ORDER IN APPEALBrief Facts of the Case :-

This appeal has been filed under Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") by M/s. Aditya Infra (Legal Name - Patel Devang Maheshbhai), 211-212, 2nd Floor, Satyam Mall, Jodhpur Gam, Satellite, Ahmedabad - 380015 (hereinafter referred to as "Appellant") against the Order No. ZA2401220237624 dated 06.01.2022 (hereinafter referred to as "impugned order") passed by the Superintendent, CGST, Range- V, Division-VII - Satellite, Ahmedabad South (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority/Proper Officer").

2. Facts of the case, in brief, are that the appellant is registered under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 vide GST Registration GSTIN No. 24DELPP2046M1Z5. A Show Cause Notice was issued to the appellant, wherein it was proposed that registration is liable to be cancelled for the reason of "failure to furnish returns for a continuous period of six months". Thereafter, the registration was cancelled by the 'Proper Officer' vide 'impugned order' dated 06.01.2022 for the reason - "the taxable person has failed to file GSTR-3B since May-2021". The registration was cancelled with effect from 29.07.2021.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant preferred this appeal on 17.05.2022. The appellant in the appeal memorandum has submitted that the adjudicating authority has passed the order without considering the Covid situation as well as not given reasonable opportunity for tax relief. The business was taken care of by Manager and as his father expired during corona period he failed to collect the amount from customers/clients. Accordingly, due to financial problem they could not pay Taxes on time. But now they have paid all the taxes with penalties. They have paid tax with late fees on 01.02.2022 of Rs.95,862/- and interest of Rs.20,526/- on 29.04.2022. The appellant has further submitted that once their registration gets activated they will file pending returns with tax, fine, penalty and interest. Accordingly, requested for revocation of their cancelled GST Registration.

4. Personal Hearing in the matter was held on 10.10.2022 wherein Sh. Dinesh A. Rathi, Advocate appeared as authorized representative of the Appellant. During P.H. he has stated that they have nothing more to add to their written submission till date.

limitation remaining as on 03.10.2021 if any, shall become available with effect from 01.03.2022 and that in cases where the limitation would have expired during the period from 15.03.2020 till 28.02.2022 notwithstanding the actual balance period of limitation remaining, all persons shall have a limitation period of 90 days from 01.03.2022.

7(iii). In the present matter, the "impugned order" is of 06.01.2022 and appeal is filed on 17.05.2022. Accordingly, in view of above order of Hon'ble Supreme Court the last date for filing of appeal comes to 29.05.2022 (considering 90 days from 01.03.22). In the present case the appeal is filed on 17.05.2022.

7(iv). In the present matter, the "impugned order" is of 06.01.2022 so, the normal appeal period of three months was available up to .05.04.2022 whereas, the present appeal is filed on 17.05.2022. However, in view of above order of Hon'ble Supreme Court as discussed in above paras, the present appeal is considered to be filed in time.

8. In view of above and also looking into the Covid-19 pandemic situation in the instant matter, I am inclined to condone the delay of filing of appeal. Therefore, I find that the present appeal is filed within stipulated time limit.

Accordingly, I am proceeded to decide the case.

9. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, written submissions made by the "Appellant". I find that the adjudicating authority/proper officer has cancelled the registration with effect from 29.07.2021 as the "Appellant" failed to file the GST Returns.

Further, I find that the provisions of revocation of cancellation of registration when the same is cancelled by the proper officer on suo moto basis are contained in Section 30 of the CGST Act, 2017 and Rule 23 of the CGST Rules, 2017. Therefore, I find it pertinent to refer Section 30 and Rule 23 as under: -

SECTION 30. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1)
Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order :

[Provided that such period may, on sufficient cause being shown, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended,

(a) by the Additional Commissioner or the Joint Commissioner, as the case may be, for a period not exceeding thirty days;

(b) by the Commissioner, for a further period not exceeding thirty days, beyond the period specified in clause (a).]

(2) The proper officer may, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, by order, either revoke cancellation of the registration or reject the application :

Provided that the application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall not be rejected unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The revocation of cancellation of registration under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be a revocation of cancellation of registration under this Act.

RULE 23. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1) A registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may submit an application for revocation of cancellation of registration, in FORM GST REG-21, to such proper officer, within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order of cancellation of registration at the common portal, either directly or through a Facilitation Centre notified by the Commissioner :

Provided that no application for revocation shall be filed, if the registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns :

[Provided further that all returns due for the period from the date of the order of cancellation of registration till the date of the order of revocation of cancellation of registration shall be furnished by the said person within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration :

Provided also that where the registration has been cancelled with retrospective effect, the registered person shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.]

(2) (a) Where the proper officer is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that there are sufficient grounds for revocation of cancellation of registration, he shall revoke the cancellation of registration by an order in FORM GST REG-22 within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the application and communicate the same to the applicant.

(b) The proper officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, under circumstances other than those specified in clause (a), by an order in FORM GST REG-05, reject the application for revocation of cancellation of registration and communicate the same to the applicant.

(3) The proper officer shall, before passing the order referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (2), issue a notice in FORM GST REG-23 requiring the applicant to show cause as to why the application submitted for revocation under sub-rule (1) should not be rejected and the applicant shall furnish the reply within a period of seven working days from the date of the service of the notice in FORM GST REG-24.

(4) Upon receipt of the information or clarification in FORM GST REG-24, the proper officer shall proceed to dispose of the application in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of such information or clarification from the applicant.

10. Further, I find that the Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs, New Delhi has clarified the issue vide circular No. 99/18/2019-GST dated 23.04.2019. Para 3 of said circular read as under:

3. First proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules provides that if the registration has been cancelled on account of failure of the registered person to furnish returns, no application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall be filed, unless such returns are furnished and any amount in terms of such returns is paid. Thus, where the registration has been cancelled with effect from the date of order of cancellation of registration, all returns due till the date of such cancellation are required to be furnished before the application for revocation can be filed. Further, in such cases, in terms of the second proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules, all returns required to be furnished in respect of the period from the date of order of cancellation till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration have to be furnished within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of revocation.

11. On going through the records/submissions, I find that the "Appellant" has filed the GST Returns up to June'2021 in the date of cancellation of registration. Further, the "Appellant" in the present appeal has also submitted that once their GST Registration gets activated they will file all the pending GST Returns with payment of Tax, fine, penalty. Further, I find that the appellant has submitted in appeal memo that they have paid tax with late fees on 01.02.2022 of Rs.95,862/- and interest of Rs.20,526/- on 29.04.2022 and in support of same produced the copies of challans. In view of foregoing facts, I find that the "Appellant" has complied with the above said provisions in the instant case. Needless to say that the "Appellant" shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.

12. In view of above discussions, I am of the opinion that the registration of "Appellant" may be considered for revocation by the proper officer subject to due compliance of the conditions by the "Appellant" under Rule 23(1) of CGST Rules, 2017. Accordingly, I allow the appeal of the "Appellant" and order to the proper officer to consider the revocation application of the "Appellant" after due verification of payment particulars of tax, penalty, late fee, interest and status of returns.
