ORDER-IN-APPEAL

This appeal has been filed by M/s. Jay Travels, situated at Shop No. U/1A, Shroff Chambers, Opp. Navchetan High School, Paldi, Ahmedabad-380007 (for short "appellant") against OIO No.CGST/WS07/Ref-03/BSM/AC/2020-21 dated 29.04.2020 (for short "impugned order") passed by the Assistant Commissioner of Central GST, Division-VII, Ahmedabad South Commissionerate, Ahmedabad (for short "adjudicating authority").

2(i). The facts of the case, in brief, are that the appellant is providing service under the category of 'Travel Agent Service' (Other than Air and Rail) and holding service tax registration. On the basis of information, an enquiry/search was carried out on 16.03.2006. It was learnt that the appellant has paid the service tax upto March-2005. It was also found that during the period from April-2005 to December-2005, the appellant have received the total income of Rs.9,06,994/- as Commission but they neither paid the service tax amount of Rs.92,512/- on such receipt nor filed the ST-3 returns. The appellants paid their service tax liability in the month of March-2006 and June-2006.

2(ii). Thereafter, a Show Cause Notice (for short "SCN") was issued to the appellant on 16.08.2007 for such act of them and was subsequently adjudicated vide Order-in-Original No.SD-02/OIO No.160/09-10 dated 29.07.2009 wherein demand of Rs.92,512/- was confirmed alongwith interest and penalty was imposed under Section 76, 77 and 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 upon them. Being aggrieved with the Order-in-Original, the appellant preferred an appeal with then Commissioner (Appeals-IV), who vide Order-in-Appeal (for short "OIA") No.83/2010(STC/HKJ/Commr(A)/Ahd dated 17.03.2010 rejected the appeal and upheld the said Order-in-Original. The appellant challenged the said OIA before the Hon'ble CESTAT, Ahmedabad who vide its order dated 13.03.2012 remanded the case back to the adjudicating authority with direction to consider the specific plea of the appellant with regard to the eligibility/applicability of the benefits of exemption in terms of Notification No.06/2005-ST, after following the principles of natural justice.

2(iii). The adjudicating authority in remand proceedings, found that the ledger accounts of the appellant during the year 2004-05 had shown the commission income of Rs.6,49,872/- and hence crossed the exemption limit of Rs.4 Lakhs as prescribed under the said Notification. The commission income of the appellant during the year 2005-06 was also found to be more than the exemption limit. Therefore, the adjudicating authority passed the Order-in-Original No.SD/02/04/AC/2013-14 dated 29.08.2013 confirming demand of service tax for Rs.92,512/- alongwith interest and imposed penalty under Section 76, 77 and 78 of the Finance Act, 1994. Being aggrieved with this Order-in-Original, the appellant preferred an appeal with the Commissioner (Appeals-IV) who under Para-7(i) of OIA No. AHM-SVTAX-000-App-088-14-15 dated 27.06.2014 observed that the Hon'ble CESTAT in its order dated 13.03.2012 had found as under :

"5. After careful consideration of the submission made by both sides, I find that there being no dispute to the services rendered by the appellant under the category of Travel Agent Service, the benefit of notification which are there in the statute, should have been automatically be given to the assessee. Even in the absence of any such claim, the benefit should have been granted to them. Be that as it may, the specific plea of the assessee that they are eligible for the benefit of Notification No.6/2005-ST, can not be disregarded for the services rendered upto the first four lakhs, during the period April, 2005 to March, 2006 for which the appellant is eligible for the benefit of Notification, provided he has not crossed the limit of Rs. Four Lakhs during the preceding Financial Year. Since the issue was not taken up by the appellant before the lower authorities, in the interest of justice, this issue needs to be considered by the adjudicating authority in its correct perspective."

[Emphasis supplied]

Commissioner (Appeals-IV) also found under Para-8.2 of the said OIA that the service of Travel Agent was made taxable from 10.09.2004 and therefore the taxable value towards the said service required to be considered from 10.09.2004 to 31.03.2005 only. Therefore the Commissioner (Appeals-IV) vide his OIA No.AHM-SVTAX-000-App-088-14-15 dated 27.06.2014 remanded the matter back to adjudicating authority for ascertaining the taxable value as per the direction. He also directed the appellant to put all the evidences before the adjudicating authority in support of their contention as well as any other details/documents etc. that may be asked for by the adjudicating authority.

2(iv). The adjudicating authority in the remand proceedings offered the appellants the opportunity of personal hearing on 12.02.2015, 08.04.2015, 25.05.2015 and on 15.03.2016. However, the appellant neither attended the hearing nor submitted any reply or documents. Thus, the adjudicating authority proceeded to decide the matter on the basis of available records. Considering the direction of the appellate authority, the adjudicating authority found that the commission income for the year 2004-05 comes to Rs.3,97,437/- and thus is under the exemption limit of rupees four lakhs and therefore the benefit of Notification No.6/2005-ST is available to them for the year 2005-06. However, the adjudicating authority found that the condition one of the said notification says that the service provider has the option not to avail the exemption and pay the service tax on the taxable service and such option once exercised in a financial year, shall not be withdrawn during the remaining part of such financial year. The adjudicating authority further found that the appellant has opted for payment of service tax from the beginning and therefore they can not subsequently withdraw their option. Accordingly, the adjudicating authority vide the Order-in-Original No.SD-05/31/DKJ/AC/2015-16 dated 30.03.2016 confirmed the demand of Rs.92,512/- along with interest and imposed penalty under Section 76, 77 and 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

2(v). The appellant preferred an appeal before the Commissioner(Appeals) of CGST & Central Excise, Ahmedabad against the said Order-in-Original No. SD-05/31/DKJ/AC/2015-16 dated 30.03.2016 who vide its OIA No.AHM-EXCUS-001-041-2019-20 dated 19.09.2019 held that SSI benefit would be available to the appellant and accordingly remanded the matter back to adjudicating authority for re-quantification of tax liability of appellant and charging of interest and imposition of penalty accordingly. Penalty imposed under Section 76 was also set aside vide the said OIA.

2(vi). In view of the OIA No.AHM-EXCUS-001-041-2019-20 dated 19.09.2019, the adjudicating authority confirmed the demand of service tax amounting Rs.51,713/- alongwith interest of Rs.2,088/- and imposed penalty of Rs.2,000/- under Section 77 and Rs.12,928/- (25% of Service Tax amount of Rs.51,713/-) under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 vide OIO No.CGST/WS07/O&A/OIO-10/MK/AC/2019-20 dated 03.03.2020.

2(vii). In view of OIA No.AHM-EXCUS-001-041-2019-20 dated 19.09.2019 and subsequent OIO No.CGST/WS07/O&A/OIO-10/MK/AC/2019-20 dated 03.03.2020, the appellant filed refund claim of Rs.76,584/- (Service Tax Rs.42,345/- + Interest Rs.34,239/-) with the adjudicating authority, who vide the impugned order rejected the refund claim of Rs.42,345/- on the ground that the appellant failed to submit certain documents as mentioned in its para-5 of the impugned order and also failed to submit the documentary evidence which show that the burden of tax has been borne by them and has not been passed on to any other person as stipulated under Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 as made applicable to Service Tax vide Section 83 of the Finance Act, 1994.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant has filed the present appeal on the following grounds :

- (i) that the amount was paid during the investigation on the instruction of investigating officer and hence the question of unjust enrichment is not applicable;
- (ii) that neither SCN has been issued nor opportunity of personal hearing has been granted to them. Thus the impugned order has been issued without following the principle of natural justice.

4. Opportunities of personal hearing, in virtual mode through video conference, were granted to the appellant on 20.01.2021, 18.02.2021, 04.03.2021 and on 22.06.2021 which were not availed by them. Therefore, I proceed to decide the appeal on the basis of records available in the matter.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal in the appeal memorandum and the various plea putforth in the appeal memorandum. The issue to be decided is whether the appellant is eligible for the refund of the amount and interest as claimed by them.

6(i). The facts of the case reveal that the refund has arisen due to the amount paid by them during the investigation and the liability of which was confirmed vide OIO No.CGST/WS07/O&A/OIO-10/MK/AC/2019-20 dated 03.03.2020 was less than the amount paid by them. The relevant part of Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 as made applicable to Service Tax vide Section 83 of the Finance Act, 1994 reads as under :

Section 11B : Claim for refund of duty and interest, if any, paid on such duty –

(1) Any person claiming refund of any duty of excise and interest, if any, paid on such duty may make an application for refund of such duty and interest, if any, paid on such duty to the Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise or Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise before the expiry of one year from the relevant date in such form and manner as may be prescribed and the application shall be accompanied by such documentary or other evidence (including the documents referred to in Section 12A) as the applicant may furnish to establish that the amount of duty of excise and interest, if any, paid on such duty in relation to which such refund is claimed was collected from, or paid by him and the incidence of such duty and interest, if any, paid on such duty had not been passed on by him to any other person....”

[Emphasis supplied]

6(ii). Section 11B makes it clear that it has been made mandatory that the refund may only be sanctioned if it is proved that the duty/tax has not been passed by the assessee to any other person. I find that the Hon'ble Apex Court in case of M/s. Mafatlal Industries Ltd. [1997(89)ELT 247(SC)] has held as under :

- (a) Refunds of Central Excise and Customs Duties – All claims for refund except where levy is held to be unconstitutional, to be preferred and adjudicated upon under Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 or under Section 27 of the Customs Act, 1962 and subject to claimant establishing that burden of duty has not been passed on to third party – no civil suit for refund of duty maintainable – Writ jurisdiction of High Courts under Article 226 and of Supreme Court under Article 32 unaffected by said Section 11B or Section 27 but writ court to have due regard to the provisions of Central Excise and Customs Act and to refuse grant of relief where burden of duty passed on to third party – Favourable order not to result in automatic refund and claimant to prove burden of duty not passed on to third party.
- (b) Refund – Bar of unjust enrichment – Incidence of duty – Refund of duty either under Central Excise Act, Customs Act, in a civil suit or a writ petition grantable only when it is established that burden of duty has not been passed on to others – Person ultimately bearing the burden of duty can legitimately claim its refund otherwise amount to be retained by the State – Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1994 – Section 27 of the Customs Act, 1962 – Section 72 of the Contract Act and Articles 32 and 226 of the Constitution of India.

Therefore, the onus to prove that the tax paid by them has not been passed on to any other person is on the appellant.

6(iii). It is further contended by the appellant that the adjudicating authority didn't follow the principle of natural justice. I further find that there is no discussion/mention about the opportunities of personal hearing granted by the adjudicating authority to the appellant in the impugned order while rejecting the refund claim of the appellant. Thus, it is clearly coming out that the principle of natural justice has not been followed by the adjudicating authority as no opportunity of personal hearing had been granted to the appellant. Moreover, while the refund claim was for Rs.76,584/- (Service Tax Rs.42,345/- + Interest Rs.34,239/-), the adjudicating authority has rejected the claim for Rs.42,345/- only and has not given its finding on the remaining amount. In view of the above, it would be prudent that the matter may be remanded back to the adjudicating authority to pass an order afresh after following the principle of natural justice and give its finding on the entire issue. The appellant is also directed to avail the opportunity of personal hearing to be granted by the adjudicating authority in this regard and submit all the documents which they wish to rely upon in support of their contention and towards unjust enrichment.

7. In view of the foregoing, the appeal is remanded back to the adjudicating authority as per the direction contained hereinabove. The appeal is disposed of accordingly.
