ORDER-IN-APPEAL

This appeal has been filed by the Assistant Commissioner of CGST, Division-III, Ahmedabad South [hereinafter referred to as "the department"], in view of Review Order No.04/2017-18 dated 08.06.2014 of the Commissioner of CGST, Gandhinagar against Order-in-Original No.AC/61/AC/2016-17 dated 08.02.2017 [hereinafter referred to as "impugned order"] passed by the Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise, Division-III, Ahmedabad [hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority"] in respect of M/s Maxmech Equipments, PlotNo.2508, Phase-IV, GIDC, Vatva, Ahmedabad [hereinafter referred to as "the respondent"].

2. Briefly stated, based on Hon'ble CESTAT's order No.A/11798-11799/2015 dated 08.12.2015 and Principal Commissioner of Central Excise, Ahmedabad's Order-in-Original No.AHM-EXCUS-0010COM-030-16-17 dated 23.12.2016, the respondent had filed a refund claim amounting to Rs.34,64,622/- before the adjudicating authority. The said refund claim arises on account of entire amount with interest and penalty paid by the respondent towards Commissioner's OIO dated 28.07.2008 initially. The adjudicating authority has sanctioned the refund vide the impugned order.

3. Being aggrieved, the department has filed the instant appeal on the grounds that the adjudicating authority has not passed the impugned order after proper verification; that in the instant case, the respondent has not adduced any evidence of financial accounts and did not show the treatment of amount paid, whether reflected as Expenses in Profit and Loss Account of relevant period as the accounting elements in debit side of Profit and Loss account would be factored into cost; that without production of financial account Profit and Loss account for relevant period and Balance Sheet, the presumption that claimant has not passed on the burden but instead directly/indirectly factored it into cost of manufacture has not been rebutted; that thereby the respondent can't be unjustly enriched at the cost of revenue without rebutting if they passed on directly/indirectly the incidence of the amount. The department relied on various case laws wherein the issue of applicability of unjust enrichment on deposits is raised in grounds of appeal filed in High Court.

4. Personal hearing in the matter was fixed on 17.05.2018. However, the respondent, vide their letter dated 17.05.2018 waived their right of personal hearing and requested to decide the case on the basis of their submission. They submitted that the said payment in question was shown in their Balance Sheet for the relevant year against the "Advance paid under dispute" and they have not reflected the amount as expense in their Profit account for the relevant year. They furnished copy of Balance Sheet for the year 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09, duly certified by their Chartered Accountant.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case and submissions made by the department in their appeal and submissions made by the respondent.

6. At the outset, I observe that the department has challenged the refund claim sanctioned by the adjudicating authority only on the grounds that the issue of unjust enrichment involved in the matter was not considered by the adjudicating authority properly and the respondent has not adduced any documents before him at the time of sanctioning of refund claim. The adjudicating authority has contended in the impugned order that the respondent has not passed on the duty as verified from the available records, hence principle of Unjust Enrichment is not applicable to the instant case. The respondent has furnished Xerox copy of Balance Sheet of relevant periods, duly certified by the Chartered Accountant before me. On perusal of the same, I observe that they have shown the amount of Rs. 37,56,367/- , Rs.57,56,367/- and Rs.99,18,055/- during 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09 respectively against the "Loans & Advances (Asset)" -"Advance paid under dispute". The original certified copy needs to be verified. Since the appellant did not avail the personal hearing, this could not be done and needs to be done by the original adjudicating authority.

7. In view of above discussion, I remand the matter to the original adjudicating authority.

8. The appeal stands disposed of accordingly.
