ORDER-IN-APPEAL

This order arises on account of an appeal filed by M/s. Adani Power Ltd., Shikhar Building, Near Adani House, Near Mithakhali Six Roads, Navrangpura, Ahmedabad (hereinafter referred to as "the appellants"), against Order-in-Original number SD-02/Ref-153/DRM/2015-16 dated 28.10.2015 (hereinafter referred to as the "impugned order") passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Division-II, Service Tax, Ahmedabad (hereinafter referred to as the "Adjudicating Authority").

2. The facts of the case, in brief, are that the appellants are registered with service tax department having registration number AABCA2957LST001. The appellants had originally filed a refund claim of ₹17,18,757/- on 21.06.2010 in terms of Notification No. 09/2009-ST dated 03.03.2009.

3. The adjudicating authority after scrutiny of the claim, vide Order-in-Original number SD-02/Ref-70/2011-12 dated 27.01.2012, sanctioned an amount of ₹4,70,913/- (out of the total refund claim of ₹17,18,757/-) and rejected rest of the amount of ₹12,47,844/-. The appellants subsequently filed an appeal before the then Commissioner (Appeals-IV). The then Commissioner (Appeals-IV), vide Order-in-Appeal number 80/2013(STC)/SKS/Commr.(A)/Ahd. dated 23.04.2013, allowed an amount of ₹1,85,113/-, disallowed an amount of ₹9,46,458/- and remanded back the case to the adjudicating authority for an amount of ₹1,10,136/-. The adjudicating authority, vide the impugned order, sanctioned an amount of ₹45,255/- and rejected an amount of ₹64,881/-.

4. Being aggrieved with the impugned order of rejecting the refund amount of ₹64,881/-, the appellants filed the present appeal. The appellants have submitted that the adjudicating authority was not correct in rejecting the amount of ₹64,881/- as they have submitted all required documents to show that their claim was well covered by the terms and conditions of the Notification number 09/2009-ST dated 03.03.2009 read with Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944. They further stated that the adjudicating authority did not appreciate the fact that the appellants did not own or carry out any business other than the authorized operations in the SEZ during the said period. The appellants further clarified that they had not generated any separate income other than the authorized operation. They also claimed that in case of sanction of refund beyond the normal period of three months, an Interest needs to be sanctioned as per the existing circulars/instructions issued by CBEC.

5. Personal hearing in the case was granted on 04.07.2016 wherein Shri Rahul Patel, Chartered Accountant, on behalf of the appellants appeared before me and reiterated the contents of appeal memorandum. He also tabled additional submission before me.

6. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case on records, grounds of appeal in the Appeal Memorandum and oral/written submissions made by the appellants at the time of personal hearing. Now, let me examine the reasons of rejection and the defense reply given by the appellants.

7. To start with, I find that the adjudicating authority has rejected refund amount of ₹64,881/- citing reasons which are mentioned in the next page;

(a) ₹ 40,745/- was rejected on the ground that the appellants had claimed refund under Management or Business Consultancy Service but looking to the conditions surrounding the issuer of the invoice, the service should have been correctly classifiable under Legal Consultancy Service and the Legal Consultancy Service was not covered under the approved list of specified services at that particular time.

(b) ₹ 2,318/- was rejected on the ground that the appellants had claimed refund under Business Support Service. However, looking to the conditions surrounding the issuer of the invoice, the service should have been correctly classifiable under Training and Coaching Service and the latter was not covered under the approved list of specified services at that particular time.

(c) ₹ 5,150/- was rejected on the ground that the appellants had claimed refund under Information Technology Software Services. However, looking to the conditions surrounding the issuer of the invoice, the service should have been correctly classifiable under Training and Coaching Service and the latter was not covered under the approved list of specified services at that particular time.

(d) ₹ 8,067/- was rejected on the ground that it was not possible to conclude whether the services of renting of cab were availed outside the SEZ or not.

(e) ₹ 8,601/- was rejected on the ground that no supporting document could be submitted by the appellants to prove that they had availed CHA services from M/s. Aditya Marine Ltd.

Now I will discuss all the above issues point wise in detail.

8.1. I will now take up the first issue which is rejection of ₹ 40,745/- on the ground that the appellants had claimed refund under Management or Business Consultancy Service but looking to the conditions surrounding the issuer of the invoice, the service should have been correctly classifiable under Legal Consultancy Service and the Legal Consultancy Service was not covered under the approved list of specified services at that particular time. This is strange that just because the invoice was issued by a legal entity, the adjudicating authority has concluded that the said services would fall under the category of Legal Consultancy Service. The argument that any service provided by any law firm in any branch of law is liable for classification under Legal Consultancy Service is not acceptable. The adjudicating authority has not clearly discussed as to how the service would not fall under Management of Business Consultancy Service. Further, if at all we agree that the said services should fall under Legal Consultancy Service, I find that the said service was approved as an authorized service in the approval list of authorized services, dated 24.05.2012. The appellants have submitted before me the old approval list of authorized services, dated 26.06.2009, and the new approval list of authorized services, dated 24.05.2012. In the old list, the Legal Consultancy Service was not approved but in the new list it has been approved. The adjudicating authority, in his own Order-in-Original number SD-02/Ref-163/DRM/2015-16 dated 06.11.2015, in paragraph 14, has allowed the refund for the service category 'Commercial Training and Coaching Service' on the ground that same has been approved by the approval list dated 24.05.2012. In view of the above, I assert that the refund of ₹ 40,745/- is admissible to the appellants. Thus, I allow the appeal and grant refund of ₹ 40,745/-.

8.2. The second issue of rejection of ₹ 2,318/- is based on the ground that the appellants had claimed refund under Business Support Service. However, looking to the conditions surrounding the issuer of the invoice, the service should have been correctly classifiable under Training and Coaching Service and the latter was not covered under the approved list of specified services at that particular time. Once again, my views would be same as in paragraph 8.1. Moreover, the adjudicating authority, in his own Order-in-Original number SD-02/Ref-163/DRM/2015-16 dated 06.11.2015, in paragraph 14, has allowed the refund for the service category 'Commercial Training and Coaching Service' itself on the ground that same has been approved by the approval list dated 24.05.2012. Thus, I allow the appeal for refund of ₹ 2,318/-.

8.3. The third issue of rejection of ₹ 5,150/- is on the ground that the appellants had claimed refund under Information Technology Software Services. However, looking to the conditions surrounding the issuer of the invoice, the service should have been correctly classifiable under Training and Coaching Service and the latter was not covered under the approved list of specified services at that particular time. Once again, the adjudicating authority has delivered a verdict which is devoid of corroborative evidence. In view of the above, I agree to the argument of the appellants that the service is required to be classified as per its nature and not by the status of the service provider. Without much ado, I allow the appeal of the appellants for the refund of ₹ 5,150/-.

8.4. The fourth issue of rejection of ₹ 8,067/- is on the ground that the services of renting of cab were availed outside the SEZ and not in relation to authorized operation. The service of Rent-a-Cab was provided by M/s. Akbar Travels and M/s. Bhoomi Tours & Travels. The appellants have submitted copies of all the invoices before me. On going through the said invoices, I find that in many instances the cabs were used in the city of Ahmedabad (viz. Guest House, Residence, Sambhav Press, Adani House Bodakdev, Airport etc.) only or from Ahmedabad to other cities like Mundra, Gandhinagar, Vadodara, Patan and Rajkot. For the places other than Mundra and Adani House, the appellants cannot justify their cause as the authorized operations cannot be performed in Vadodara, Gandhinagar, Rajkot or Patan. In view of the above, I partially allow the refund claim of ₹ 4,027/- and reject ₹ 4,040/-.

8.5 Now, the fifth issue is rejection of ₹ 8,601/- on the ground that no supporting document could be submitted by the appellants to prove that they had availed CHA services from M/s. Aditya Marine Ltd. I have verified about M/s. Aditya Marine Ltd. and found that the said party is involved in providing service under the category of Clearing and Forwarding Services only. It is mandatory for Clearing & Forwarding Agent to hold a valid custom license by cracking examination conducted under Customs House Agents Licensing Regulations. After that he can clear the custom documents at port when material is imported from/ exported to another country. In simple terms Clearing & Forwarding means clearance of material by providing relevant documents at port and forwarding the material to next chain. This is enough to conclude that the appellants have availed the service of M/s. Aditya Marine Ltd. under the category of CHA services. The adjudicating authority was unable to understand the term 'ARE charges' mentioned in the invoice issued by M/s. Aditya Marine Ltd. and rejected the claim. He failed to understand that the ARE charges might be the abbreviated version of some work related to CHA service involving import or export of goods. He should have consulted with M/s. Aditya Marine Ltd. about it before come to any conclusion. I, in view of the above, allow the appeal of ₹ 8,601/- filed by the appellants.

9. In view of the above discussion, I allow the appeal of the appellants amounting to ₹60,841/- with consequential benefit and reject an amount of ₹4,040/-. The appeal is hereby disposed off in terms of the discussion held above.
