ORDER IN APPEALBrief Facts of the Case :-

This appeal has been filed under Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") by M/s. Kevin Modular Furniture, (Legal Name – Manharbhai Jayantilal Vaghela), GF 80, Shiv Sukhnagar, opposite Ambaji Mandir, Ratanpura Gaam, Vastral, Ahmedabad Gujarat – 382418 (hereinafter referred to as "Appellant") against the Order No. ZA240123052133A dated 10.01.2023 (hereinafter referred to as "Impugned Order") passed by the Superintendent, CGST, Range-I, Division-1-Rakhial, Ahmedabad South Commissionerate (hereinafter referred to as "the Adjudicating Authority/Proper Officer").

2. Facts of the case, in brief, are that the appellant is engaged in business of manufacturing of house hold furniture products. Hey also provide service of after sales service to the customers. The appellant is registered under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 vide GST Registration No. 24AMYPV9053A1ZK. The appellant was issued show cause notice dated 08.10.2022 and subsequently, the adjudicating authority /proper officer has passed the impugned order dated 10.01.2023 on the following grounds:

1. "GSTR 3B return not filed from April 2022. Hence registration is cancelled with effect from 01.04.2022".

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order dated 10.01.2023 the appellant has preferred the present appeal online on 28.08.2023 alongwith certified copies of the relevant documents against the impugned order, inter alia, contending that:

"that they failed to furnish returns within time limits due to sudden death of his mother in corona pandemic. Due to sudden incident they faced heavy financial crisis; that their bussiness fall down due to financial weak position in business. They now recover from suffering money crisis and want to evocate GSTN and want to fresh start of their failed business. The appellant want relief for minimum late fees scheme and want to file all the pending GST returns with applicable interest and late fees" and requested to re active cancelled GSTN.

Personal Hearing:-

4. Personal hearing in the case was fixed/held on 10.10.2023 and 25.10.2023. Shri Manarbhai Vaghela, Proprietor, appeared in person in the personal hearing on 25.10.2023 as authorized representative. During the PH, he stated that appeal is filed beyond the appeal period, as C.A. is expired and my father who looks after business who is also expired. There is not tax liability exist. Looking into above situation requested to allow appeal. He further submitted that he is only 4th standard pass and is craftsman. In view of above requested to allow appeal.

Discussion and Findings :-

5. I have gone through the facts of the case, written submissions made by the 'appellant'. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time- limit and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation/restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer.

6. First of all, I would like to take up the issue of filing the appeal and before deciding the issue of filing the appeal on merits, it is imperative that the statutory provisions be gone through, which are reproduced, below:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(4) *The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

7(i). I observed that in the instant case that as against the impugned order of dated 10.01.2023, the appeal has been filed online on 28.08.2023 i.e. appeal filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.

7(ii). In the present matter, the "impugned order" is of 10.01.2023 so, the normal appeal period of three months was available up to 10.04.2023 whereas, the present appeal is filed online on 28.08.2023. However, considering 90 days from 10.01.2023, the date for filing of appeal comes to 10.04.2023. In the present matter the appeal is filed on 28.08.2023. Accordingly, in view of foregoing I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. Further, looking to the condonation of delay request of Appellant, I observed that even after condoning delay of filing of appeal for a further period of one month as per provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 the last date for filing of appeal comes on 10.05.2023, whereas the present appeal is filed on 28.08.2023.

8. In view of foregoing, I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit prescribed under the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. Accordingly, I find that the further proceedings in case of present appeal can be taken up for consideration strictly as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act, 2017.

9. I find that this appellate authority is a creature of the statute and has to act as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act. This appellate authority, therefore, cannot condone delay beyond the period permissible under the CGST Act. When the legislature has intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning further delay of only one month, this appellate authority cannot go beyond the power vested by the legislature. My views are supported by the following case laws:

(i) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Singh Enterprises reported as 2008 (221) E.L.T.163 (S.C.) has held as under:

"8. ...The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only upto 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days period."

In the case of Makjai Laboratories Pvt Ltd reported as 2011 (274) E.L.T. 48 (Bom.), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that the Commissioner (Appeals) cannot condone delay beyond further period of 30 days from initial period of 60 days and that provisions of Limitation Act, 1963 is not applicable in such cases as Commissioner (Appeals) is not a Court.

(iii) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of Delta Impex reported as 2004 (173) E.L.T. 449 (Del) held that the Appellate authority has no jurisdiction to extend limitation even in a "suitable" case for a further period of more than thirty days.

10. I find that the provisions of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 are parimateria with the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 and Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and hence, the above judgments would be squarely applicable to the present appeal also.

11. By following the above judgments, I hold that this appellate authority cannot condone delay beyond further period of one month as prescribed under proviso to Section 107(4) of the Act. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is required to be rejected on the grounds of limitation as not filed within the prescribed time limit in terms of the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. I, accordingly, reject the present appeal.

अपीलकर्ताद्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
