ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Pragnesh Bharatbhai Desai, 13, Old Rabari Vasahat, Jashodanagar, Vatva, Ahmedabad – 380050 (hereinafter referred to as “the appellant”) against Order-in-Original No.87/AC/PRAGNESH BHARATBHAI DESAI/DIV-II/Ahmedabad-South/jdm/2022-23 dated 23.01.2023(hereinafter referred to as “the impugned order”) passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Central GST, Division II, Ahmedabad South (hereinafter referred to as “the adjudicating authority”).

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant is holding PAN No. AJJPD4296M. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for period FY 2014-15 to FY 2016-17, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 10,08,240/- during FY 2015-16. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but has neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant were called upon to submit copies of Balance Sheet, Profit & Loss accounts, Income Tax Returns, Form 26AS, for the said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant were issued Show Cause Notice No. WS0202/TPD(2015-16)/05/20-21 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 1,46,194/- for the period from FY 2015-16, under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; imposition of penalties under Section 77(1) of the Finance Act, 1994, imposition of penalties under Section 70 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 7C of the Service Tax Rule 1994; and imposition of penalties under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 1,46,194/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period F.Y. 2015-16. Further (i) Penalty of Rs. 1,46,194/- was also imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1) of the Finance Act, 1994; and (iii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 70 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 7C of the Service Tax Rule 1994.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, the appellant have preferred the present appeal along with application for condonation of delay in filing appeal on the following grounds:

- The appellant is engaged in providing the services of providing vehicles on hire to Goods Transport Agency. As per the Notification No. 25/2012 of Service Tax published in official gazette of India 20/06/2012, entry number 22 states that services by way of giving on hire to a state transport undertaking, a motor vehicle meant to carry more than twelve passengers or to a goods transport agency, a means of transportation of goods is exempt from service tax.
- The party who hired the said vehicle is engaged in the business of providing transportation services to AmulDiary, it is relevant to mention here that there is no service tax on transportation of milk as the said falls in negative list as per notification 25/2012.
- As the appellant has given vehicle on hire, there are no direct receipts from any of the consignees or consignors, the appellant is receiving only hire charges from the party to whom the vehicle is given on hire. There are no other transactions in the bank accounts of the appellant which are liable for service tax.
- As the service provided by the appellant falls under negative list prescribed in the notification, the assessee is neither liable to obtain any registration under the act nor liable to discharge any liability towards service tax and also does not need comply with return filing requirements of Service

- They have requested to set aside the service tax demand in whole confirmed against the Appellant by the Assistant Commissioner, Ahmedabad.

4. Ongoing through the appeal memorandum, it is noticed that the impugned order was issued on 23/01/2023 and received by the appellant on 05/02/2023. However, the present appeal, in terms of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 was filed on 21/04/2023, i.e. after a delay of 16 days from the last date of filing appeal. The appellant have along with appeal memorandum also filed an Application seeking condonation of delay stating that their house was under renovation and they were living at another place for the time being and they are not registered with the Service Tax; and according to provision, it is mandatory to pay pre-deposit. However, there to delay in registration of temporary number of Service Tax and therefore appeal could not be filed well within the stipulated time.

4.1 Personal hearing in the case was held on 17.10.2023. Shri Jignesh Karad, CA, appeared on behalf of the appellant for personal hearing. He reiterated submissions made in appeal memorandum and requested to allow their appeal.

4.2 Before taking up the issue on merits, I proceed to decide the Application filed seeking condonation of delay. As per Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, an appeal should be filed within a period of 2 months from the dates of receipt of the decision or order passed by the adjudicating authority. Under the proviso appended to sub-section (3A) of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, the Commissioner (Appeals) is empowered to condone the delay or to allow the filing of an appeal within a further period of one month thereafter if, he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the period of two months. Considering the cause of delay given in application as genuine, I condone the delay of 14 days and take up the appeal for decision on merits.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand of service tax against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period FY 2015-16.

6. I find that in the SCN in question, the demand has been raised for the period FY 2015-16 based on the Income Tax Returns filed by the appellant. Except for the value of taxable Value as per data received from the Income Tax Department, no other cogent reason or justification is forthcoming from the SCN for raising the demand against the appellant. It is also not specified as to under which category of service the non-levy of service tax is alleged against the appellant. Merely because the appellant had reported receipts from services, the same cannot form the basis for arriving at the conclusion that the respondent was liable to pay service tax, which was not paid by them. In this regard, I find that CBIC had, vide Instruction dated 26.10.2021, directed that:

"It was further reiterated that demand notices may not be issued indiscriminately based on the difference between the ITR-TDS taxable value and the taxable value in Service Tax Returns.

3. It is once again reiterated that instructions of the Board to issue show cause notices based on the difference in ITR-TDS data and service tax returns only after proper verification of facts, may be followed diligently. Pr. Chief Commissioner / Chief Commissioner (s) may devise a suitable mechanism to monitor and prevent issue of indiscriminate show cause notices. Needless to mention that in all such cases where the notices have already been issued, adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts and submission of the noticee."

6.1 In the present case, I find that letters were issued to the appellant seeking details and documents, which were allegedly not submitted by them. However, without any further inquiry or investigation, the SCN has been issued only on the basis of details received from the Income Tax department, without even specifying the category of service in respect of which service tax is sought to be levied and collected. This, in my considered view, is not a valid ground for raising of demand of service tax.

7. For ease of reference, I reproduce the relevant provision of Notification No. 25/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012, which reads as under:

“Notification No. 25/2012-Service Tax dated 20th June, 2012

G.S.R. 467(E).- In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 93 of the Finance Act, 1994 (32 of 1994) (hereinafter referred to as the said Act) and in supersession of notification No. 12/2012- Service Tax, dated the 17th March, 2012, published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i) vide number G.S.R. 210 (E), dated the 17th March, 2012, the Central Government, being satisfied that it is necessary in the public interest so to do, hereby exempts the following taxable services from the whole of the service tax leviable thereon under section 66B of the said Act, namely:-

22. Services by way of giving on hire –

(a) to a state transport undertaking, a motor vehicle meant to carry more than twelve passengers; or

(b) to a goods transport agency, a means of transportation of goods;”

8. Based on the legal provision above, as regard the service provided by the appellant to Goods Transport Agency, I find that as per the provisions of Sr. No. 22(b) of the Notification No. 25/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012, service provided by the appellant to Goods Transport Agency was exempted from the service tax.

9. I also find that the adjudicating authority has confirmed the demand of service tax, without considering the legal provisions and verification of the documents. If the documents were not submitted by the appellant, the adjudicating authority was required to call for the further documents from the appellant, which was not done by the adjudicating authority. As mentioned in para supra, the CBIC had, vide Instruction dated 26.10.2021, specifically directed that the adjudicating authorities are expected to pass a judicious order after proper appreciation of facts. However, the adjudicating authority failed to do so in the present case.

10. In view of the above discussion, I find that the appellant is not required to pay any service tax on the service provided by them to Goods Transport Agency, as the same is exempted as per Sr. No. 22(b) of the Notification No. 25/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012.

11. In view of above, I hold that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming demand of Service Tax from the appellant for the FY 2015-16, is not legal and proper and deserves to be set aside. Since the demand of Service Tax fails, there does not arise any question of charging interest or imposing penalties in the case.

12. Accordingly, I set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal filed by the appellant.

13. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है ।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
