhs while calculating service tax liability for the financial year 2014-15. Further, they are also eligible for cum duty benefit under Section 67(2) of the Finance Act, 1994 as they have neither charged nor collected Service Tax from the clients/ customers.

7.1 It is also observed that the adjudicating authority has confirmed the demand of service tax vide impugned order passed ex-parte.

8. As regard, the contention of the appellant that the impugned order was issued without conducting personal hearing, it is observed that the adjudicating authority has scheduled personal hearing on three different dates by issuing a single letter / notice dated 07.04.2022. The appellant contended that they have not received any personal hearing letter and therefore could not attend the personal hearing.

8.1 In this regard, I find that as per Section 33A(2) of the Central Excise Act, 1944, as made applicable to Service Tax vide Section 83 of the Finance Act, 1994, when a personal hearing is fixed, it is open to a party to seek time by showing sufficient cause and in such case, the adjudicating authority may grant time and adjourn the personal hearing by recording the reason in writing. Not more than three such adjournments can be granted. Since such adjournments are limited to three, the hearing would be required to be fixed on each such occasion and on every occasion when time is sought and sufficient cause is made out, the case would be adjourned to another date. It is further observed that by giving notice for personal hearing on three dates in a single letter and absence of the appellant on those dates appears to have been considered as grant of three adjournments by the adjudicating authority. In this regard, I find that the Section 33A(2) of the Central Excise Act, 1944 provides for grant of not more than 3 adjournments, which would envisage four dates of personal hearing and not three dates. The similar view has been taken by the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in the case of Regent Overseas Private Limited and others Vs. Union of India and others reported in 2017 (3) TMI 557 – Gujarat High Court.

8.2 In view of the above, I find that the adjudicating authority was required to give adequate and ample opportunity to the appellant for personal hearing and it is only thereafter, the impugned order was required to be passed. Thus, it is held that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority is clearly in breach of the principles of natural justice and is not legal and correct.

9. I also find that the appellant have contended in the appeal memorandum that the services provided by them falls under negative list as per Section 66D(d) of the Finance Act, 1994. However, they have not put forth any documents in support of their contention in the appeal memorandum. Further, the said contention was not put forth by the appellant before the adjudicating authority as they have not received show cause notice. In this regard, I am of the considered view that the appellant cannot seek to establish their eligibility for exemption at the appellate stage by bypassing the adjudicating authority. They should have submitted the relevant records and documents before the adjudicating authority, who is best placed to verify the authenticity of the documents as well as their eligibility for exemption.

10. Considering the facts of the case as discussed hereinabove and in the interest of justice, I am of the considered view that the case is required to be remanded back to the adjudicating authority to examine the case on merits and also to consider the claim of the appellant for exemption from the service tax. The appellant is directed to submit all the records and documents in support of their claim for exemption from the service tax before the adjudicating authority within 15 days of the receipt of this order. The adjudicating authority shall after considering the records and documents submitted by the appellant decide the case afresh by following the principles of natural justice.

11. In view of the above discussion, I remand the matter back to the adjudicating authority to reconsider the issue afresh and pass a speaking order after following the principles of natural justice.

12. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
