ORDER IN APPEALBrief Facts of the Case :-

This appeal has been filed under Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") by M/s. Pragati Incorporation (Legal Name – Pratibha Gordhansingh Samar), 318, Super Mall, Near Lal Bunglow, C. G. Road, Navrangpura, Ahmedabad – 380 009 (hereinafter referred to as "Appellant") against the Order No. ZA2403230503524 dated 10.03.2023 (hereinafter referred to as "impugned order") passed by the Superintendent, CGST, Ahmedabad South (hereinafter referred to as "the Adjudicating Authority/ Proper Officer").

2. Facts of the case, in brief, are that the appellant is registered under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 vide GST Registration GSTIN No. 24AFRPS1293K1ZU. The GST registration of the appellant has been cancelled by the 'Proper Officer' vide 'impugned order' dated 10.03.2023 for the reason - "The Tax Payer not responded to SCN dated 08.10.2022 nor appeared for hearing as per schedule. Thus, the notice for cancellation is approved and registration cancelled in terms of Section 29(2) of the CGST Act, 2017 w.e.f. next date of period for which last GSTR-3B is filed". The registration is cancelled with effect from 14.04.2022. Further, as per the impugned order the adjudicating authority has advised the appellant for filing of pending returns and makes application for revocation to Divisional AC/DC after payment of all tax, late fee & interest etc.

3. Being aggrieved with the 'impugned order', the 'appellant' has preferred this appeal online on 30.06.2023. The appellant has submitted that they were unable to file their GST Returns because they have dispute with their GST Consultant regarding fees and scope of work, hence, he has not filed the GST Returns regularly. The appellant has further submitted in the appeal memorandum that they received show cause notice for cancellation of registration, directing them to furnish reply within thirty days. They were not able to submit the reply in due course of time owing to non-availability of accountant. Afterwards, the Ld. Officer had passed the order for cancellation of registration on 10.03.2023 making retrospective cancellation of registration w.e.f. 14.04.2022. The said order passed without following the principal of natural justice.

4. Personal Hearing in the matter was held on 19.07.2023 wherein Mrs. Pratibha Samar, Proprietor appeared on behalf of the appellant as authorized representative. During PH she has stated that due to some family issue, they could not file returns on time. Now they are willing to pay all dues including late fees, penalty etc. and submitted to revoke their cancelled registration at the earliest. And also requested for condoning the delay occurred in filing of present appeal on the grounds as mentioned in appeal memo.

Discussion and Findings :-

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time- limit and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation/restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer.

6. First of all, I would like to take up the issue of filing the appeal and before deciding the issue of filing the appeal on merits, it is imperative that the statutory provisions be gone through, which are reproduced, below:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

7(i). I observed that in the instant case that as against the impugned order of dated 10.03.2023, the appeal has been filed online on 30.06.2023 i.e. appeal filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.

7(ii). In the present matter, the "impugned order" is of 10.03.2023 so, the normal appeal period of three months was available up to 09.06.2023 whereas, the present appeal is filed online on 30.06.2023. Accordingly, in view of foregoing I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. In this regard, I find that the appellant has made request in the present appeal for condoning the delay occurred in filing appeal. In light of Section 107(4) of the CGST Act, 2017 by condoning the delay of one month the last date for filing of appeal comes to 09.07.2023 and present appeal is filed online on 30.06.2023.

8. In view of above request of appellant to condone delay of few days in the instant matter, I am inclined to condone the delay of filing of appeal. Accordingly, I find that the present appeal is considered to be filed within the stipulated time limit. Accordingly, I am proceeded to decide the case.

9. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, written submissions made by the "Appellant". I find that the adjudicating authority/proper officer has cancelled the registration with effect from 14.04.2022 as the "Appellant" failed to file the GST Returns.

Further, I find that the provisions of revocation of cancellation of registration when the same is cancelled by the proper officer on suo moto basis are contained in Section 30 of the CGST Act, 2017 and Rule 23 of the CGST Rules, 2017. Therefore, I find it pertinent to refer Section 30 and Rule 23 as under: -

SECTION 30. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order :

[Provided that such period may, on sufficient cause being shown, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended, -

(a) by the Additional Commissioner or the Joint Commissioner, as the case may be, for a period not exceeding thirty days;

(b) by the Commissioner, for a further period not exceeding thirty days, beyond the period specified in clause (a).]

(2) The proper officer may, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, by order, either revoke cancellation of the registration or reject the application :

Provided that the application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall not be rejected unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The revocation of cancellation of registration under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be a revocation of cancellation of registration under this Act.

RULE 23. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1) A registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may submit an application for revocation of cancellation of registration, in FORM GST REG-21, to such proper officer, within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order of cancellation of registration at the common portal, either directly or through a Facilitation Centre notified by the Commissioner :

Provided that no application for revocation shall be filed, if the registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns :

[Provided further that all returns due for the period from the date of the order of cancellation of registration till the date of the order of revocation of cancellation of registration shall be furnished by the said person within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration :

Provided also that where the registration has been cancelled with retrospective effect, the registered person shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.]

(2) (a) Where the proper officer is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that there are sufficient grounds for revocation of cancellation of registration, he shall revoke the cancellation of registration by an order in FORM GST REG-22 within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the application and communicate the same to the applicant.

(b) The proper officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, under circumstances other than those specified in clause (a), by an order in FORM GST REG-05*, reject the application for revocation of cancellation of registration and communicate the same to the applicant.

(3) The proper officer shall, before passing the order referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (2), issue a notice in FORM GST REG-23 requiring the applicant to show cause as to why the application submitted for revocation under sub-rule (1) should not be rejected and the applicant shall furnish the reply within a period of seven working days from the date of the service of the notice in FORM GST REG-24.

(4) Upon receipt of the information or clarification in FORM GST REG-24, the proper officer shall proceed to dispose of the application in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of such information or clarification from the applicant.

10. Further, I find that the Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs, New Delhi has clarified the issue vide circular No. 99/18/2019-GST dated 23.04.2019. Para 3 of said circular read as under:

3. First proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules provides that if the registration has been cancelled on account of failure of the registered person to furnish returns, no application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall be filed, unless such returns are furnished and any amount in terms of such returns is paid. Thus, where the registration has been cancelled with effect from the date of order of cancellation of registration, all returns due till the date of such cancellation are required to be furnished before the application for revocation can be filed. Further, in such cases, in terms of the second proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules, all returns required to be furnished in respect of the period from the date of order of cancellation till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration have to be furnished within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of revocation.

11. On going through the records/submissions, returns filing status on GST Portal, I find that the "Appellant" has filed the GSTR-1 & GSTR-3B up to April'2022 i.e. up to the date of cancellation of registration. Further, the appellant has submitted that they are ready to pay all dues including late fees, penalty etc. Since, the appellant has filed the GSTR 1 & GSTR 3B Returns till the date of cancellation of GST Registration, I find that the "Appellant" has complied with the above said provisions in the instant case. Needless to say that the "Appellant" shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.

12. In view of above discussions, I am of the opinion that the registration of "Appellant" may be considered for revocation by the proper officer subject to due compliance of the conditions by the "Appellant" under Rule 23(1) of CGST Rules, 2017. Accordingly, I allow the appeal of the "Appellant" and order to the proper officer to consider the revocation application of the "Appellant" after due verification of payment particulars of tax, penalty, late fee, interest and status of returns.
