ORDER IN APPEAL*Brief Facts of the Case :-

This appeal has been filed under Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") by M/s. Dhanashri Technical Services Private Limited (Legal Name – Vinod Nayal), C 102, Shalin Heights 3, Ayojan Nagar, Near Hathijan Circle, Vinzol, Ahmedabad – 382445 (hereinafter referred to as "Appellant") against the Order No. ZA2402220564116 dated 11.02.2022 (hereinafter referred to as "impugned order") passed by the Superintendent, CGST, Ahmedabad South (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority/ Proper Officer").

2. Facts of the case, in brief, are that the appellant is registered under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 vide GST Registration GSTIN 24AAHCD3529K1ZL. A Show Cause Notice was issued to the appellant, wherein it was proposed that registration is liable to be cancelled for the reasons of non filing of Returns for a continuous period of six months. Thereafter, the registration was cancelled vide impugned order under Section 29 of the CGST Act, 2017 on 11.02.2022 on the grounds "NO RESPONSE RECEIVED. HENCE, GSTIN REGISTRATION IS CANCELLED". As per the impugned order the effective date of cancellation of registration is 16.12.2021.

3(i). Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant has preferred the present appeal. In the appeal memo the appellant has submitted that –

- Cancellation of GST registration by the Adjudicating Authority on the contention that Taxpayer has not filed returns for a continuous period of six months and no reply to show cause has been submitted.
- In response to SCN, served through an online portal that neither the taxpayer nor his representative appeared before the authority and failed to submit reply/ documents.
- An ex-parte order was passed cancelling registration without providing them proper opportunity. SCN is invalid as without DIN.
- They have hardship of payments as well as health issues.

In view of above, the appellant has requested to activate their cancelled GST registration.

3(i). Further, the appellant has submitted the application dated 05.09.2022 (submitted on 13.10.22) for condonation of delay of filing of present appeal. In the said application the appellant has stated that –

- This is with reference to GST APL.01 ARN AD240722009592A dated 26.07.2022.
- Their entire work was stopped during corona pandemic. For some time they kept trying and also filed returns. But later due to illness in the family and due to an operation done on Director of company, they completely in financially troubled. Due to which they could not file returns.
- They apologize and promise that in future there will never be such mistake and humbly requested to accept the application and condone the delay of filing in appeal.

Personal Hearing :-

4. Personal Hearing in the matter was held on 25.11.2022 wherein, Mr. Sandip Mahendrabhai Shah, Tax Practitioner appeared as authorized representative. During Personal Hearing he has stated that they have nothing more to add to their written submissions till date.

Discussion and Findings :-

5. I have gone through the facts of the case, written submissions made by the 'appellant'. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time- limit and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation/restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer.

6. First of all, I would like to take up the issue of filing the appeal and before deciding the issue of filing the appeal on merits, it is imperative that the statutory provisions be gone through, which are reproduced, below:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(3) .....

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

7(i). I observed from the submission of appellant that in the instant case the appeal has been filed online on 20.06.2022 and Submitted the copy of order appealed against on 26.07.2022.

Accordingly, it is pertinent to refer Rule 108 of the CGST Rules, 2017. The same is reproduced as under :

Rule 108. Appeal to the Appellate Authority.-

(1) An appeal to the Appellate Authority under sub-section (1) of section 107 shall be filed in FORM GST APL-01, along with the relevant documents, either electronically or otherwise as may be notified by the Commissioner, and a provisional acknowledgement shall be issued to the appellant immediately.

(2) The grounds of appeal and the form of verification as contained in FORM GST APL-01 shall be signed in the manner specified in rule 26.

(3) A certified copy of the decision or order appealed against shall be submitted within seven days of filing of appeal under sub-rule (1) and a final acknowledgement, indicating appeal number shall be issued thereafter in FORM GST APL-02 by the Appellate Authority or an officer authorised by him in this behalf:

Provided that where the certified copy of the decision or order is submitted within seven days from the date of filing the FORM GST APL-01, the date of filing of the appeal shall be the date of the issue of the provisional acknowledgement and where the said copy is submitted after seven days, the date of filing of the appeal shall be the date of the submission of such copy.

Explanation. -For the provisions of this rule, the appeal shall be treated as filed only when the final acknowledgement, indicating the appeal number, is issued.

Accordingly, in view of above provisions, I observed that in the instant case the appeal has been filed on 26.07.2022 i.e. appeal filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.

7(ii). However, in the above context, I find that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has passed order on 10.01.2022 in matter of Miscellaneous Application No. 21 of 2022 in M.A. 665 of 2021, in SMW(C) No. 3 of 2020. Hon'ble Supreme Court vide Order dated 10.01.2022 ordered that for computing period of limitation for any suit, appeal, application or proceedings the period from 15.03.2020 till 28.02.2022 shall stand excluded and consequently balance period of limitation remaining as on 03.10.2021 if any, shall become available with effect from 01.03.2022 and that in cases where the limitation would have expired during the period from 15.03.2020 till 28.02.2022 notwithstanding the actual balance period of limitation remaining, all persons shall have a limitation period of 90 days from 01.03.2022.

7(iii). In the present matter, the "impugned order" is of 11.02.2022 so, the normal appeal period of three months was available up to 10.05.2022 whereas, the present appeal is filed on 26.07.2022. However, in view of above order of Hon'ble Supreme Court by excluding the period from 15.03.2020 till 28.02.2022 and considering 90 days from 01.03.22, the last date for filing of appeal comes to 29.05.2022. In the present matter the appeal is filed on 26.07.2022. Accordingly, in view of foregoing I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. Further, looking to the COD application of Appellant, I observed that even after condoning delay of filing of appeal for a further period of one month as per provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 the last date for filing of appeal comes on 29.06.2022, whereas the present appeal is filed on 26.07.2022.

8. In view of foregoing, I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit prescribed under the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. Accordingly, I find that the further proceedings in case of present appeal can be taken up for consideration strictly as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act, 2017.

9. I find that this appellate authority is a creature of the statute and has to act as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act. This appellate authority, therefore, cannot condone delay beyond the period permissible under the CGST Act. When the legislature has intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning further delay of only one month, this appellate authority cannot go beyond the power vested by the legislature. My views are supported by the following case laws:

(i) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Singh Enterprises reported as 2008 (221) E.L.T.163 (S.C.) has held as under:

"8. ...The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only upto 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days period."

(ii) In the case of Makjai Laboratories Pvt Ltd reported as 2011 (274) E.L.T. 48 (Bom.), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that the Commissioner (Appeals) cannot condone delay beyond further period of 30 days from initial period of 60 days and that provisions of Limitation Act, 1963 is not applicable in such cases as Commissioner (Appeals) is not a court.

(iii) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of Delta Impex reported as 2004 (173) E.L.T. 449 (Del) held that the Appellate authority has no jurisdiction to extend limitation even in a "suitable" case for a further period of more than thirty days.

10. I find that the provisions of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 are pari materia with the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 and Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and hence, the above judgments would be squarely applicable to the present appeal also.

11. By respectfully following the above judgments, I hold that this appellate authority cannot condone delay beyond further period of one month as prescribed under proviso to Section 107(4) of the Act. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is required to be dismissed on the grounds of limitation as not filed within the prescribed time limit in terms of the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. I, accordingly, dismiss the present appeal.

अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
