ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Jagdish Vithalbhai Patel, 9, Amar Jyoti Society, Opp. Rajendra Park, Gauri Cinema, Odhav, Ahmedabad (hereinafter referred to as the “appellant”) against Order-in-Original No. 191/CGST/Ahmd-South/DC/PMT/2022-23 dated 10.03.2023 (hereinafter referred to as “the impugned order”) passed by the Deputy Commissioner, Central GST, Division V, Ahmedabad South (hereinafter referred to as “the adjudicating authority”).

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the respondents, having PAN No. AUMPP5242M had earned substantial service income during the F.Y. 2015-16 to 2016-17. On scrutiny of the data received from Income Tax department, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 16,30,241/- during the F.Y. 2015-16 and Rs. 18,06,451/- during the F.Y. 2016-17. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but had neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant were called upon to submit copies of required documents for assessment for the said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant were issued Show Cause Notice No. CGST/WS05/TPD/2015-16/Jagdish/2020-21 dated 28.12.2020 wherein:

- a) Demand and recover an amount of Rs. 5,07,353/- under proviso to Sub Section (1) of Section 73 of the Act along with interest under section 75 of the Finance Act 1994 (hereinafter referred to as ‘the Act’).

- b) Impose penalty under the provisions of Section 70, 77(1) and 78 of the Act.

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated ex-parte vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein:

- a) The demand of service tax amounting to Rs. 5,07,353/- was confirmed under section 73(1) of the Act by invoking extended period along with interest under section 75 of the Act.
- b) Penalty amounting to Rs. 10,000/- was imposed under section 77(1) of the Act for failure to take service tax registration.
- c) Penalty amounting to Rs. 5,07,353/- was imposed under 78 of the Act.
- d) Penalty of Rs. 80,000/- (Rs. 20,000/- each half yearly returns) was imposed on the appellant under for each return filed late, for the relevant period under Rule 7C of Service Tax Rule, 1994 read with Section 70 of the Act.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, the appellant have preferred the present appeal, inter alia, on the following grounds:-

- That the appellant is engaged in job-work & sale of "chain wheel chakker". As per the customer requirements or sample given by the the customers, the raw material supplied by the customers to appellant for making chain wheel chakker. This process is a part of manufacturing process, therefore exempted from service tax.

- That the appellant challenges the impugned order, claiming a violation of natural justice principles as they were not given an opportunity to respond to a Show Cause Notice due to pandemic-related office closures.
- They argue that the impugned order misinterprets income, presuming taxable services from the sale and job work of "Chain wheel chakker."
- The appellant relies on case laws supporting their contention that service tax is not applicable to the sale of goods.
- They highlight statutory provisions exempting services related to production of goods on behalf of clients.
- The appellant asserts that job work constitutes manufacturing, not subject to service tax.
- They dispute the application of Section 67A of the Finance Act to job work income.
- Additionally, the appellant challenges the methodology used to calculate service tax.
- The appellant argues that the Show Cause Notice (SCN) for service tax demand related to 2015-16 and 2016-17 was confirmed without being received, and contends non-liability as a non-registered person. They assert a bona fide belief that service tax doesn't apply to job work sale.
- The appellant questions the denial of cum-tax benefit by the adjudicating authority and cites relevant case laws.
- Additionally, they dispute the imposition of penalties, citing the unsustainable demand.

- The appellant argues that penalties under Sections 77(1) and 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 are unwarranted, drawing Supreme Court decisions on similar provisions in the Central Excise Act.
- They stress the absence of evidence for deliberate misdeclaration and argue against penalties under Section 78. The appellant refers to tribunal decisions supporting their position.
- The appellant has submitted ITR, 26AS Form (TDS Certificate), P & L Account for F.Y. 2015-16 and F.Y. 2016-17.

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 09.01.2024. Shri Naresh Satwani, Tax Consultant appeared on behalf of the appellant for personal hearing and reiterated the written submission. They stated that their client is doing manufacturing job work.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand of service tax against the Appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period F.Y. 2015-16 and 2016-17.

6. I find that in the SCN in question, the demand has been raised for the period FY 2015-16 based on the Income Tax Returns filed by the appellant.

7. As regard, the contention of the appellant that the impugned order was issued without conducting personal hearing i.e. ex-parte.

8. I also find that the appellant submitted various documents in support of their claim for exemption from service tax, which was not produced by them before the adjudicating authority and first time submitted at appeal stage. In this regard, I am of the considered view that the appellant cannot seek to establish their eligibility for exemption at the appellate stage by bypassing the adjudicating authority. They should have submitted the relevant records and documents before the adjudicating authority, who is best placed to verify the authenticity of the documents as well as their eligibility for exemption.

9. Considering the facts of the case as discussed hereinabove and in the interest of justice, I am of the considered view that the case is required to be remanded back to the adjudicating authority to examine the case on merits and also to consider the claim of the appellant for exemption from the service tax. The appellant is directed to submit all the records and documents in support of their claim for exemption from the service tax before the adjudicating authority. The adjudicating authority shall after considering the records and documents submitted by the appellant decide the case afresh by following the principles of natural justice.

10. In view of the above discussion, I remand the matter back to the adjudicating authority to reconsider the issue afresh and pass a speaking order after following the principles of natural justice.

11. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

The appeal filed by the Appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
