ORDER-IN-APPEAL

Narpatsingh P Rajpurohit HUF (Legal Name) M/s. K.P. Prints Creation (Trade Name) D-403, Nilkanth Residency, Opposite Shalin Heights, Narol, Ahmedabad-382405 (hereinafter referred to as 'the appellant') has filed the present appeal on 12.08.2021 against Order No. ZX240919002009M dated 03.09.2019 (hereinafter referred to as 'the impugned Order') passed by the Superintendent Ghatak-21, Range-6, Division-II, Ahmedabad south (hereinafter referred to as the 'adjudicating authority').

2. The brief facts of the case are that the appellant is registered under GST Registration No. 24AAIHN5943D1Z9. The appellant was issued show cause notice dated 21.8.2019 for cancellation of their registration by the Superintendent Ghatak-21, Range-6, Division-II, Ahmedabad South for the reason that the appellant has not filed returns for a continuous period of six months. The show cause notice was decided by the adjudicating authority vide impugned Order wherein the adjudicating authority has cancelled their GST registration with effect from 03.09.2019 due to following reasons:

The tax payer has not filed returns for the period of 17 months. Also, Tax payer did not appear for PH on given date and time. I proceed to cancel the GST registration by virtue of Section 29 of CGST Act, 2017.

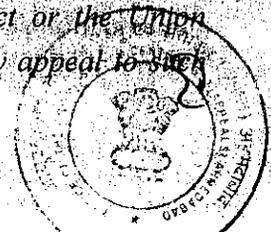

3. Being aggrieved the appellant filed the present appeal for revocation of their GST registration so that they can continue their business.

4. Personal hearing in the matter was held on 22.10.2021 through virtual mode. Shri Supal A. Brahakshtriya, attended the hearing as an authorized representative of the appellant. He reiterated the grounds of appeal memorandum submitted on 12.08.2018. Moreover, vide letter dated 22.10.2021 Shri Supal stated that party wants to pay any of the dues to the department arising due to non-filing of returns, party wants to continue to the GST resume and use his GST number after revocation and party will maintain laws & discipline to GST rules and regulations.

5. I have carefully gone through the records of the case, the impugned order and the grounds of appeal as well as oral submission of the appellant. I find that the impugned order was issued on 03.09.2019 by the adjudicating authority. As submitted by the Appellant, the said order was also communicated to them on the same day of 03.09.2019. It is further observed that the Appellant has filed this present appeal on 12.08.2021 manually along with supporting documents.

6. I further find it relevant to go through the statutory provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 which is reproduced hereinbelow:

"Sec.107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. —(1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month."

7. Accordingly, it is observed that the Appellant was required to file appeal within 3 months from the receipt of the said order i.e. on or before 03.12.2019, as stipulated under Section 107(1) of the Act. However, the Appellant has filed the present appeal on 12.08.2021, i.e. after a period of more than one and half year from the due date. Further, I also find that in terms of the provisions of Section 107(4) ibid, the appellate authority has powers to condone delay of one month in filing of appeal, over and above the prescribed period of three months as mentioned above, if sufficient cause is shown. Accordingly, I find that there is a delay of one and half year in filing the appeal over and above the normal period of 3 months. Thus, appeal filed beyond the time limit prescribed under Section 107(1) ibid cannot be entertained.

8. Further, I also find that in terms of the Hon'ble Supreme Court judgment dated 23.03.2020, wherein the Apex Court taking suo-moto cognizance of the situation arising due to COVID-19 pandemic has extended the period of limitation prescribed under the law with effect from 15.03.2020 till further orders. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide order dated 27.04.2021 has restored the order dated 23rd March 2020 thereby directing that the period(s) of limitations, as prescribed under any General or Special Laws in respect of all judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings, whether condonable or not, shall stand extended till further orders from 15.03.2020. The CBIC, New Delhi also vide Circular No. 157/13/2021-GST dated 20.07.2021, has clarified at para-5 that "In other words, the extension of timelines granted by Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its Order dated 27.04.2021 is applicable in respect of any appeal which is required to be filed before Joint/ Additional Commissioner (Appeals), Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, Tribunal and various courts against any quasi-judicial order or where proceeding for revision or rectification of any order is required to be undertaken, and is not applicable to any other proceedings under GST Laws."

However, I find in the present case that the period of limitation of total 4 months (including condonable period of 1 month) for filing of appeal from the date of issuance of impugned order, as prescribed under Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 was already completed on 03.01.2020 and hence, the present case would not be eligible for the relaxation/extension granted by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in respect of period(s) of limitation as mentioned above. Accordingly, I find that the further proceedings in case of present appeal can be taken up for consideration strictly as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act, 2017.

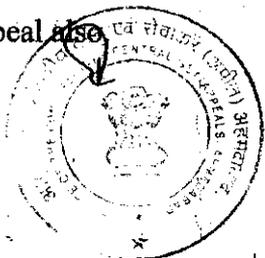

9. It is also observed that the appellant has not filed any application for condonation of delay. Even otherwise, filing of a COD application is not going to change the factual position in the present case. I find that this appellate authority is a creature of the statute and has to act as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act. This appellate authority, therefore, cannot condone delay beyond the period permissible under the CGST Act. When the legislature has intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning further delay of only one month, this appellate authority cannot go beyond the power vested by the legislature. My views are supported by the following case laws:

- (i) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Singh Enterprises reported as 2008 (221) E.L.T.163 (S.C.) has held as under:

"8. ...The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only upto 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days period."

- (ii) In the case of Makjai Laboratories Pvt Ltd reported as 2011 (274) E.L.T. 48 (Bom.), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that the Commissioner (Appeals) cannot condone delay beyond further period of 30 days from initial period of 60 days and that provisions of Limitation Act, 1963 is not applicable in such cases as Commissioner (Appeals) is not a Court.
- (iii) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of Delta Impex reported as 2004 (173) E.L.T. 449 (Del) held that the Appellate authority has no jurisdiction to extend limitation even in a "suitable" case for a further period of more than thirty days.

10. I find that the provisions of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Act, 2017 are pari materia with the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 and Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and hence, the above judgements would be squarely applicable to the present appeal also.

11. By respectfully following the above judgements, I hold that this appellate authority cannot condone delay beyond further period of one month as prescribed under proviso to Section 107(4) of the Act. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is required to be dismissed on the grounds of limitation as not filed within the prescribed time limit in terms of the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. I, accordingly, dismiss the present appeal.

अपील कर्था द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

12. The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
