ORDER IN APPEALBrief Facts of the Case :-

This appeal has been filed under Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") by M/s. Cloudland Entertainment (Legal Name - Bhaumik Dharmendrabhai Patel), 8th floor, 805, Aaryan Work Space 2, Nr. Navkar Classes, Gulbai Tekra, Ahmedabad Gujarat 380015 (hereinafter referred to as "Appellant") against the Order No. ZA240223004701B dated 01.02.2023 (hereinafter referred to as "Impugned Order") passed by the Superintendent, CGST, Dn.VII, Ahmedabad South Comm'te. (hereinafter referred to as "the Adjudicating Authority/Proper Officer").

2. Brief facts of the case are that the appellant is registered under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 vide GST Registration GSTIN 24COYPP2997B1ZB for carrying out their business. A Show Cause Notice dated 08.11.2022 was issued to the appellant, wherein it was proposed that registration is liable to be cancelled for the reasons of failure to furnish returns for a continuous period of six months. The appellant had not filed their returns after March'2022. Thereafter, the registration was cancelled vide impugned order for the reasons "The tax payer has not filed returns after March'2022, hence GSTN is being cancelled w.e.f. 01.04.2022", with a direction to pay their pending dues. The registration is cancelled with effect from 01.04.2022.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order dated 01.02.2023 the appellant has preferred the present appeal on 29.03.2024. In the appeal memo the appellant has submitted that -

- ❖ At the outset the appellant refuted all accusations fabricated against him in totality. The contentions made in the SCN are fallacious and incorrect and are based entirely on assumptions and presumptions and without appraising the facts and circumstances from the legal perspectives.
- ❖ Their authorized representative appeared before the proper officer and explained that the appellant had been undergoing medical treatment since January'2020 and assured that they comply with all pending GST returns from April'2022.
- ❖ The appellant was consistently under medical treatment due to severe health issues from January 8,2020. During such battle for life, it had been extremely challenging for him to fulfill the requirements of GST compliance in a timely manner.

With the above submissions, the appellant has requested to allow their appeal and requested for revocation of the cancellation of registration.

PERSONAL HEARING

4. Personal Hearing in the matter was heard on 08.04.2024 whereby Shri Ashish Mehta, Chartered Accountant appeared before me on behalf of the appellant as authorized representative. He submitted that due to ill health of the proprietor, they could not file GSTR-3B on time. Further they are ready to pay the pending dues and requested to allow appeal.

DISCUSSION & FINDINGS

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case and appeal memorandum/grounds of appeal. In the instant matter the present appeal is filed by appellant on 29.03.2024 against the Order-in-Original dated 01.02.2023. Therefore, first of all, I would like to take up the issue of filing the appeal and before deciding the issue of filing the appeal on merits, it is imperative that the statutory provisions be gone through, which are reproduced, below:

SECTION 107. Appeals to Appellate Authority. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act or the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by an adjudicating authority may appeal to such Appellate Authority as may be prescribed within three months from the date on which the said decision or order is communicated to such person.

 (4) The Appellate Authority may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of three months or six months, as the case may be, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.

6. I observed that in the instant case that as against the impugned order of dated 01.02.2023, the appeal has been filed on 29.03.2024 i.e. appeal filed by delay from the normal period prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. I find that though the delay in filing the appeal is condonable only for a further period of one month provided that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal is shown and the delay of more than one month is not condonable under the provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017.

7. In the present matter, the “impugned order” and date of communication of order is of 01.02.2023 so, the normal appeal period of three months was available up to 01.05.2023 whereas, the present appeal is filed on 29.03.2024. Accordingly, in view of foregoing I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit as prescribed under Section 107(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. Further, looking to the provisions of condonation of delay, I observed that even after condoning delay of filing of appeal for a further period of one month as per provisions of sub section (4) of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017 the last date for filing of appeal comes on 01.06.2023, whereas the present appeal is filed on 29.03.2024.

8. In view of foregoing, I find that the present appeal is filed beyond the time limit prescribed under the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. Accordingly, I find that the further proceedings in case of present appeal can be taken up for consideration strictly as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act, 2017..

I find that this appellate authority is a creature of the statute and has to act as per the provisions contained in the CGST Act. This appellate authority, therefore, cannot condone delay beyond the period permissible under the CGST Act. When the legislature has intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning further delay of only one month, this appellate authority cannot go beyond the power vested by the legislature. My views are supported by the following case laws:

- (i) The Hon’ble Supreme Court in the case of Singh Enterprises reported as 2008 (221) E.L.T.163 (S.C.) has held as under:

“8. ...The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only upto 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days period.”

- (ii) In the case of Makjai Laboratories Pvt Ltd reported as 2011 (274) E.L.T. 48 (Bom.), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that the Commissioner (Appeals) cannot condone delay beyond further period of 30 days from initial period of 60 days and that provisions of Limitation Act, 1963 is not applicable in such cases as Commissioner (Appeals) is not a Court.
- (iii) The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of Delta Impex reported as 2004 (173) E.L.T. 449 (Del) held that the Appellate authority has no jurisdiction to extend limitation even in a "suitable" case for a further period of more than thirty days.

10. I find that the provisions of Section 107 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 are parimateria with the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 and Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and hence, the above judgments would be squarely applicable to the present appeal also.

11. By following the above judgments, I hold that this appellate authority cannot condone delay beyond further period of one month as prescribed under proviso to Section 107(4) of the Act. Thus, the appeal filed by the appellant is required to be dismissed on the grounds of limitation as not filed within the prescribed time limit in terms of the provisions of Section 107 of the CGST Act, 2017. I, accordingly, dismiss the present appeal.

12. अपीलकर्ताद्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
