ORDER IN APPEAL

M/s. Adani Power Ltd., Achalraj, Opp. Mayor Bungalow, Law Garden, Ahmedabad (hereinafter referred to as 'appellants') have filed the present appeal against the Order-in-Original number CGST-VI/REF-75/Adani Power/18-19 dated 30.07.2018 (hereinafter referred to as 'impugned order') passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST, Division-VI, Ahmedabad-South (hereinafter referred to as 'adjudicating authority').

2. The facts of the case, in brief, are that the appellants had filed a refund claim of ₹ 47,125/- before the Assistant Commissioner, CGST, Gurugram who in turn sent it to the adjudicating authority. The said refund was filed towards Central Excise duty paid on excisable goods received in their SEZ unit. The adjudicating authority, vide the impugned order, rejected the entire claim stating that the appellants had not cited any notification issued by the Department of Revenue, Ministry of Finance regarding exemption of Central Excise duty procured for operation of SEZ unit.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order the appellants filed the present appeal before me. The appellants stated that the impugned order has been issued ex-parte without serving show cause notice which is in complete violation of the principles of natural justice. Regarding the issue of procurement of inputs without payment of duty, they claimed that in terms of SEZ Act, 2005 and rules made there under, the appellants were not required to pay any duty including Customs/Central Excise duty on goods imported/procured in SEZ for carrying out authorized operations. The appellants also demanded interest for delayed payment of their refund.

4. Personal hearing in the matter was granted on 11.12.2018 and 16.01.2019. However, the appellants did not turn up to avail the benefit of personal hearing. Meanwhile, this office received a letter from the appellants requesting to decide the case on merit. They also submitted a copy of the judgment of Hon'ble CESTAT, Kolkata in their own case.

5. Meanwhile, the case was transferred to Call Book on 31.01.2019 in want of certain clarification from the senior authorities. Now that the issue has been clarified, I have ensured that the case is retrieved back, without any delay, for the purpose of disposing it off.

6. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case on records, grounds of appeal in the Appeal Memorandum and other submissions made by the appellants. As the appellants have denied the benefit of personal hearing, I take up the case ex-parte purely on the basis of merits.

7. Regarding the issue that the appellants were not given any opportunity to represent their case properly as per the principle of natural justice as no show cause notice was issued to them nor any personal hearing was allotted; I consider that the adjudication proceedings shall be conducted by observing principles of natural justice. The principles of natural justice must be followed by the authorities at all levels in all proceedings under the Act or Rules and the order passed in violation of the principles of natural justice is liable to be set aside by Appellate Authority. Natural justice is the essence of fair adjudication, deeply rooted in tradition and conscience, to be ranked as fundamental. The purpose of following the principles of natural justice is the prevention of miscarriage of justice. Natural justice has certain cardinal principles, which must be followed in every proceeding. Judicial and quasi-judicial authorities should exercise their powers fairly, reasonably and impartially in a just manner and they should not decide a matter on the basis of an enquiry unknown to the party, but should decide on the basis of material and evidence on record. Their decisions should not be biased, arbitrary or based on mere conjectures and surmises. The first and foremost principle is what is commonly known as audi alteram partem rule. It says that no one should be condemned unheard. The orders passed by the authorities should give reason for arriving at any conclusion showing proper application of mind. Violation of either of them could in the given facts and circumstances of the case, vitiate the order itself. The Supreme Court in the case of S.N. Mukherjee vs Union of India [(1990) 4 SCC 594], while referring to the practice adopted and insistence placed by the Courts in United States, emphasized the importance of recording of reasons for decisions by the administrative authorities and tribunals. It said "administrative process will best be vindicated by clarity in its exercise". The Hon'ble Supreme Court has further elaborated the legal position in the case of Siemens Engineering and Manufacturing Co. of India Ltd. v. Union of India and Anr. [AIR 1976 SC 1785], as under;

".....If courts of law are to be replaced by administrative authorities and tribunals, as indeed, in some kinds of cases, with the proliferation of Administrative Law, they may have to be so replaced, it is essential that administrative authorities and tribunals should accord fair and proper hearing to the persons sought to be affected by their orders and give sufficiently clear and explicit reasons in support of the orders made by them. Then alone administrative authorities and tribunals exercising quasi-judicial function will be able to justify their existence and carry credibility with the people by inspiring confidence in the adjudicatory process. The rule requiring reasons to be given in support of an order is, like the principle of audi alteram partem, a basic principle of natural justice which must inform every quasi-judicial process and this rule must be observed in its proper spirit and mere pretence of compliance with it would not satisfy the requirement of law. ...”.

The adjudicating authority should, therefore, bear in mind that no material should be relied in the adjudication order to support a finding against the interests of the party unless the party has been given an opportunity to rebut that material. Whenever an order is struck down as invalid being in violation of principles of natural justice, there is no final decision of the case and fresh proceedings are left upon. All that is done is to vacate the order assailed by virtue of its inherent defect, but the proceedings are not terminated. Therefore, I believe that the case needs to be remanded back so as to enable the appellants to get proper justice under the principles of natural justice.

8. In light of the above discussion, I remand back the matter to the present adjudicating authority to decide the case afresh following the principle of natural justice as per the discussion above. The appeal filed by the appellants stands disposed off on the above terms.

9. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

9. The appeals filed by the appellant stand disposed off in above terms.
