ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Sneha B. Thakker, L-101, Satyamev Vista, S.G.Highway, Gota, Daskrol, Ahmedabad-382 481 (hereinafter referred to as "the Appellant") against Order-in-Original No. WS07/O&A/OIO-245/AC-KSZ/2022-23 dated 15.03.2023 (hereinafter referred to as "the impugned order") passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Central GST, Division VII, Ahmedabad South (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant are holding PAN No. AGGPT0275Q. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the FY 2014-15, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 29,85,570/- during the FY 2014-15, which was reflected under the heads "sales of services under sales/gross receipt from services (Value from ITR)" filed with Income Tax department. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but had neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The Appellant were called upon to submit copies of required documents for assessment for the said period. However, the Appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant were issued Show Cause Notice No. V/WS07/O&A/SCN-104/ AGGPT0275Q/2020-21 dated 29.09.2020 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 3,69,016/- for the period FY 2014-15, under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; and imposition of penalties under Section 77(1) read with Section 69, Section 70 and Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated, ex-parte, vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 3,69,016/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period FY 2016-17. Further (i) Penalty of Rs. 3,69,016/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1) of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Section 69 of the Finance Act, 1994 for failure to take service tax registration; and (iii) Penalty of Rs. 20,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 70 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 7C of Service Tax Rules, 1994 for failure to file periodical ST-3 returns.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, the appellant have preferred the present appeal, inter alia, on the following grounds:

- That the appellant was engaged in the business of providing Information Technology services to clients outside India and did not obtain service tax registration number being all the services being export of service as per Rule 6A.
- That the appellant is providing export of service which is not taxable as per Rule 6A of Service Tax Rules, 1994.
- The appellant is not liable to obtain service tax registration.
- Recovery of demand cannot be initiated on the basis of Income Tax Return.
- That the appellant has not contravened provision of Section 66B, 67 and 68 of the Act.

➤ The appellant have submitted the following documents.

- a) Copy of Profit and Loss Account and Balance Sheet for the F.Y. 2014-15,
- b) Copy of sample Invoices issued by the appellant during the FY 2014-15,
- c) Copy of FIRC.
- d) Copy of Bank statement.

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 09.01.2023. Shri Gopal Krishna Laddha and Shri Anjali Bhatia, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant for personal hearing. He reiterated submissions made in appeal memorandum. They said that the client is doing export of service (website customization). Hence they are not liable to pay service tax.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand of service tax against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period FY 2014-15.

6. I find that the main contention of the appellant are that (1) whether the appellant are liable to pay service tax on income declared by the appellant in ITR data provided by Income Tax Department, in context of which the appellant have held that the value over which service tax of Rs. 3,69,016/- was demanded by the adjudicating authority actually pertains to Export of Service which is exempted under Rule 6A of the Service Tax Rule, 1994. For clarification extract of Rule 6A is reproduced as under:

RULE 6A. (1) The provision of any service provided or agreed to be provided shall be treated as export of service when

- (a) the provider of service is located in the taxable territory,
- (b) the recipient of service is located outside India,
- (c) the service is not a service specified in the section 66D of the Act,
- (d) the place of provision of the service is outside India,
- (e) the payment for such service has been received by the provider of Service in convertible foreign exchange, and
- (f) the provider of service and recipient of service are not merely establishments of a distinct person in accordance with item (b) of 2[Explanation 3] of clause (44) of section 65B of the Act

(2) Where any service is exported, the Central Government may, by notification, grant rebate of service tax or duty paid on input services or inputs, as the case may be, used in providing such service and the rebate shall be allowed subject to such safeguards, conditions and limitations, as may be specified, by the Central Government, by notification.]

8. It is observed that during 2014-15, the appellant were engaged in the business of providing Information Technology services to its various overseas clients outside India and have received payment in convertible foreign exchange against the same.

9. Reading the aforesaid provision and documents viz. sample export invoices, copy of Foreign Inward Remittance Certificates (FIRCs) illustrating the amount received from export of service provided by the appellant, it is very much clear that the value over which service tax was demanded by the adjudicating authority is exempted in terms of service being export of service in view of Rule 6A of the Service Tax Rule, 1994. On verification of documents submitted by the appellant and demand raised vide the Order-in-Original by the adjudication authority, I find the amount shown in Income Tax Return for F.Y. 2014-15 over which demand of service tax of Rs. 3,69,016/- was raised is nothing but income collected by rendering export of service.

10. Looking to the evidences in support of their submission provided by the appellant I find that the appellant which are located in taxable territory are providing service to the recipient of service located outside India and for the service rendered by the appellant they were collecting payment in convertible foreign exchange. Thus I am of the considered view that the appellant have provided Information Technology services to its various overseas clients outside India i.e. taxable territory and as such they earned income only in convertible foreign exchange in F.Y. 2014-15 from Foreign Service recipients which is exempted in terms of Rule 6A of the Service Tax Rule, 1994 and demand accordingly is legally wrong and not sustainable. Since the demand of service tax is not sustainable on merits, there does not arise any question of interest or penalty in the matter.

11. In view of above, I hold that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority confirming demand of Service Tax, in respect of income received by the Appellant during the FY 2014-15, is not legal and proper and deserve to be set aside.

12. Accordingly, I set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal filed by the Appellant.

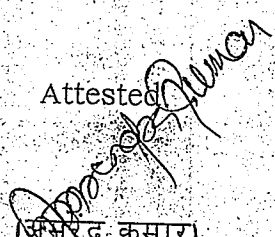

13. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
