ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Abuzaid Samiullah Ansari, 625/277, Pujari Ni Chawl, Gomtipur Road, Gomtipur, Ahmedabad- 380 021 (hereinafter referred to as the "appellant") against Order in Original No. 33/AC/Abuzaid S Ansari/Div-I/A'bad-South/JDM/2022-23 dated 22.08.2022 [hereinafter referred to as "impugned order"] passed by the Assistant Commissioner, H.Q., CGST, Commissionerate : Ahmedabad South [hereinafter referred to as "adjudicating authority"].

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant were not holding Service Tax Registration. They are having PAN No. AKFPA9989D. As per the information received from the Income Tax Department, the appellant had earned substantial income from services amounting to Rs. 13,34,637/- and Rs. 35,40,295 during F.Y. 2014-15 and F.Y. 2015-16 respectively. However, the appellant neither obtained Service Tax Registration nor filed ST-3 returns. The appellant were called upon to submit documents. As per the documents submitted by the appellant, the taxable value was amounting to Rs. 31,77,890/- and Rs. 35.40,295/- during F.Y. 2014-15 and F.Y. 2015-16 respectively, on which service tax totally amounting to Rs. 9,23,831/- was not paid by the appellant. Therefore, the appellant were issued Show Cause Notice bearing No. V/15-633/Div-I/Abuzaid Samiullah Ansari/20-21 dated 24.12.2020 wherein it was proposed to :

- a) Demand and recover the service tax amounting to Rs. 9,23,831/- under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994 along with interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994.
- b) Impose penalty under Sections 77(1) and 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

3. The SCN was adjudicated vide the impugned order wherein :
 - I. The demand of service tax amounting to Rs. 9,23,831/- was confirmed along with interest.
 - II. Penalty amounting to Rs. 10,000/- was imposed under Section 77(1) of the Finance Act, 1994.
 - III. Penalty amounting to Rs. 9,23,831/- was imposed under Section 78 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994.

4. Being aggrieved with the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, the appellant have preferred the present appeal on the following grounds :

- i. They are receiving unstitched material on which job work is carried out by them and the goods are returned to the party.
- ii. As per Section 66D(f) of the Finance Act, 1994, services by way of carrying out any process amounting to manufacture or production of goods is not chargeable to service tax.
- iii. Serial No. 30(c) of Notification No. 25/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012 exempts carrying out any intermediate production process as job work in relation to any goods on which appropriate duty is payable by the principal manufacturer.
- iv. Under the current tax structure, textile job work are exempted from service tax as such activities are manufacturing processes and not services in nature.

5. Personal Hearing in the case was held on 14.02.2023. Shri Sarfraj Memon, Consultant, appeared on behalf of appellant for the hearing. He reiterated the submissions made in appeal memorandum.

6. I have gone through the facts of the case, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum, the submissions made during the personal hearing and the materials available on records. The dispute involved in the present appeal relates to the confirmation of demand of service tax amounting to Rs. 9,23,831/- along with interest and penalties. The demand pertains to the period F.Y. 2014-15 and F.Y. 2015-16.

7. It is observed that the demand of service tax was issued to the appellant on the basis of the data received from Income Tax department. It is stated at Para 3 of the impugned order that the appellant was called upon to submit documents/details in respect of the service income earned by them, however, the respondent failed to submit the same. However, at Para 7 of the impugned order, it is stated that "The Service Tax payable is calculated on the basis of documents provided by the noticee". It is further observed that it is stated at Para 4 of the impugned order that "The nature of activities carried out by the said noticee appeared to be covered under the Negative List as given in Section 66D of the said Act. These services also appeared to be not exempted under Exemption Notification No. 25/2012-S.T. dt.20.06.2012. given in Section 66E of the Finance Act, 1994'. No other cogent reason or justification is forthcoming for raising the demand against the appellant. It is also not specified as to under which category of service, the non payment of service tax is alleged against the appellant. The demand of service tax has been raised merely on the basis of the data received from the Income Tax. However, the data received from the Income Tax department cannot form the sole ground for raising of demand of service tax.

7.1. I find in pertinent to refer to Instruction dated 26.10.2021 issued by the CBIC, wherein it was directed that :

"It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts, may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner/Chief Commissioner(s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

7.2 However, in the instant case, I find that no such exercise, as instructed by the Board has been undertaken, and the SCN has been issued only on the basis of the data received from the Income Tax department. Therefore, on this very ground the demand raised vide the impugned SCN is liable to be dropped.

8. It is observed that the appellant had submitted before the adjudicating authority that they are engaged in the business of Textile job work, which is exempt vide Notification No. 25/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012 and also as per Section 66D(f) of the Finance Act, 1994. Considering the documents and submissions of the appellant, the adjudicating authority has recorded his finding at Para 20 of the impugned order that "Further, as stated by him and from the records submitted, I find that he is engaged in the work of embroidery on textile materials. But it does not transpire that the said work was done by him on his own or on job-work". Further, the adjudicating authority has rejected the claim of the appellant for exemption in terms of the said Notification on the ground that the appellant had not produced sufficient evidence.

9. At this juncture, I find it pertinent to refer to Entry No. 30 of Notification No.25/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012, which is reproduced below :

"Services by way of carrying out,-

- (i) any process amounting to manufacture or production of goods excluding alcoholic liquor for human consumption; or
- (ii) any intermediate production process as job work not amounting to manufacture or production in relation to-
 - (a) agriculture, printing or textile processing;"

9.1 In terms of Entry No. 30 (ii) of the said Notification, any intermediate production process as job work not amounting to manufacture or production in relation to textile processing is exempted from payment of service tax. In the instant case, the adjudicating authority has himself accepted the fact that the appellant are engaged in carrying out embroidery work on textile materials. The fact of whether the appellant was doing on his own account or on job work is not relevant for determining the charging of service tax. If the appellant were undertaking the said activity on their own account, the same would in any case be not chargeable to service tax, as in such a case there would be no provision of service by the appellant to any other person in lieu of consideration as contemplated in Section 65B(44) of the Finance Act, 1994. In the absence of the two essential ingredients i.e. 'activity carried out for another person' and consideration, the same would be outside the ambit of taxable services.

9.2 The appellant have, as part of their appeal memorandum, submitted copies of Delivery Challans and invoices. On perusal of the same, it is observed that the appellant are receiving goods from other firms/persons and after undertaking job work, the same are returned by the appellant to the principals. It is evident from the documents submitted by the appellant that they are undertaking embroidery work on textile material supplied by their principals. Therefore, the activity undertaken by the appellant falls within the purview of Entry No. 30(ii) of Notification No. 25/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012. Accordingly, the activity carried out by the appellant are exempted from payment of service tax.

9.3 In view of the above facts and discussions; I am of the considered view that the impugned order confirming demand of service tax along with interest and penalties is not legally tenable or sustainable. Accordingly, I set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal filed by the appellant.

10. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
