ORDER IN APPEALBrief Facts of the Case :-

This appeal has been filed under Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") by M/s. Kashis Enterprise (Legal Name – Dharmendra Dineshbhai Tosavada), 51, Kartikey Co. O. Ratanpura, Vastral, Ahmedabad – 382 415 (hereinafter referred to as "Appellant") against the Order No. ZA240123102311L dated 16.01.2023 (hereinafter referred to as "impugned order") passed by the Superintendent, CGST, Ahmedabad South (hereinafter referred to as "the Adjudicating Authority/ Proper Officer").

2. Facts of the case, in brief, are that the appellant is registered under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 vide GST Registration GSTIN No. 24APYPT7847M1ZL. A Show Cause Notice dated 09.11.2022 was issued to the appellant, wherein it was proposed that registration is liable to be cancelled for the reason of "failure to furnish returns for a continuous period of six months". Thereafter, the registration was cancelled by the 'Proper Officer' vide 'impugned order' dated 16.01.2023 for the reason - "GSTR 3B not filed from April 2022". The registration was cancelled with effect from 01.04.2022.

3. Being aggrieved with the 'impugned order', the 'appellant' has preferred this appeal online on 05.05.2023. The appellant being proprietor of the firm has stated through affidavit that they have filed the GST Returns till March'2022 i.e. till the date of cancellation of their registration. Further, as their GST Registration is cancelled due to non filing of returns from April 2022, they have calculated their GST liability for period from April'22 to March'23 and paid the same. The appellant has further stated in the affidavit that they are agreed to discharge further GST liability of Tax, Interest, Late Fee etc. if any arises, within five days once their GST Registration gets activated/restored. The appellant has further given undertaking that now onwards they will regularly file GST Returns. As regards to failure to furnish GST returns the appellant has stated that due to health problem of their consultant they have not filed the returns in time. Now, they want to active their GSTIN for smooth running of their business. Accordingly, the appellant has requested to allow their appeal for revocation of cancelled registration. The appellant has further submitted that the present appeal is filed by delay as due to bad health the consultant has neither filed the GST returns from April'2022 nor informed to the appellant about cancellation of their GST registration. However, it has come to knowledge of appellant through their creditors that GSTIN is inactive. Accordingly, the appellant has requested to condone the delay in filing of present appeal.

4. Personal Hearing in the matter was held on 12.07.2023 wherein Sh. Ronak Shah, CA appeared on behalf of the appellant as authorized representative. During PH he has stated that the consultant to whom the Return filing work was entrusted has failed to file GST Returns ; that when it came to their notice, the Registration was already cancelled ; that they are ready to pay all dues along with interest and penalty.

Discussion and Findings :-

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case. I find that the main issue to be decided in the instant case is (i) whether the appeal has been filed within the prescribed time- limit and (ii) whether the appeal filed against the order of cancellation of registration can be considered for revocation/restoration of cancelled registration by the proper officer.

First of all, I would like to take up the issue of filing the appeal and before deciding the issue of filing the appeal on merits, it is imperative that the statutory provisions be gone through, which are reproduced, below:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

(4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

7(i). I observed that in the instant case that as against the impugned order of dated 16.01.2023, the appeal has been filed online on 05.05.2023 i.e. appeal filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.

7(ii). In the present matter, the “impugned order” is of 16.01.2023 so, the normal appeal period of three months was available up to 15.04.2023 whereas, the present appeal is filed online on 05.05.2023. Accordingly, in view of foregoing I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. In this regard, I find that the appellant has submitted the COD (Condonation of Delay) and requested to condone the delay. The appellant vide COD application submitted that the consultant to whom the GST Returns filing work was entrusted had neither informed them about non filing of returns nor about cancellation of their GST Registration and accordingly they failed to file the present appeal in time. In light of Section 107(4) of the CGST Act, 2017 by condoning the delay of one month the last date for filing of appeal comes to 15.05.2023 and present appeal is filed online on 05.05.2023.

In view of above request of appellant to condone delay of few days in the instant matter, I am inclined to condone the delay of filing of appeal. Accordingly, I find that the present appeal is considered to be filed within the stipulated time limit. Accordingly, I am proceeded to decide the case.

9. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, written submissions made by the “Appellant”. I find that the adjudicating authority/proper officer has cancelled the registration with effect from 01.04.2022 as the “Appellant” failed to file the GST Returns.

Further, I find that the provisions of revocation of cancellation of registration when the same is cancelled by the proper officer on suo moto basis are contained in Section 30 of the CGST Act, 2017 and Rule 23 of the CGST Rules, 2017. Therefore, I find it pertinent to refer Section 30 and Rule 23 as under: -

SECTION 30. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may apply to such officer for revocation of cancellation of the registration in the prescribed manner within thirty days from the date of service of the cancellation order :

[Provided that such period may, on sufficient cause being shown, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended, -

(a) by the Additional Commissioner or the Joint Commissioner, as the case may be, for a period not exceeding thirty days;

(b) by the Commissioner, for a further period not exceeding thirty days, beyond the period specified in clause (a).]

(2) The proper officer may, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, by order, either revoke cancellation of the registration or reject the application :

Provided that the application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall not be rejected unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The revocation of cancellation of registration under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be a revocation of cancellation of registration under this Act.

RULE 23. Revocation of cancellation of registration. — (1) A registered person, whose registration is cancelled by the proper officer on his own motion, may submit an application for revocation of cancellation of registration, in FORM GST REG-21, to such proper officer, within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order of cancellation of registration at the common portal, either directly or through a Facilitation Centre notified by the Commissioner :

Provided that no application for revocation shall be filed, if the registration has been cancelled for the failure of the registered person to furnish returns, unless such returns are furnished and any amount due as tax, in terms of such returns, has been paid along with any amount payable towards interest, penalty and late fee in respect of the said returns :

[Provided further that all returns due for the period from the date of the order of cancellation of registration till the date of the order of revocation of cancellation of registration shall be furnished by the said person within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration :

Provided also that where the registration has been cancelled with retrospective effect, the registered person shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.]

(2) (a) Where the proper officer is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that there are sufficient grounds for revocation of cancellation of registration, he shall revoke the cancellation of registration by an order in FORM GST REG-22 within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the application and communicate the same to the applicant.

(b) The proper officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, under circumstances other than those specified in clause (a), by an order in FORM GST REG-05, reject the application for revocation of cancellation of registration and communicate the same to the applicant.

(3) The proper officer shall, before passing the order referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (2), issue a notice in FORM GST REG-23 requiring the applicant to show cause as to why the application submitted for revocation under sub-rule (1) should not be rejected and the applicant shall furnish the reply within a period of seven working days from the date of the service of the notice in FORM GST REG-24.

(4) Upon receipt of the information or clarification in FORM GST REG-24, the proper officer shall proceed to dispose of the application in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of such information or clarification from the applicant.

Further, I find that the Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs, New Delhi has clarified the issue vide circular No. 99/18/2019-GST dated 23.04.2019. Para 3 of said circular read as under:

3. First proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules provides that if the registration has been cancelled on account of failure of the registered person to furnish returns, no application for revocation of cancellation of registration shall be filed, unless such returns are furnished and any amount in terms of such returns is paid. Thus, where the registration has been cancelled with effect from the date of order of cancellation of registration, all returns due till the date of such cancellation are required to be furnished before the application for revocation can be filed. Further, in such cases, in terms of the second proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 23 of the said Rules, all returns required to be furnished in respect of the period from the date of order of cancellation till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration have to be furnished within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of revocation.

11. On going through the records/submissions, returns filing status on GST Portal, I find that the "Appellant" has filed the GSTR-1 up to June'2022 and GSTR-3B up to March'2022 i.e. up to the date of cancellation of registration. Further, the appellant has submitted that they want to active their GSTIN for smooth running of their business ; that they have paid approximate late fees and their taxability is nil due to having excess credit and they are ready to pay other tax or late fees if any due at the time of filing actual return. The appellant has further submitted that they will pay tax and file returns on time now onwards. Since, the appellant has filed the GSTR 1 & GSTR 3B Returns till the date of cancellation of GST Registration, I find that the "Appellant" has complied with the above said provisions in the instant case. Needless to say that the "Appellant" shall furnish all returns relating to period from the effective date of cancellation of registration till the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration within a period of thirty days from the date of order of revocation of cancellation of registration.

12. In view of above discussions, I am of the opinion that the registration of "Appellant" may be considered for revocation by the proper officer subject to due compliance of the conditions by the "Appellant" under Rule 23(1) of CGST Rules, 2017. Accordingly, I allow the appeal of the "Appellant" and order to the proper officer to consider the revocation application of the "Appellant" after due verification of payment particulars of tax, penalty, late fee, interest and status of returns.
