अपीलिय आदेश/ ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s Bharatbhai Pravinchandra Daftary, 1001, Satkar Complex, B/H Swagat Complex, C. G. Road, Ellisbridge, Ahmedabad – 380009 (hereinafter referred to as 'the appellant') against Order in Original No. CGST-VI/Dem-352/BHARATBHAI/AC/DAP/2022-23 dated 28.02.2023 [hereinafter referred to as 'impugned order'] passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST & CEx, Division-VI, Ahmedabad South Commissionerate [hereinafter referred to as 'adjudicating authority'].

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant were not registered under Service Tax and were holding PAN No.ABPPD5272K. As per information received from the Income Tax Department, it was observed that during the period F.Y. 2014-15, the appellant had earned substantial service income by way of providing taxable services, but had neither obtain Service Tax Registration nor paid Service Tax thereon. Accordingly, in order to seek information, letter was issued to the appellant calling for the details of services provided during the period. But they didn't submit any reply. Further, the jurisdictional officers considering the services provided by the appellant as taxable, determined the Service Tax liability for the F.Y. 2014-15 on the basis of value of 'Sales of Services' under Sales/Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR) and Form 26AS for the relevant period as per details below :

Sr. No.	Period (F.Y.)	Differential Taxable Value as per Income Tax Data (in Rs.)	Rate of Service Tax incl. Cess	Service Tax liability to be demanded (in Rs.)
1.	2014-15	43,20,011/-	12.36%	5,33,953/-

3. The appellant was issued Show Cause Notice No. V/WS06/O&A/SCN-92/2020-21 dated 23.09.2020 (in short SCN) proposing to demand and recover Service Tax amounting to Rs.5,33,953/- under proviso to Section 73 of Finance Act, 1994 along with applicable interest and penalties.

4. The SCN was adjudicated ex-parte vide the impugned order wherein :

- Service Tax demand of Rs. 5,33,953/- was confirmed under Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994 alongwith interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994.

- Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed under Section 77(1)(a) of the Finance Act, 1994.
- Late fee of Rs. 40,000/- was imposed under Section 70 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 7C of the Service Tax Rules 1994.
- Penalty of Rs. 5,33,953/- was imposed under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

5. Aggrieved by the impugned order, the appellant has preferred this appeal on following grounds:

- The appellant stated that they are working as an insurance agent for L.I.C of India and earned Commission Income.
- The Appellants are not liable to pay service tax since the same is covered under Reverse Charge as per Notification No. 30/2012-Service Tax dated 20.06.2012.
- The Appellant are also eligible for Small Scale Service provider exemption under Notification No. 33/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012.

6. It is observed from the records that the present appeal was filed by the appellant on 23.05.2023 against the impugned order dated 28.02.2023, which was reportedly received by the appellant on 03.03.2023.

6.1 It is also observed that the Appeals preferred before the Commissioner (Appeals) are governed by the provisions of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994. The relevant part of the said section is reproduced below :

“(3A) An appeal shall be presented within two months from the date of receipt of the decision or order of such adjudicating authority, made on and after the Finance Bill, 2012 received the assent of the President, relating to service tax, interest or penalty under this Chapter:

Provided that the Commissioner of Central Excise (Appeals) may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of two months, allow it to be presented within a further period of one month.”

6.2 As per the above legal provisions, the period of two months for filing appeal before the Commissioner (Appeals) for the instant appeal ends on 02.05.2023 and further period of one month, within which the Commissioner (Appeals) is empowered to condone the delay upon being satisfied with the sufficient reasons shown by the appellant, ends on 02.06.2023. This appeal was filed on 23.05.2023, i.e after a delay of 21 days from the stipulated date of filing appeal, and is within the period of one month that can be condoned.

6.3 In their application for Condonation of delay in filing the appeal, they submitted that during the course of filing appeal, they were struggling for payment of pre-deposit challan since they were not registered with the service tax department. Due to some technical reasons their registration and payment of challan were not getting within the time limit. These reasons of delay were also explained by them during the course of personal hearing, the grounds of delay cited and explained by the appellant appeared to be genuine, cogent and convincing. Considering the submissions and explanations made during personal hearing, the delay in filing appeal was condoned in terms of proviso to Section 85 (3A) of the Finance Act, 1994.

7. Personal Hearing in the case was held on 19.02.2024. Shri Pratik Trivedi, Chartered Accountant, appeared for personal hearing on behalf of the appellant. He stated that the appellant is an insurance agent of LIC and received insurance commission which is liable in RCM. Hence no Service tax liability at their end. Further he requested for two days' time to submit Balance Sheet, P&L, Ledger, ITR and 26AS (for previous year).

8. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case available on record, grounds of appeal in the appeal memorandum, oral submissions made during personal hearing, the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority and other case records. The issue before me for decision in the present appeal is whether the demand of service tax amounting to Rs. 5,33,953/- confirmed under proviso to Section 73 (1) of Finance Act, 1994 alongwith interest, and penalties vide the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority in the facts and circumstances of the case is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period of F.Y. 2014-15.

9. I find that the SCN was issued to the appellant on basis of income tax data without any verification and the impugned order was decided ex-parte.

10. During the course of personal hearing, they argued that the appellant was an Insurance Agent and they have provided services related to Insurance Policies and earned commission income. Hence, the liability of Service Tax arising out of the amount of Commission Income is to be borne by the Service Receiver on RCM basis in terms of Notification No. 30/2012-ST dated 20.06.2012. The appellant have submitted the Form 26AS, wherein the TDS has been deducted by the Life Insurance Corporation of India for amounting to Rs.36,92,790/- for Commission Income out of taxable value Rs. 43,20,011/-. However, I find that in the Income Tax Return for the F.Y. 2013-14(A.Y. 2014-15), the turnover of sale of service is shown as "o" but in the very same ITR in other income column income from commission as shown as Rs. 52,07,433/- and in Form 26AS, the TDS has been deducted by the Life Insurance Corporation of India for amounting to Rs.7,10,223/- for Commission Income in previous year. Therefore the taxable income received from Commission income of Rs.44,97,210/- which is above threshold. Due to these contradicting claims the matter needs verifications.

11. I also find that the appellant submitted various documents in support of their claim for exemption from service tax, which was not produced by them before the adjudicating authority and first time submitted at appeal stage. In this regard, I am of the considered view that the appellant cannot seek to establish their eligibility for exemption at the appellate stage by bypassing the adjudicating authority. They should have submitted the relevant records and documents before the adjudicating authority, who is best placed to verify the authenticity of the documents as well as their eligibility for exemption.

12. Considering the facts of the case as discussed hereinabove and in the interest of justice, I am of the considered view that the case is required to be remanded back to the adjudicating authority to examine the case on merits and also to consider the claim of the appellant for exemption from the service tax. The appellant is directed to submit all the records and documents in support of their claim for exemption from the service tax before the adjudicating authority. The adjudicating authority shall after considering the records and documents submitted by the appellant decide the case afresh by following the principles of natural justice.

11. In view of the above discussion, I remand the matter back to the adjudicating authority to reconsider the issue a fresh and pass a speaking order after following the principles of natural justice.

12. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
