ORDER IN APPEALBrief Facts of the Case :-

This appeal has been filed under Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") by M/s. Immense Retail Private Limited (Legal Name – Immense Retail Private Limited), Upperground Level, 08, Ratnadeep Building, Nr. Lohabhavan, Old High Court Road, Navrangpura, Ahmedabad, Gujarat – 380009 (hereinafter referred to as "Appellant") against the Order No. ZA240323086490Q dated 17.03.2023 (hereinafter referred to as "Impugned Order") passed by the Superintendent, CGST, Dn.I, Ahmedabad South Comm'te. (hereinafter referred to as "the Adjudicating Authority/Proper Officer").

2. Brief facts of the case are that the appellant is registered under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 vide GST Registration GSTIN 24AAFCI9201H1ZS for carrying out their trading business activity of Consumable Product, Packing materials, Articles of Plastic Products, /duty Credit Script since January'2021. A Show Cause Notice dated 02.02.2023 was issued to the appellant, wherein it was proposed that registration is liable to be cancelled for the reasons of failure to furnish returns for a continuous period of six months. The appellant had not filed their returns since July'2022. Thereafter, the registration was cancelled vide impugned order for the reasons reply received. RETURNS PENDING SINCE JULY'2022. HENCE CANCELLED F.01.07.2022", with a direction to furnish a final return i.e.GSTR-10 within six months of the date of cancellation and as per Section 44 of CGST Act, 2017. The registration is cancelled with effect from 01.07.2022.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order dated 17.03.2023 the appellant has preferred the present appeal on 27.10.2023. In the appeal memo the appellant has submitted that –

- Due to COVID they had no business which resulted in closing their business and not filed their GST returns,
- GSTR is an entirely new law for taxpayers, government and also for consultants bringing change some kind of notifications and clarifications day in day out related to GST;
- The Board waived late fee vide Notification No.76/2018-Central Tax dated 31.12.2018 considering interest and gravity of matter.
- Requested to revoke their cancellation of GST registration so as to start the business smoothly with assurance to comply with all returns within due date.

PERSONAL HEARING

4. Personal Hearing in the matter was held on 11.12.2023 whereby Shri. Jinesh Nemish Shah, C.A., appeared before me as authorized representative on behalf of the appellant. He reiterated the written submissions. Further, submitted that due to ill health of the Director, they could not file the Returns and Registration was cancelled. They are ready to pay all dues/late fee and requested to allow appeal.

DISCUSSIONS & FINDINGS

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case and appeal memorandum/grounds of appeal. In the instant matter the present appeal is filed by appellant on 27.10.2023 against the Order-in-Original dated 17.03.2023. Therefore, first of all, I would like to take up the issue of filing the appeal and before deciding the issue of filing the appeal on merits, it is imperative that the statutory provisions be gone through, which are reproduced, below:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

6. I observed that in the instant case that as against the impugned order of dated 17.03.2023, the appeal has been filed on 27.10.2023 i.e. appeal filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.

7. In the present matter, the "impugned order" and date of communication of order is of 27.10.2023 so, the normal appeal period of three months was available up to 16.06.2023 whereas, the present appeal is filed on 27.10.2023. Accordingly, in view of foregoing I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. Further, looking to the provisions of condonation of delay, I observed that even after condoning delay of filing of appeal for a further period of one month as per provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 the last date for filing of appeal comes on 16.07.2023, whereas the present appeal is filed on 27.10.2023.

8. In view of foregoing, I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit prescribed under the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. Accordingly, I find that the further proceedings in case of present appeal can be taken up for consideration strictly as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act, 2017.

9. I find that this appellate authority is a creature of the statute and has to act as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act. This appellate authority, therefore, cannot condone delay beyond the period permissible under the CGST Act. When the legislature has intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning further delay of only one month, this appellate authority cannot go beyond the power vested by the legislature. My views are supported by the following case

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Singh Enterprises reported as 2008 (221) E.L.T.163 (S.C.) has held as under:

"8. ...The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only upto 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days period."

(ii) In the case of Makjai Laboratories Pvt Ltd reported as 2011 (274) E.L.T. 48 (Bom.), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that the Commissioner (Appeals) cannot condone delay beyond further period of 30 days from initial period of 60 days and that provisions of Limitation Act, 1963 is not applicable in such cases as Commissioner (Appeals) is not a Court.

- (iii) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of Delta Impex reported as 2004 (173) E.L.T. 449 (Del) held that the Appellate authority has no jurisdiction to extend limitation even in a "suitable" case for a further period of more than thirty days.

10. I find that the provisions of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 are parimateria with the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 and Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and hence, the above judgments would be squarely applicable to the present appeal also.

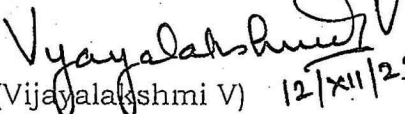

11. By following the above judgments, I hold that this appellate authority cannot condone delay beyond further period of one month as prescribed under proviso to Section 107(4) of the Act. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is required to be dismissed on the grounds of limitation as not filed within the prescribed time limit in terms of the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. I, accordingly, dismiss the present appeal.

12. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील कानिपटाराउपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
